Q. VII. What Ministers have DIED since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, twenty-four, viz,—

(1.) GEORGE HARVEY SMITH; who was born at Upper Tean, Staffordshire, in the year 1832, and died August 15th, 1881, at Padiham, whither he had just removed on becoming a supernumerary. His deep piety and his zeal for the spiritual interests of men called forth anticipations of devotion to the work of that Ministry which he exercised for twenty-four years to the edification of the Churches. A career almost entirely free from misunderstandings and collision found its explanation in his eminently kind and courteous spirit; whilst the same quality, combined with a bright intelligence, a playful humour, and a sterling worth, rendered enduring the many friendships formed in his Circuits. His pulpit-services were never permitted to lose their freshness, and to every sermon he brought the charm of poetic beauty, as well as great earnestness and a scrupulous fidelity to evangelical truth. Whilst especially attractive to the young by his mode of proclaiming the Gospel, he was ingenious, varied, and successful in other methods of action for their special benefit. His colleagues found in him a wise counsellor and a genial co-worker, whose loyal support was ever sure.

Until about three months previously to his death there seemed to be before him a lengthened career of happy and successful toil, but sickness intervened, and after a while an incurable malady manifested itself. It was difficult and painful to realize the idea that his race was so early completed; but the grace which he had so confidently recommended to others proved to be his own sufficient stay. He serenely fell asleep, declaring that through the Atonement, and the faith which rested on it, all was well.

(2.) ROBERT JOHN THOMPSON HAWKESLEY; who was born at Sheffield, on the 10th of October, 1817, and died at Oldham, September 12th, 1881. His parents were members of the Established Church, but he was brought to God through the instrumentality of the Wesleyan-Methodist Ministry at the age of fifteen, when he joined the Wesleyan-Methodist Society, and devoted himself to Christian work. In 1841, he was accepted as a candidate for the Ministry, and, after three years spent at Hoxton and Didsbury, he entered upon Circuit work. From the beginning his spirit was lowly, his demeanour serious, his conversation godly. His preaching was the result of diligent study and careful preparation. The leading doctrines of Christianity, and especially those that are peculiar to Methodism, were his chosen themes; and on these subjects he preached as one who was untroubled with doubt, and whose only business in the pulpit was to publish, explain and enforce the acknowledged and invincible truth of God. At an early period he was entrusted with the duties of the superintendency, and was remarkably successful as a Circuit administrator. He diligently studied the polity and discipline of Methodism, and was eminently judicious in counsel, and wise in the management of difficult affairs. He took a lively interest in schemes for erecting or improving chapels and schools, and applied himself to the details of such work with an almost professional skill. In all things he served as a son and not as a hireling; he never willingly gave up any part of his work, and never thought he did too much.

When his health failed he was at first greatly distressed at the thought of even partial retirement, but in the spirit of submission he accepted the will of God. On being made a supernumerary, he wrote: 'All the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come. . . . Thou shalt call and I will answer Thee: Thou wilt have a desire to the work of Thine hands.' He still looked forward to a calm eventide of life, but the Master had otherwise provided. A series of relapses reduced him to great weakness, but the few words he was able to speak revealed a tranquil confidence in God. 'I know not,' he said, 'whether I shall ever get better, but I am leaving that where I have left other things—with Jesus.'

Towards the last, when asked if Jesus was with him, he answered with a smile, 'Of course He is!' Thus closed a life distinguished by sincerity and purity, and a Ministry of thirty-eight years, that won unceasing affection, while maintaining inflexible fidelity.

(3.) SAMUEL JOLL; who was born in Thetford, in the year 1806. He was the son of an esteemed Wesleyan minister, and had the advantage of godly parental training and example. In his sixteenth year he realized peace with God through faith in Christ. He very soon began to manifest strong concern for the salvation of souls, and commenced to preach in cottages and at outdoor services. When accepted as a candidate for the Ministry, he was sent to the Island of Antigua. He laboured there with great acceptance for a short time, but his health yielded to the severe strain. He preached for a time in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, but was compelled to return to England at the end of eight years, and thus completed the active period of his ministry. He entered into business, but retained a strong love for Methodism, and ever rendered willing help to his ministerial brethren. His preaching was original and powerful, and during his brief period of active service he brought many souls to Christ, who will be his rejoicing in the day of the Lord. He patiently suffered for many years in extreme weakness, and entered upon his eternal rest on October 14th, 1881, in the seventy-fifth year of his age.

(4.) PETER BATCHELOR; who was born in Dundee in the year 1809. His parents were devout members of the Scotch Church. They trained their son to reverence the Sabbath, to read God's Word, and diligently to use the means of grace. When about sixteen years of age he was induced to hear the Rev. Peter M'Owan, and under the sermon he was deeply convinced of sin, and earnestly sought pardon. This blessing he obtained some days after whilst at a Prayer-meeting. The evidence of adoption he never lost. He began at once to witness for Jesus.

At the expiration of his apprenticeship he removed to London. Here he joined the Rev. John Mason's Class at City Road, and became a vigorous worker as a tract-distributer, visitor of the sick, etc.

In the year 1837, having gone out to Madras, he there entered our Ministry. His first station was Melnattam, in Southern India. Thence he removed to Negapatam, then one of the most important Circuits of the District. Here he had ample and congenial scope for his tact, calm persistence and clear-sighted estimate of educational efforts among the better class of Hindus. He was the pioneer of a higher education in that part of India, and his well-timed efforts were crowned with cheering success. Being for a short time compelled to return from India, he went out at the request of the Missionary Committee to minister to the British soldiers who were engaged in the Crimean War. In 1862, his health failing, he was reluctantly compelled to leave the scene of his early labours he proceeded to South Africa, and there rendered very acceptable service until the year 1874, when he left the Mission-field for England. He suffered severely from bronchitis each winter, but ever bore his afflictions with exemplary patience.

During his last illness his mind was kept in perfect peace. Death had lost all terror. His hopes were definite and full. He realized what he had so consistently preached. One of his favourite passages was, 'We know that we have a building of God,' etc. There was no doubt on his mind as to the virtue of the Atonement; no misgiving as to the work of the Holy Spirit. On the 23rd of October, 1881, he passed away without a struggle, as in sleep, waking to behold the glory of his beloved Master.

(5.) JOHN CHYNOWETH; who was born at St. Agnes, May 20th, 1849. He was converted to God when about eighteen years of age, and very soon gained the esteem and confidence of the Church by his consistent piety, his fidelity to Christ, and his diligent pursuit of useful knowledge. He entered the Ministry in 1875, and laboured with acceptance and success in several Circuits. Of an amiable and affectionate disposition, he was specially fitted for pastoral work, in which he took great delight. His sermons were plain, faithful and evangelical, and often resulted in the conversion of souls. At the Conference of 1880 he received an appointment to the Bodmin Circuit, where he greatly endeared himself to all classes, and particularly to the sick and the poor, by his loving sympathy and Christian kindness. He died in great peace, October 24th, 1881, in the thirty-third year of his age, and the seventh of his ministry.

(6.) JOHN BROWN (B); who was born at Finedon, Northamptonshire, in September 1800. Blessed with a godly training, he was led to a saving knowledge of Christ in early life. He began to meet in Class at once, and greatly enjoyed this social means of grace to the end of his life. His course was upright and consistent throughout. He entered the Ministry in the year 1822, and received his first appointment to the Isle of Wight. As a preacher his sermons were plain and good, thoroughly evangelical and practical, and at times accompanied with great power. His superintendency of Circuits was characterized by great fidelity and a judicious administration of the Methodist discipline, while he was kind and considerate to all. As a pastor he was exceedingly gentle and sympathetic, and his ministrations to the sick were especially acceptable. After an active ministry of thirty-nine years he became a supernumerary in 1861, and during his lengthy period of retirement continued to render good service in several Circuits. He would often say,

> 'Long as my God shall lend me breath,
> My every pulse shall beat for Him.'

He died in great peace at Grimsbury, in the Banbury Circuit, November 1st, 1881, in the eighty-first year of his age, and the sixtieth of his ministry. His last words were 'Christ is with me.'

(7.) Francis Spicer Hagen; who was the son of the Rev. George Hagen. He was born at Belper in 1852. He was converted to God in the fifteenth year of his age, under the ministry of his father; and having given his heart to God, he gave himself to his Church by His will. After three years of very acceptable service as a Local-preacher, in which he had much fruit of his labours, he was received by the Conference of 1873 as a candidate for the Ministry, and was admitted into the Institution at Headingley. Long, however, before his term as a student had expired, he was called away to labour in the Circuit, and take charge of the home bereaved by the death of his father. He was a minister of much promise and great usefulness. In the Circuits in which he laboured the congregations were increased, and were edified by his evangelical and powerful preaching; the charm of his elocution, his vivid illustrations and his spiritual fervour enforcing the Divine word, whose power and life he himself so livingly felt. 'Strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus,' he was gentle unto all men, and followed righteousness, charity and peace.

Of blameless live and attractive demeanour, his qualities of mind and heart gained growing respect and attachment. As a colleague he was sympathetic and true-hearted, and by his brethren trusted and loved. He was diligent as a student, and his quotations of the sacred text were apt, copious and accurate. Ever seeking to make full proof of his ministry, he constantly kept in view a high standard of ministerial excellence and efficiency; hence he too persistently laboured, until having unduly taxed his energies, he was prostrated by a disease which medical skill could not arrest. After many months of painful and depressing suffering, patiently endured, without immediate premonition of death, and with no opportunity of testifying in his last moments of the presence and saving power of his Redeemer, which he had constantly realized in his life, he peacefully entered into rest, at Bari, Italy, on the 15th of November, 1881, in the thirtieth year of his age, and the eighth of his ministry.

(8.) Thomas Moss Albrighton; who was born at Clifton, in Derbyshire, November 5th, 1827. In his Christian home he was wisely trained. He was converted to God in his nineteenth year. As a penitent he mourned for months, but under the ministry of the late Rev. W. J. Bullivant, he was led to decision, and ere long found peace with God. He soon became a zealous and successful Local-preacher. In 1849 he was accepted for the Ministry, and during his training at Richmond College gave promise of noble qualities, which in after life he richly fulfilled. Entreated by his nearest friends to remain at home, he yet felt that he must go abroad. He offered himself for the Mission work, and spent nine laborious and successful years in Bermuda, Prince Edward Island, and New Brunswick, in British North America. During one of his voyages at this period he was caught in a terrible hurricane, when the vessel was swept about for fifteen days at the mercy of wind and waves, and his calm and cheerful demeanour so impressed several avowed infidels on board that they were led to Christ. Through failure of health he returned to England in 1860. From that time to the close of his career he laboured with increasing acceptance.

His many gifts were all consecrated to the service of the Giver. A good voice and dignified bearing gave charm to a ministry always earnest and effective. His sermons, prepared with much thoughtfulness and prayer, and marked by a chastened play of imagination, a discriminating use of illustration, were delivered with great force and fervour, and were largely owned of God in the edification of saints and the conversion of sinners. In the homes of his people too he was deservedly welcome. A lover of children, he won their hearts by his gentle, playful ways. Towards his colleagues he was ever trustful and kind.

Mr. Albrighton's acquaintance with Methodist polity and usages was wide, and his administration of our discipline wise. His brethren testified their approval of his character and their confidence in his abilities by appointing him to the charge of some of the most important Circuits of the Connexion, to the Chairmanship of one of the largest Districts in Great Britain and by electing him a member of the Legal Conference.

His death was sudden. Having been about his Master's business all day,—laying plans for special religious services,—in the evening he presided over two important Committees, and retired to rest in his usual health. During the night he was taken seriously ill, grew rapidly worse, and died without a struggle in the early morning of December 17th, 1881, in the fifty-fourth year of his age, and the thirty-first of his ministry.

(9.) WILLIAM SWALLOW; who was born at Lound, May 17th, 1813, and died at Retford, December 20th, 1881, in the sixty-ninth year of his age, and the forty-fifth of his ministry. In very early life he was brought to God under the ministry of the late Rev. W. O. Booth. He became a candidate for the Ministry in 1837. In reply to the question asked that year by the Mission Secretaries, 'Who will go to Western Africa?' Mr. Swallow nobly responded 'I will.' After spending two years in that unhealthy climate he returned home physically broken down; yet no sooner was health restored than his love to Africa constrained him to reoccupy his mission. There he remained three years. Both at home and abroad he was greatly honoured of God in his hallowed toil. His preaching was marked by plainness of speech, vigorous argument, and convincing power. As a pastor he was very diligent, as a colleague he was genial and much beloved. He lived in an atmosphere of devotion and was most transparent and conscientious. His death was sudden and mysterious: he was accidentally drowned during the storm and darkness of a winter night. Testimony in the dying hour was consequently impossible, but his holy living had long shown a state of constant readiness for the final change.

(10.) WILLIAM HENRY CLARKSON; who was born in York, and died in Canterbury, December 28th, 1881, aged eighty-six years. Though brought up in the Established Church, he did not become a partaker of the saving grace of God until he attended the religious services of Methodism. Having obtained a satisfactory sense of the Divine favour, he continued to walk in the light of God's countenance to the end of his long life. He commenced his ministry in Rye, in which Circuit a gracious outpouring of the Holy Spirit was vouchsafed, resulting in a large number of conversions. Subsequently in many large towns he was wont to preach the Gospel with a fervour of spirit, a chasteness of language, and a fulness of experimental truth, which told savingly on listening multitudes. Throughout life he maintained a deep and critical interest in the Holy Scriptures in their original tongues, and by various and comprehensive reading kept pace with modern religious thought. His attachment to revealed truth and his appreciation of a soul-saving ministry abode in full force to the end of his days.

At one period of his ministry he suffered acutely from a criminal attack upon his private character, occasioned by his firmness in the administration of our discipline. During the prolonged period of his superannuation in Canterbury he won esteem and affection among all classes of the community. He died in perfect peace; and representatives of all branches of the Church of Christ honoured him by their presence at his funeral.

(11.) WILLIAM CHAMBERS; who died at Clapham, in the seventy-fifth year of his age, and the fiftieth of his ministry, was the son of pious parents, and in early life became the subject of saving grace. After experiencing the blessings of religion himself, he felt a strong desire to preach the gospel to others, and, in 1830, became a Local-preacher in the Sheffield Circuit. Subsequently removing to Edinburgh, he had the privilege of attending the Theological Classes of the University, conducted by Dr. Chalmers. In 1832, he entered the Ministry, and laboured in various Circuits of the Connexion with marked fidelity and acceptance. He was of a meek and amiable spirit, deeply pious, and much beloved by all who knew him. As a minister, he was conscientious and affectionate, diligent in the visitation of the sick, and especially attentive to the young people of his charge. His preaching was evangelical, practical, and useful. He was owned of God in the conversion of sinners and the edification of the Church. When, through failing health, he became a supernumerary in 1872, and fixed his residence in the Lambeth Circuit, he cheerfully devoted his remaining strength to the service of his Divine Master. During the last year or two of his life, physical weakness induced much depression of spirits, which, however, quite passed away in the immediate prospect of eternity and heaven. At eventide there was light. His last words were expressive of assurance and peace. He entered into rest on the 14th of January, 1882.

(12.) MATTHEW GILES; who was born in Leeds, and died at Little Bentley, in the Manningtree Circuit. His father was an Independent and his mother a Wesleyan; but, on her marriage, she became, with her husband, a constant attendant at Salem Independent Chapel, Leeds, to which place of worship their son Matthew was regularly taken, the minister being the Rev. Edward Parsons. His mother died while he was a boy, but the influence of her godly example remained with him through life, though he was for some time led astray by evil companions. The special event by which he was arrested in his ungodly course, just as he was approaching manhood, was the sudden death of his father from cholera. As the son stood at the grave-side on the day after his father died, he firmly resolved upon an absolute severance from all evil associations. This resolution he carried out with a strength of will that became one of the chief features of his character. It was under the united ministry of the Revs. John Anderson and Thomas Galland, at Wesley Chapel, Leeds, that he was ultimately led to a life of faith in Christ Jesus.

Soon after his conversion he removed to the Pontefract Circuit, where he became a Local-preacher, and eventually a candidate for the Ministry. He was received into the Theological Institution in 1841, and removed to Richmond in 1843. The training he received there was followed up by close and faithful study to the end of life. He possessed a keen and vigorous intellect, all the powers of which were strenuously bent in seeking to understand the mind of God as revealed in His Word, as well as in acquiring general knowledge, his stock of which became very large, and was laid a willing tribute at the feet of Him Whose he was and Whom he served. His sermons were founded upon a sound and careful exposition of the texts he took, and were delivered with a force and fervour that showed how fully he believed and how firmly he grasped the Gospel he was called to preach. A delicate physical organization prevented him from being more widely known as a preacher. He possessed considerable aptitude for literary pursuits, and was for several years a constant contributor to the Wesleyan-Methodist Magazine.

After thirty-seven years in the work of the Ministry, a debilitated constitution compelled him to retire at the Conference of 1880; but until his strength finally gave way he rendered useful service to the church of his choice. He lingered for about four months after his last effort to preach, in which his strength entirely failed. Finding that his work on earth was done, he expressed a desire 'to depart, and to be with Christ.' As the end drew near he frequently gave expression to his feelings in the lines:

> 'Be Thou, O Rock of Ages, nigh!
> So shall each murmuring thought be gone,' etc.

In this spirit he passed to his rest on February 9th, 1882, in the sixty-fifth year of his age.

(13.) WILLSON BRAILSFORD; who was born in 1803. His mother, a convert of the venerable Wesley, exerted a strong and gracious influence on his mind and heart. In the year 1825 he was recommended for the Ministry by the revered Dr. Hannah, and became an able, devoted, and powerful preacher of the Gospel; and as superintendent and Chairman he rendered effective service in many of our most important Circuits and Districts.

Those who knew him best found in him a wise, strong, tender-hearted friend and helper; while those who knew him least recognised his sound judgment, unswerving integrity of thought and deed, often shown in unsparing denunciations of all forms of insincerity and want of principle. If the sterner virtues predominated in his outer life, they were called forth by the work he had to do. His heart was full of charity. It was the rarest thing to hear an unjust or unkind criticism from his lips. The quick and often severe reproof was ready enough to meet half-hearted, half-done work, which he could as little endure in himself as others.

After Mr. Brailsford retired to Fairfield, he was not able to do much public work, and his manliness and strength of Christian character were shown in the repression of much that had become to him almost a second nature; and not the least striking instance of his humility was given in his courteous recognition of the rights of those who filled positions from which he had retired. As the claims of active service ceased, they gave place only to those of the higher service for which he was being prepared. He came to feel, 'They also serve who only stand and wait.' As bodily weakness increased, all the gentler characteristics of his nature were developed, day by day; so that it was a sacred pleasure and honour to wait upon and care for him. His consideration, gratitude and thought for others, were fully known only to his children and servants. His whole soul overflowed with love; and through the closing years of sickness and trial, his patience and child-like humility must have been an acceptable sacrifice to the Father in heaven, to Whom he did 'in everything give thanks.'

On the morning of March 3rd, 1882, he entered into rest, in the seventy-ninth year of his age.

(14.) William Sanders; who was born at Alconbury, Huntingdon, January 1807. He was convinced of sin, and brought to a saving knowledge of Christ in his youth under the ordinary means of grace, and thereupon joined the Methodist Society in his native village. Zeal for Christ eventually constrained him to offer himself as a missionary for life. He was appointed to the Sierra Leone Mission by the Conference of 1835, and laboured successfully in the colony during two years of exceptional mortality. Within less than two months his three colleagues died, and he was for some time left alone in that deadly climate. Shattered health at length compelled him to return home, resolved to spend and be spent in the service of the Saviour. He laboured during the following thirty-four years in country Circuits with habitual zeal, diligence, and fidelity, winning the esteem of colleagues, office-bearers, and congregations by the sterling qualities of his Christian character. He was a painstaking, unselfish, and holy man, abundant in good works, ready to live or die for his Master.

On retiring from Circuit work in 1872, he found occupations for his leisure in preaching Christ, visiting the sick, and leading a weekly Class. During his last illness, which was short, he desired to depart and be with Christ. He died at Exeter, March 10th, 1882, in sure and certain hope of a joyful resurrection to everlasting life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

(15.) Thomas Pearson (A); who was born at West Haddlesey, near Selby, in the year 1796. At the age of nineteen he was made a partaker of saving grace. From that time to the end of his protracted course he maintained a consistent deportment. After labouring as a Local-preacher for some years, he offered himself for the Ministry, was accepted by the Conference of 1823, and appointed to the Wrexham Circuit. His ministerial labours extended over several counties, and were closed in the Epworth Circuit in 1862. He was a good man, of a meek and quiet spirit, and modest and retiring. The last twenty years of his life were spent at Drax, in the Snaith Circuit, where he occasionally preached, and regularly met a Society-class until his strength failed. Fully reliant on the Atonement, and assured of his acceptance with God, he entered into rest on the 14th of March, 1882, in the eighty-sixth year of his age, and the fifth-ninth of his ministry.

(16.) William H. Wall; who was born at Birmingham, April 2nd, 1839. The child of religious parents, he was brought to early religious decision; and taking an active part in evangelistic work, his zealous spirit attracted the notice of ministers and friends who urged him to become a candidate for the Ministry. He was accepted as a probationer by the Conference of 1862. The first four years of his ministry were spent in Scotland, where frequent demands upon his preaching power led to the formation of habits of consecutive study which greatly helped him in his after ministry. He had a great love for theology and the exposition of the Word of God. He was a diligent and persistent worker, painstaking and conscientious in the discharge of ministerial duty. Naturally of a quick and sanguine temperament, he could not sit still so long as the Work of God demanded attention. His piety was fervent, unobtrusive and practical. His character was blameless; and his life was regulated by high moral principle.

His last illness began with a severe cold, which developed into acute inflammation of the lungs. He was delirious during the last three days, and fell asleep on his forty-third birthday, April 2nd, 1882, in the twentieth year of his ministry.

(17.) Robert Stainton Ellis; who was born at Denbigh on the 5th of November, 1813. Early in life he was the subject of a clear conversion, and soon afterwards he felt moved by the Holy Ghost to call sinners to repentance. Fruit of his labour being seen, he was encouraged to persevere. He entered the Ministry in 1840, and by the blessing of God was permitted to labour with scarcely an interruption for thirty-seven years. In the year 1877 he was compelled by failing health to become a supernumerary, and settled at Highbury, London, where he continued to render such service as he could till seized with fatal disease. He was gifted by nature with a vigorous understanding and a retentive memory. His natural gifts were improved by a good education, and by constant and diligent study. He was an assiduous student of the Bible, and lived in close fellowship with God; so that his preaching was thoughtful, instructive and edifying, and his prayers in public peculiarly devout, spiritual and comprehensive. He was a diligent pastor, and was blessed as the minister of God to the salvation of many, some of whom he mentioned in his last sickness as his hope and joy and crown of rejoicing. He was warmly attached both to the doctrines and discipline of Methodism, and preached and maintained them in his Circuits with self-sacrificing conscientiousness, though with extreme sensitiveness. At the same time, he had broad sympathies with the Catholic Church.

As his end approached, while resting on the Atonement with a trust which he described as long since settled and fixed, he rejoiced also in the testimony of his conscience that in simplicity and godly sincerity he had sought to serve the cause of his Redeemer. His illness was painful and depressing, but his faith in the Divine Covenant was never shaken He was much cheered by the loving letters and kindly visits of his brethren in the Ministry. He wished to live; but when he knew that his end was near, with reverent submission he prepared himself to die. On the afternoon of Easter Sunday, twelve days before his death, the members of his family and household gathered round his bed and partook with him of the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. He expressed his unshaken trust in Christ, commended all around him to God, and affectionately encouraged some of the household who had recently been converted to persevere. After this his strength rapidly failed; and on the 21st of April, 1882, as the sun was setting, he passed away tranquilly in his sleep.

(18.) Gervase Smith, D.D.; who was born at Langley, in Derbyshire, on the 27th of June, 1821. To the bracing influences of his home amongst the hills the lad owed the healthy vigour and strong frame with which he grew up; and the pure Christian life and character of his parents, leading their household with them in the worship and service of God, bore good fruit in the early conversion of their child. He received a liberal education; and, while still young, began, as a Local-preacher, to invite others to accept the religion which filled his own life with gladness. In 1842 he was accepted as a candidate for the Ministry, and in 1845, after three years of successful study at Didsbury, received his first appointment to a Circuit.

The features which gave attractiveness and power to his ministry throughout its course, distinctly showed themselves in its beginning. His preaching was marked, most of all, by its rich abundance and earnest advocacy of Gospel truth; and his frank manliness of demeanour, his strong good sense, the directness and point of his appeals, together with a generous use of rhetorical ornament, made his appearance, either in the pulpit or on the platform, to be hailed by the people with warm welcome. In provoking liberality on behalf of Church funds and Christian enterprise, he had an almost unrivalled skill, so that the most unwilling often found themselves surprised by his winsome cheerfulness into an unexpected generosity. These remarkable powers were used with unsparing labour, and put freely at the command of Methodism, and not unfrequently lent to the service of other Churches.

In 1873, Dr. Smith was elected as Secretary of the Conference, and two years later to the Presidency, wherein he succeeded Dr. Punshon, between whom and himself there was the tie of an old and most intimate friendship. The observant vigilance, the ready tact, and withal the imperturbable good nature, with which he guided and controlled the proceedings of the Conference, sometimes in debates of no ordinary excitement, will be always remembered by those who were then present.

In 1874, he was appointed British Representative to the first General Conference of the Methodist Church in Canada; and in 1877 he received further proof of the esteem and confidence of his brethren in being selected to attend on their behalf the Australasian Conference, and to visit the Districts in Polynesia which had formerly been under the care of our Missionary Society. For nearly twelve years he was Secretary of the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund, in which department, as a zealous and sagacious co-worker with Sir Francis Lycett, he rendered splendid service, the abundant and precious fruits of which no man can ever estimate. In 1880, when his hitherto robust strength was already failing, he succeeded his old friend, the Rev. John Rattenbury, as Treasurer of the Auxiliary Fund.

In all these years the life of Dr. Smith, in its private relations, and in its pastoral service, was full of genial and hearty kindness, honest integrity, and helpful sympathy, insomuch that very many rejoiced to be numbered among his attached friends.

The last public appearance of Dr. Smith, about two months before his death, was in his native county, when he was present at the laying of the foundation-stone of a chapel at Matlock Bridge. After this, his health rapidly declined. In feebleness and pain he awaited approaching death with perfect composure. On his last day of perfect consciousness, two brother ministers were present amongst those who surrounded his bed. He begged that the hymn, 'Come, ye that love the Lord,' might be sung, and would have the last verse repeated once and again. After two short prayers had been offered, he raised his hands, and, with a radiant countenance, solemnly pronounced the Apostle's benediction, ending with an Amen so full and fervent as never to be forgotten by those who heard it. Afterwards he spoke of joining his friend, Dr. Punshon, and then, at intervals, the words fell from his lips, 'Jesus, my Saviour!' and 'Hold Thou my hand!' Thus, on April 22nd, 1882, waiting and trusting, he passed hence, and found that which he had long looked for—that of which he himself had thus sung in glowing hope:

'My fears have all vanished,
Death's terrors are gone;
I walk through the River,
And up to the Throne.'

(19.) JAMES OSBORN; who was born in Rochester, December 22nd, 1809. His parents trained their children in the love and fear of God: he felt all through life that he owed very much to their example, training and prayers. When eighteen years old, the death of a dearly beloved sister led him to seek a personal interest in his Saviour; and, having found peace with God, he at once began to work for Him, first in the Sunday-school, and then in the pulpit. In the year 1836 he was appointed to his first Circuit, and until 1872 gave full proof of his call to the Ministry, travelling with great acceptance and usefulness in some of our most important Circuits. His evangelical, clear, homely and practical preaching evinced constant and deep searching of the Scriptures, was marked by unswerving faithfulness, and great originality, and being accompanied with earnest prayer and a faithful, consistent life, was greatly owned of God to the spiritual welfare of his hearers. As a colleague, he was generous and genial, being greatly respected and beloved by his brethren. As a pastor, he was affectionate, diligent, and faithful, taking a keen interest in the families of his flock: his frequent visits to their homes were heartily welcomed by children and parents alike.

He was a staunch Protestant, thoroughly loyal to his country, his Church, and his God. He was most deeply interested in the success of Foreign Missions; and in the advocacy of their cause his painstaking reading, his wonderful mastery of figures, united with brilliant talents, resulted in the preparation and delivery of speeches on the Missionary platform seldom surpassed in the amount of information given, or in present and lasting effect. His familiarity with the Holy Scriptures was exemplary: they were indeed his delight and his counsellors, and in his hands seemed to afford an inexhaustible supply of instruction and stimulus. His study of the Scriptures was patient and life-long; his last occupation being a minute verbal examination of the Revised New Testament with the Authorised Version, which, however, he did not live to complete. The accurate analysis of character and motive, and the powerful enforcement of personal and relative duties which distinguished his ministry, no less than the great pungency and force of many of his reproofs and appeals, were largely due to his continual and devout listening to 'the oracles of God.'

In 1872, while stationed at Southampton, he was compelled, on account of failing health, to retire from the full work of the Ministry. His last affliction, which was long and trying, was borne with exemplary patience, submission, and cheerfulness. On April 28th, 1882, his spirit peacefully passed away to be with Christ.

(20.) RICHARD PRICHARD; who was born at Bangor on the 31st of March, 1811. His parents were Calvinistic Methodists. At an early age he became a member of the Wesleyan Sunday-school, and frequently attended our ministry. He joined our Society when twelve years of age, under a strong conviction of sin, and soon found peace through believing. Before he was seventeen years of age he began to preach, and shortly afterwards accepted an invitation to labour as a Home missionary in South Wales. He was received as a candidate for the Ministry by the Conference of 1830, and was appointed to a Circuit in 1832.

He laboured with great success in the principal Welsh Circuits for a period of forty-one years, when, because of failing health, he became a supernumerary. During the remainder of his life he resided at Rhyl, where he continued to render valuable assistance to the Cause, by preaching occasionally, meeting a Class, and by pastoral visitation. He possessed strong mental abilities, which were cultivated by constant reading and study. His course of reading was varied and extensive. He was conversant with the writings of the Puritan Divines, and thoroughly acquainted with all the standard works of our Connexion.

As a preacher he was able and effective. He was always fully prepared for his pulpit work. His sermons were rich in evangelical truth, which was clearly expounded and forcibly applied to the hearts and consciences of his hearers, and was also aptly illustrated by facts. He was faithful in visiting the people of his charge. In the administration of discipline he was firm, yet tender, judicious, but never severe. He took an active interest in every department of Christian work. In the erection of chapels, in the removal of debts, and in the general financial improvement of the societies under his charge, he was energetic and successful. He filled several important offices in the North Wales District with singular ability, and was a man of counsel in seasons of trial and difficulty.

Another marked feature in his character was his solicitude for the welfare of our young people, and the efficiency of our Sunday-schools. To secure these important ends he prepared two works, one of a Theological, and the other of a Biblico-Historical character. The former of these has appeared in the English language, and has obtained a wide circulation. He was the author of several other works: one of which, on Infant Baptism, is justly considered to be the ablest defence of this ordinance in the Welsh language. The assistance which he rendered to the cause of Wesleyan Methodism in the Principality, by teaching and defending its peculiar doctrines through the press, was very great.

His whole life was a manifestation of the beauty of holiness. During the last three years of his life he was physically very feeble; but his faith in God was unwavering, and his communion with God was unbroken. His last words were to the effect that he was perfectly happy. He died on the 12th of May, 1882, in the seventy-second year of his age, and the fiftieth of his ministry.

(21.) Henry Bleby; who was born at Winchcombe, March 16th, 1809. He was led to decision for Christ when he was eighteen years of age. At the Conference of 1830 he was received into the Ministry; and after a short period of theological training was sent to the West Indies, where he rendered invaluable services to the Church of God and the cause of humanity generally. He was prominent amongst a noble band of men who, in the midst of deadly persecution, counted not their lives dear to themselves, if they could but mitigate the sufferings of their oppressed fellow-creatures. The experiment of Wesleyan Missions in the West Indies owed much of its success to the courage and faithfulness of Mr. Bleby in the discharge of the difficult duties that devolved upon him. Mr. Bleby's intellectual acumen and comprehensive Scriptural knowledge made him an able exponent of the written Word. Throughout his career he was exemplary and successful in his work. His ministry was characterized by lucidness of expression, comprehensiveness of teaching, and much spiritual power. His various publications have contributed, by their graphic and stirring narratives, to disseminate much information respecting the West Indian Islands.

In his official position he guarded with firmness the discipline of Methodism. His large-hearted generosity led him frequently to render kindly aid to other Evangelical Churches at the cost of great personal toil. In 1878 his enfeebled health necessitated his becoming a supernumerary, but it was a pleasure to him to employ his remaining time and strength in the service of his Master. On May 22nd, 1882, he sweetly fell asleep in Jesus, in full possession of his mental faculties, and in calm confidence in his Saviour, in the seventy-fourth year of his age, and the fifty-second of his ministry.

(22.) EDWARD BURTON; who was born in 1843, at Bradbury, near Darlington. Trained by godly Methodist parents 'in the nurture and admonition of the Lord,' he was led at fifteen years of age to give his heart to God, and was thenceforth diligent alike in self-culture, and in devotion to his Master's work. Successful service as a hired Local-preacher and Home Missionary was followed by a three years' residence at the Richmond Theological Institution, where industrious attention to the prescribed course of study was combined with zealous employment in evangelistic labours in the adjacent villages.

From 1868 to 1877, Mr. Burton's health was uninterrupted, and the people of his charge recognised in him an Israelite indeed, in whom there was no guile. His pulpit ministrations were marked by the prominence given to the leading doctrines of the gospel by devoutness, simplicity, directness, and by tender appeal. He had a peculiar faculty for attracting the sympathy of natures very diverse from each other, and he used his influence over them for the promotion of the prosperity of Zion. His public prayers were marked by a trembling lowliness which still grasped with confidence the promises. His pastoral habits were indicated by a record of seven hundred visits paid during the last year of his life.

In 1877, affliction left him so far enfeebled, that his duties were often discharged amidst much suffering. His end came so suddenly that, whilst one Sabbath morning found him preparing for his ordinary public services, the following witnessed his departure from this life. He died on the 4th June, 1882. His last words were, 'A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one——.'

(23.) Thomas Hickey; who was born in Dublin, on February 15th, 1815. He received a religious training from his parents, who were members of the Established Church. When a youth he was invited by some young friends to attend the Methodist Chapel, and under a sermon preached by the Rev. John Williams was convinced of sin and decided for Christ. After a few weeks of earnest seeking he found peace with God. He immediately gave himself to religious studies and work, became a Local-preacher, and was very soon called to the Ministry, in the service of which, in many Circuits in Ireland, he was very happy and successful, until disabled by an accident, from which he never perfectly recovered. He was a man of well-informed and cultivated mind, his reading being very extensive, varied, and well digested. His sermons were carefully prepared, rich in evangelical truth, and eloquent in style. He was faithful in the administration of our discipline, generous and sympathetic, genial in his manners, and useful and beloved in the Circuits where he laboured.

Having become a supernumerary, he removed to Manchester in 1866. He made himself very useful in the Oxford Road Circuit, and subsequently in the Cheetham Hill Circuit, where he held the office of Chaplain to the Cemetery, the duties of which he fulfilled with faithfulness and Christian sympathy. For some time before the close of life he appears to have had an expectation of sudden death, for he frequently said to his daughter when retiring for the night, 'If I am gone in the morning, remember I am trusting in Jesus.' His expectation was realized. On Saturday, June 24th, 1882, whilst engaged in conversation with a friend, he passed away without a moment's notice. After his decease a few lines were found, written a short time previously, in which, while expressing his deep regret at being comparatively laid aside from active service, he says he had never had such full and precious views of Divine truth, and that his heart had never been so full of the love of Jesus; and then adds, 'They also serve who only stand and wait.' He died in the sixty-eighth year of his age, and the forty-seventh of his ministry.

(24.) James Sutch; who was born in London in 1811. He was trained in a godly home, was converted in his seventeenth year, and admitted into the Ministry in 1835. His intense interest in Foreign Missions was gratified by a few years of service in Van Diemen's Land. In consequence of bereavement he returned to England, and laboured energetically and usefully in a considerable number of Home Circuits. He was intelligent, straightforward, unobtrusive; an Israelite indeed in whom was no guile, a devoted lover of Methodism, and an assiduous student of Holy Scripture. His sermons, which were carefully prepared, consisted mainly of faithful expositions of Methodist Theology. In 1868 he retired from active work. The last six years of his life were years of great affliction, borne without a murmur. The sense of the Saviour's presence continued unclouded to the end. He died suddenly on July 7th, 1882, in the seventy-first year of his age, and the forty-seventh of his ministry.

2. In Ireland, five, viz.,—

(1.) JOHN DUNCAN; who was born in Athy, and when about twenty-two years of age, was 'born again' in a widespread revival of religion on the Carlow Circuit, during the superintendence of the Rev. Robert Huston, afterwards his co-worker and friend, who went to his reward a few months before him. There are many of the 'spirits of the just made perfect,' who will bless God for ever, for the labours of these brethren. Brother Duncan lived to the age of nearly threescore years and ten, forty-one of which were spent in the Methodist Ministry, thirty-four being in the active work. His labours were most abundant, and highly appreciated. He loved to present to his hearers the sufficiency and preciousness of Christ as the Saviour of men, and the 'sent of God'; and rejoiced in the gift of the Holy Spirit as the 'great power of God' for the salvation of lost souls, and their perfect renewal in holiness. His preaching and prayers bore the impress of this truth hence his success. He gladly reciprocated the sympathies, and shared the labours, of the ministers of other Churches. To the brethren of his own Church he ever evinced a tender regard and considerate thoughtfulness, not sparing himself to aid them in their arduous work. As a husband and father, he was tender, loving and unselfish; as a friend, kind and true, trustful and trusted; as a minister of Christ, manly, upright, painstaking and prayerful. One who knew him best, and loved him most, said: 'Scarcely any one but myself could fully appreciate the intense interest, purity of motive and unflagging energy, with which my dear husband devoted himself to his Master's service.'

While stationed on such Circuits as Dublin, Sligo, Waterford, Limerick, Bandon, Portadown, and the Curragh, his faithful preaching and diligent pastoral work won many crowns of rejoicing in souls saved, believers comforted and edified, and many homes and hearts made glad. For some years before his death, he suffered gradually increasing pain from the complication of diseases which in the end so hastily snapped the thread of life. He needed patience, resignation and an unmurmuring spirit; and these graces were abundantly supplied by the Giver of all grace; and while in agonizing pain, he could say: 'Father, Thy will, not mine, be done.' On the morning of the 23rd of August, 1881, he fell into a deep and painless sleep, and before sunset he ceased to breathe, and 'was not, for God took him' to heaven, where 'the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick,' 'neither shall there be any more pain.'

(2.) GIBSON M'MILLEN; who was born at Rickermore, Templepatrick, County Antrim, in the year 1811. He was trained with reference to the Presbyterian Ministry, but on the death of his grandfather, which took place when he was just emerging into manhood, he determined to follow the bent of his own inclination in the choice of a profession; he chose that of civil engineer, and in this capacity he joined the Ordnance Survey of Ireland. His first abiding religious impressions were made while listening to a sermon preached by the memorable Gideon Ouseley, in the town of Mohill. He united himself at once with the Methodist Society, and from time to time exercised his gift of public prayer; yet it was full three years before he obtained a clear manifestation of God's pardoning mercy. It was on the 17th of March, 1833, that, after a night of more than usual distress of soul, very early in the morning this manifestation was granted, and he was constrained to shout for joy, so that the whole household was aroused. The anniversary of this, the day of his second birth, he was ever afterwards accustomed to observe as a season of special devotion and thanksgiving.

After his conversion his thoughts turned to the calling for which he had been early destined, and, with a view to the Presbyterian Ministry, he entered the Belfast Academy. He still, however, retained his connection with the Methodist Society, and probably at that time was scarcely fully aware of the important theological differences which distinguish the two churches; but circumstances soon forced the consideration of those differences upon him, and he felt constrained to renounce his original intentions.

On the recommendation of the late Rev. William Reilly, then the superintendent of the Belfast Circuit, he was accepted by the Conference as a candidate for our Ministry in the year 1838, and was appointed to the Sligo Circuit. From that time, almost entirely without interruption by illness, he laboured diligently in the word and doctrine, until the year 1879, when he was compelled by failing health to seek comparative retirement by becoming a supernumerary. As a preacher, he was earnest, practical and thoroughly evangelical. His mind was well disciplined by a good education, and he gave himself to such studies as bore upon his work. His capacity for labour was great, and he never spared himself: methodical, diligent, attentive to details; genial, conciliatory, faithful; he was a model Circuit superintendent, and a most lovable colleague. He was a man of transparent sincerity, of unaffected and simple manners, uniformly courteous and kindly. The esteem in which he was held by his brethren was clearly shown when in 1861, on the occasion of carrying into effect the new arrangements with the Missionary Committee as to the Superintendency of Irish Missions and Schools, his was one of the three names submitted to the Committee as suitable for the appointment. He was chosen by the Committee for the office, and for nine years he discharged its onerous duties with great ability and faithfulness, earning in no small degree the respect and affection of the missionaries and teachers with whom he was brought into constant intercourse. That the esteem and affection of his brethren had not suffered any abatement after his return to the regular Circuit work, was shown by his being elected to fill a vacancy in the Legal Conference, and soon afterwards to the office of Delegate. With a naturally vigorous constitution, unbroken by any recent sickness, he gave fair promise of a ministerial life protracted considerably beyond the average time of service; but an accident which he met with during his residence at the Curragh Camp, seemed to give a shock to his constitution, from which he never fully recovered.

At the last Conference he was brought very low by sudden illness, so that for a time he seemed in the balance between life and death. His life, however, was preserved, and there seemed to be a considerable restoration of health. By the advice of eminent physicians, he went in the autumn on a visit to his daughter in South Africa, fondly hoping that the change would issue in a considerable recruiting of his physical powers; but the providence of God had ordered otherwise. His health did not improve, and he had made his arrangements for returning home, when more serious symptoms of disease were suddenly manifested. Five days later, on the 23rd of February, without any painful shock or struggle, his hold on the 'life that now is' was unclasped, and he départed to the better life in the presence of his gracious Master and Lord. During that brief space of lingering on the confines of the grave, there was great physical prostration, but there was no mental gloom, and no spiritual darkness. His submission was complete, his faith was unshaken, and his hope abounded. He died in the seventy-first year of his age, and in the forty-fourth of his ministry.

(3.) William Lutton; who was born in Legananny, near Banbridge, in the year 1837. He removed with his parents to Belfast while he was yet young. Here he became connected with the Primitive Wesleyan Society in Donegall Place, and was convinced of sin, converted to God, and appointed to Circuit work before he was twenty years of age. In this work of God his whole soul was engaged for the space of twenty-five years. He travelled some of the most laborious Circuits, and was greatly owned of God in the conversion of sinners, especially in Springfield, Manorhamilton, and Wicklow Circuits. He was a faithful preacher, a decided Methodist, and to the utmost of his ability attended to every part of the work committed to his care. He was a diligent pastor, visiting the flock constantly, and from house to house. He was zealous in warning sinners to 'flee from the wrath to come;' and by direct personal appeals frequently won souls for Christ. His zeal exceeded his strength, so that he was compelled to retire for a season as a supernumerary, but as soon as his health was restored he returned to his beloved work. Three years ago he was appointed to labour in Clifden, Connemara, at a time when religious persecution was raging there. The storm met him on his entrance, and for a time he suffered much annoyance; but his bright, genial spirit, by the special blessing of God, soon turned public feeling in his favour, enemies became friends, the Church had rest, sinners were brought to Jesus, and our Society revived.

Three months ago an acute internal disease prostrated him, and it became evident that his earthly work was finished. He bowed with submission to the Divine will; during a season of extreme pain patience had her perfect work; and with a clear intellect and sublime faith he calmly awaited the final summons. It pleased God to relieve his severe sufferings a week before death, and he passed away in great peace to his eternal rest, on Monday, the 12th of June, 1882.

(4.) William Parker Appelbe, LL.D., B.D.; he was born in Bandon, November 19th, 1807, and died in Belfast, June 22nd, 1882. From childhood he was the subject of the gentle influences of the Divine Spirit. He owed much to the wisdom, example and training of a godly mother, who lived to realize the joy of her heart in seeing him an honoured and successful minister of the Word of life in connexion with the Irish Methodist Conference. When about eighteen he was deeply convinced of sin, became truly decided for God, and speedily was enabled to rejoice in the experience of the pardoning mercy of God. His conversion was remarkably clear, and he never wavered. Shortly after his conversion he felt inwardly moved to consecrate his life to the work of the Ministry, and entered Trinity College, Dublin, with a view of becoming a minister in the Protestant Episcopal Church. After a truly successful college career, he deliberately made choice of the Methodist Ministry, and was received on trial by the Conference in 1834, and appointed to the Londonderry Circuit, where his ministry attracted considerable attention. He soon became widely known and esteemed as a minister of no ordinary power, whose services were eagerly sought, year after year, by all our principal Circuits. He seemed to grow in popularity and power with the lapse of years, and to the close of his life retained in a remarkable degree the fire and attractiveness of his early ministry.

As a preacher he was richly evangelical, clear, pungent, and powerful, at times truly eloquent; and throughout his lengthened ministry of nearly half a century, won to the Saviour many who will be the crown of his rejoicing in the day of the Lord Jesus. His sermons were studied with uncommon care, and accompanied in their delivery with a rich unction and pathos. He loved preaching; and with characteristic cordiality, placed his valuable services, both in the pulpit and on the platform, at the disposal of his brethren. As a friend, he was loving, tender and devoted; as a pastor, he was eminently prudent, faithful and devoted to the interests of the people of his charge, by whom, rich and poor, he was greatly beloved. He shared in no ordinary degree the love and confidence of his brethren in the Ministry, by whom he was chosen to occupy nearly all the most important offices in the Connexion, and was twice raised to the highest position they had it in their power to bestow. In addition to the laborious duties of his Circuit, for the last nine years Dr. Appelbe occupied the important position of Theological Tutor in our College in Belfast, a position for which his learning, culture, and sympathies eminently qualified him; and in connection with which he rendered noble service to the Church, while by the students who were privileged to be under his care, he was greatly beloved. For some time past, his health, truly robust, exhibited symptoms of decline; but he seemed so fresh and youthful in spirit, and preached with so much energy, that his friends fondly anticipated that many years of service to the Church still lay before him; but God had ordered otherwise.

During the recent Conference in Belfast, he appeared amongst his brethren with much of his usual vigour, and his familiar voice was heard again and again, and never seemed more fresh or unbroken. The last Sabbath of his life was one of peculiar enjoyment and blessing, to which he repeatedly referred on the following day. On Tuesday he was suddenly taken ill, in the Conference, and was obliged to be taken home. At first the symptoms were not alarming, but on Thursday night, with impressive suddenness, the final message came; and on the assembling of the Conference on Friday morning, the President announced the mournful intelligence of his death. He died in the seventy-fifth year of his age, and was entering on the forty-ninth of his ministry.

(5.) JOHN CARLISLE; was born near Lisburn, on the 17th of March, 1800, and closed a useful life in Belfast, on the 26th of June, 1882, in the eighty-third year of his age, and the fiftieth of his ministry. His family were members of the Presbyterian Church, in the discipline and doctrines of which he was carefully trained. The Methodist preachers were in the habit of visiting the neighbourhood where he lived, and he habitually attended their ministry. The power of God accompanied His word, and our late brother was deeply convinced of his natural depravity and sinfulness. 'Burdened with a sense of sin,' he earnestly sought the Lord, and in the full assurance of faith received 'the Spirit of adoption,' witnessing with his spirit that he was a child of God. He joined the Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Society, and was soon recognised as a devoted Christian, possessed of a sound mind and an extensive acquaintance with the Holy Scriptures. He was appointed to the office of Class Leader, and manifested great zeal for the honour and glory of his Lord and Saviour, and the salvation of souls. Amongst his friends and neighbours, and in the surrounding country, his earnest efforts were acknowledged by the Head of the Church in the conversion of sinners.

He was encouraged to offer himself as a candidate for the Ministry; and, being recommended by the District Meeting, was appointed to a Circuit at the Conference of 1832. For fifty years he steadily maintained the character and dignity of an ambassador for Christ, and was greatly beloved by the people on the various Circuits on which he laboured. His sermons were above the average: manifested much originality and freshness of thought; and were accompanied by the power and unction of the Holy Spirit, in the awakening and conversion of sinners, and in the building up of believers. On several of the most important Circuits his labours were various and abundant; he punctually and faithfully discharged all his duties, and was highly esteemed, not only by his own people, but also by ministers and members of other denominations. He was a lover of good men; and was so free from narrow sectarianism, that he rejoiced greatly to see and hear of the revival of God's work, and the salvation of souls, no matter by what instrumentality it was effected.

Eight years ago he retired from active work; but though not in charge of a Circuit, he was willing to engage in his beloved employment of preaching Christ and Him crucified. He was much sought after by ministers of various denominations in Belfast and adjacent towns, and never refused to preach for them when not otherwise engaged. As a husband and father, he was loving and tender; as a friend, he was kind, affectionate and constant; and as a Christian minister, he was unostentatious, cheerful and consistent. Nearly two years ago he experienced an attack of paralysis, from the effects of which he did not fully recover; and a second attack affected him more seriously. During his protracted infirmities and weakness he was patient, fully resigned to His Heavenly Father's will, free from murmuring and repining, cheerful and happy, knowing that his life was hid with Christ in God.

3. In our Foreign Missions, nine, viz.,—

(1.) Isaac Watson Harding; who was born at Wilberforce, Sierra Leone, January 19th, 1841. He was converted when eighteen years of age, and soon after commenced to work for God as an exhorter. In 1861 he was sent to the Wesleyan Training Institution, after which he was successively employed as Day-school teacher and Catechist. In 1877 he was brought to the Gambia by the Rev. G. Adcock, where his labours in the work he loved so well were so soon to close. He was received on probation by the Conference of 1879, and continued in the faithful discharge of his duties till May 29th, 1881, when he was carried off by small-pox.

He was a trustworthy, plodding brother, earnest and faithful in his preaching, diligent in pastoral labours, and much respected and beloved by the people amongst whom he lived and laboured; and many, it is hoped, will be the crown of his rejoicing in the day of the Lord Jesus.

(2.) William Francis Cocks; who was born in the parish of St. Agnes, Cornwall. His parents were members of the Methodist Society, his father being a Local-preacher of many years standing. Their son became in early life the subject of deep religious impressions, and at the age of fifteen, in connection with some special revival services, he decided to consecrate himself to the Lord. Four years later he became a Local-preacher, and at the age of twenty-four he entered the Ministry, and was designated to the Mission work. After a residence of two years and six months at the Theological Institution, Richmond, he entered on his ministerial career in the St. Vincent District, West Indies. He threw his whole soul into his work, and laboured harmoniously with all his brethren, and thereby won their esteem and love. His pastoral duties were faithfully and promptly discharged; his sermons were thoughtful, pointed and practical, and his studies were engaged in with the sole view of preaching 'Christ and Him crucified.' His retentive memory, simple and quiet manner, and ready and copious flow of language, made him a most useful preacher of the Gospel, while his kindliness of spirit secured for him many friends.

In July 1881 he fell a victim to yellow fever, and in death, as in life, he exercised a sure and exclusive trust in Christ his Saviour; and in the midst of labour, while planning and hoping many things, his sun went down while it was yet day. After six days of illness he entered on his reward, in the thirty-first year of his age, and the sixth of his ministry.

(3.) George Parsonson; who was born at Doncaster on the 25th of May, 1817. He was converted at the age of twenty, and soon afterwards began to preach. He was accepted by the Conference, and after a short period of student life at Abney Park, was appointed to the West Coast of Africa. He spent two years in the deadly climate of the Gambia, and then visited England, returning to his loved work as a married man. After two years, repeated attacks of fever prostrated both himself and his wife, and as the only means of saving her life they took passage for England. On the eve of sailing news came of the death of the only other white Missionary in that part of the country, so while his wife proceeded alone to England, Mr. Parsonson remained behind in enfeebled health and distressing suspense to carry on the work for eleven months longer.

During his residence of about six years on the West Coast he had fever eighteen times, and was often brought to the gates of death. Twice he had yellow fever. His labours in this part of the Mission-field were very successful. A few months' stay in England so recruited his health that he again offered for the foreign work. He chose South Africa, and laboured in various stations in Natal, Cape Colony, and Namaqualand. In 1859 the shattered health of Mrs. Parsonson compelled his return to England, and for sixteen years he laboured acceptably and usefully in various Circuits. In 1875, his own health having failed, he returned to South Africa. The three months' voyage so re-established his health that for some years longer he was enabled to labour for his Master. In January 1880 he consented to become a supernumerary, and from that time his health steadily declined. In September he sought medical advice, and was told that a general decay of his constitution had set in, which would go on slowly but surely to the end. His sufferings increased greatly, and he set his house in order. From January 1881 he became a confirmed and most afflicted invalid. In the furnace of anguish his language was ever that of unwavering trust and entire submission. Occasionally he had seasons of great joy: 'The golden gate seemed open, and the glimpse I had of the glory made all the pain seem nothing.' On the 3rd of June he appeared to be sinking fast, but for fourteen days longer he lingered, taking no nourishment, and on July 14th his spirit entered into the joy of his Lord.

Mr. Parsonson's ministry in his younger days was notable for soul-saving power. His sermons were clear, sound, and full of evangelical truth. His attachment to the doctrines and polity of Methodism was deep and fervent. His piety was of no common order, and was characterized by strict, unbending conscientiousness, unshrinking courage and fidelity to what he believed to be right. His administration of discipline was marked by constant and firm adherence to our Rules, and strengthened by his extensive acquaintance with our polity. Having faithfully 'served his generation by the will of God,' he 'fell on sleep,' leaving a stainless reputation, in the sixty-fifth year of his age, and the thirty-eighth of his ministry.

(4.) Moses C. Hagan, Native Assistant Minister; who was born at Wellington, Sierra Leone, in November 1838. When ten years old he was deprived of the advantages of a further education by the loss of his parents. Roused by good advice, he began when he was nineteen to improve his mind, and to seek the salvation of his soul. One day whilst reading his Bible he was powerfully convinced of sin, and in a record of his religious experience he states that after a time of great struggle and soul-affliction, under a sermon by the Rev. D. W. Thorpe, he, through faith in the Lord Jesus, found rest unto his soul.

An application he made to enter the King Tom's Institution was granted. After about three years' training he was appointed, in 1862, as a schoolmaster in one of the Freetown Circuits, and was received as a minister on trial in 1876. His five years' work as a missionary was characterized by great zeal and usefulness. One year was spent in the Yaba Circuit, three in Lagos, and a part of the fifth in Abbeokuta. As a preacher he proclaimed the truth with simple earnestness, and whether in Yoruba or English made that truth felt. His attention to the poor and the sick, and his care of the Churches were truly exemplary. On July 15th, he was seized with apoplexy, which shortly afterwards terminated his life. Conscious almost to the last, but speechless, he could only show his friends by signs that Jesus was precious to him through those weary hours. He departed this life on August 5th, 1881.

(5.) Amos Xaba; who was born in Basutoland in the year 1845. Subsequently he removed into Natal, where he gave his heart to God, and became a member of the Wesleyan-Methodist Society. Being a man of deep piety, and possessing good mental abilities, he was received on trial for the Native Ministry, and was, in 1881, appointed to the Native work in the Harrismith Circuit. Here his labours were very brief, yet very successful. In August last he was seized with an affliction which speedily resulted in his death. He was beloved by all who knew him, both Europeans and Natives, and was removed from us at the very opening of a ministerial life which gave promise of great usefulness.

(6.) Timothy Laing; who was born on the 14th of October, 1824. He received his education in the Colonial school at Cape Coast. In the year 1841 he was taken from school by the Rev. T. B. Freeman, General Superintendent of the Wesleyan Missions in these parts at the time, and placed under training for Mission work. In 1842 he was sent to the Theological Institution at Accra, under the tutorship of the Rev. John Martin. It was here that he laid in store that useful knowledge which he subsequently so successfully employed for the Master's glory; and here he obtained that knowledge of the Saviour, Whom it became his life-work to proclaim to perishing men. From the Institution he was sent forth to labour in a subordinate capacity, and he did much valuable work as a schoolmaster, interpreter and catechist until 1851, when he entered on his ministerial course. His career from that time to the close of his life was one of untiring zeal and labour in the Master's vineyard, and of brilliant success and much usefulness. As a pioneer Missionary and as a Circuit Minister, he was 'in labours more abundant,' in Kumasi, Whydah, and Lagos, and in Cape Coast, Anamabu, Domonasi, Elmina, and Dix Cove.

As a preacher, Mr. Laing was the first of his brethren. He was a power in the Gold Coast pulpit. Hundreds in the District from Appolonia to Lagos, ministers and laymen, trace their conversion, under God's blessing, to his lucid and faithful exposition and powerful application of the Word of God. But the usefulness of this devoted minister did not end in the pulpit. He did not strive to win only the hearts of his charge for the Master, but also to inform their minds. For this purpose he held Bible-classes and organized associations wherever he found it practicable, and the Lord rewarded his endeavours herein also by abundant success. Several influential men, both lay and clerical, bear testimony to the good they obtained by these means. As a Christian, Mr. Laing was sincere; rather reticent and undemonstrative, his general deportment gave testimony to his inner life. His health began to fail in the year 1878, when he obtained permission to retire for a year. It was hoped that a rest of twelve months would tend to recruit his health, so that he might return to active service. But the Lord willed it otherwise. A visit to England caused an improvement for a time, but sharp domestic afflictions brought on paralysis in 1879

On the 23rd of October, 1881, he was suddenly called from toil and pain to rest and joy.

He preached what proved to be his last sermon on the 9th of October. On the 16th he conducted a Lovefeast, in which he clearly gave testimony to his enjoyment of a present salvation; on the 23rd he was unable to take the morning appointment at Wesley Chapel; and at two o'clock in the afternoon he was summoned to the presence of his Master, and ceased at once to work and live.

(7.) FREDERICK G. ELLIOTT; who gave his heart to God in early life, and soon commenced to preach. Having been received as a candidate for the Ministry, he entered the Theological Institution at Richmond in 1877. After spending three years there, he was appointed to St. Kitts. He entered upon his duties with a firm determination to become 'a workman that needeth not to be ashamed.' Being a rapid and retentive reader, a quick, clear thinker, and a ready speaker, and making the Bible his chief study, he gave himself up with indomitable zeal to gather wanderers into the fold, and to feed the flock of Christ. He speedily established himself in the affections of his people, and throughout his brief ministry won the increasing esteem of all who knew him. As a colleague, deference to superior authority, steadfastness to Christian principle, and a cheerful readiness to render aid were beautifully blended. As a preacher, he was earnest and thoughtful, and gave promise of great usefulness. But the Divine hand was moulding him for heaven. Those who knew him best, could not but observe that he was growing in grace, and in the knowledge of Christ. During his sickness, at times his mind wandered, and for two days he was unable to speak. But by the pressure of the hand, the nod of the head, and by pointing upwards, he assured those who were with him that Jesus was precious and heaven near. He entered into rest on November the 14th, 1881.

(8.) JOHN W. HERIVEL (B); was a native of Alderney. He was favoured with pious parents, his father having been a Leader and Local-preacher in the Alderney French Methodist Society. He was convinced of sin during a revival that broke out in the French Methodist Sunday-school when in the twelfth year of his age. He then found peace through believing. He immediately gave evidence of the genuineness of his conversion by the zeal he manifested for the salvation of others. Even at that early age his prayers were fervent and powerful, and to the end he continued to be pre-eminently gifted in prayer. Long before God opened the way for him to preach the Gospel, he had believed that he was called thereto; he therefore gladly accepted the invitation of the Rev. James Hocart to enter the Training Institution at Lausanne. After spending three years there he was sent to Hayti in 1879. After a short stay at Port-au-Prince he was appointed to Cape Haytien, where he laboured hard to revive a cause that had long been neglected.

During the last year he suffered from repeated attacks of fever, resulting frequently from over exertion in the work of the Lord. While the small-pox was ravaging Cape Haytien he took little rest. Day and night he visited the sick and dying, until he himself was attacked with yellow fever, which terminated his earthly career, on the 16th of November, 1881. His cheerful, sympathizing and kind disposition won for him the affection and esteem of those among whom he laboured. His preaching was always practical, addressing itself more to the heart than to the intellect. He saw but little fruit of his labours. Often did he weep because of the hardness of the soil he had to cultivate, where almost every woman is a papist, and every man a free-thinker; but his faith and hope in God sustained and cheered him to the end, which was peaceful and triumphant.

(9.) JOHN LEWANA; who was born in Kafirland about the year 1831. Both his parents were heathens, his father being a polygamist. While their son was yet a child they removed to Farmerfield, and there came under the saving power of the Gospel. The boy was placed under the instruction of the Mission-school on that station, and at the age of fifteen experienced a clear change of heart, accompanied with a strong assurance which never afterwards admitted a doubt. From that hour he walked with God. For several years he enjoyed the advantage of residence in the family of the Rev. G. Chapman, who encouraged and directed his studious habits. He was distinguished for perfect love of truth, for tender consideration for others, and for manifold Christian activities. The Lord touched his heart, and it became fully set upon the work of preaching the Gospel to his own race. The Holy Spirit in putting His seal upon him, and calling him to the Ministry, unfolded to the South African Churches His chosen agency for the evangelization of the Kafir tribes.

Received as a probationer in 1866, he laboured with devotion and great acceptance to the end of his course. His elevation to the Ministry deepened his humility. His saintly character greatly endeared him to our people, while his own brethren regarded him with peculiar affection. He was a wise steward; and as he moved from Circuit to Circuit his influence and usefulness increased; the Churches were edified, and many of the heathen converted. He suffered keenly from peculiar domestic affliction; but he bore his trial with an admirable spirit, which never for a moment faltered in patient and tender devotion.

His abundant public labours were too severe for his delicate frame, and symptoms of consumption were rapidly developed. When for the first time he realized that his ministry might soon close, he was seized with a great sorrow and darkness, but the struggle was brief; he found peace in perfect acquiescence in the Divine will. From that moment he patiently waited for his Lord. When he expressed his longing to attend the covenant service, and his superintendent endeavoured to dissuade him from the attempt, he said, 'O! let me go once more, and if the Lord will I should be glad to go right up from the communion to heaven.' Rallying a little he dictated a most affecting letter to his brethren at the District Meeting, assuring them that he was 'safe on the rock.' His last hours were bright. 'There are no clouds,' he said; and his friends watched him until the light of evening time merged in the light of eternal day. He died on January 31st, 1882.

N.B.—The obituaries of John Harding, Frederick M. Webster, M.A., and W. Gottlieb Wiesenauer will appear next year.

Q. VIII. Are there any OBJECTIONS to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?

A. They were examined, one by one.

Q. IX. Who have CEASED TO BE RECOGNISED as Ministers amongst us?

A. 1. William Hambrook and John Sikwebu, who have retired solely for want of health. James S. Hill, Robert J. Johnson, George Kennedy, Guilherme Dias, and Pietro Taglialatela, who have voluntarily retired from our work.

2. John Broadhurst Nichols, S. Hickling Parkes, and Joel Ndungane, who have also retired.

Q. X. How are our Ministers and Preachers on Trial STATIONED for the ensuing year?

A. As follows; viz.:—

[N.B. 1. Each of the places mentioned in these Stations, and numbered consecutively, from 1 to 860, is the head of the Circuit; and the Minister first named is the Superintendent. The Superintendent and other Minister or Ministers, stationed in or appointed to the several Circuits undermentioned, is and are appointed by the Conference to preach and to perform all acts of religious worship and Methodist discipline, in each and every one of the Wesleyan-Methodist Chapels already erected, or to be erected, in each Circuit respectively, within the space of twelve calendar months, at such time or times, and in such manner, as to him or them shall seem proper; subject, nevertheless, to the Superintendent Minister.

2. Stations without a number are placed under such supervision as the Conference directs.]

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENTS.

Q. XII. Whom do we appoint to be our Delegate in Ireland?

A. Our PRESIDENT, the REV. CHARLES GARRETT, or, in his unavoidable absence, one of the following Ministers:—The REV. GEORGE OSBORN, D.D., Ex-President; the REV. OLIVER M'CUTCHEON, nominated by the Irish Conference; the REV. EBENEZER E. JENKINS, M.A.; the REV. BENJAMIN GREGORY.

N.B.—1. The PRESIDENT, or other Minister, acting as Delegate under the authority of the preceding appointment, who shall preside at the next Conference in Ireland, shall exercise the powers confided to him under and by virtue of the thirteenth clause of Mr. Wesley's Deed Poll, dated the 28th of February, 1784.

2. The SECRETARY OF THE CONFERENCE, the EX-PRESIDENT, and the REV. GEORGE W. OLVER, B.A., are appointed to accompany the President to the Conference in Ireland, which will commence in Dublin on Friday, June 15th, 1883.

The following appointments are also made, viz.:—

1. The PRESIDENT is appointed to visit Scotland in October, for the purpose of promoting the Missionary cause, and also of attending the Financial District Meeting. The REV. THOMAS CHAMPNESS, and the REV. WILLIAM H. TINDALL are to accompany the President.

2. The REV. JOHN W. GREEVES is appointed to attend the Financial Meeting of the South Wales District, to be held at Lampeter, in September, 1882.

3. The REV. EBENEZER E. JENKINS, M.A., is appointed to attend the Annual Meeting of the South Wales District Committee, to be held in Llanelly, in the spring of 1883. The REV. GEORGE BOWDEN is appointed to accompany Mr. Jenkins.

4. The PRESIDENT is appointed to attend the Annual Meeting of the North Wales District Committee, to be held at Carnarvon in the spring of 1882. The Rev. DAVID J. WALLER is appointed to accompany the President.

5. The Rev. James H. Rigg, D.D., is appointed to attend the next Annual Meeting of the Isle of Man District Committee.

6. The Rev. William Cornforth, of the French Conference, is appointed the President of the next French Conference, to be held in Dieu-le-fit, in the month of June, 1883.

7. The Rev. John Walton, M.A., is appointed the President of the First South African Conference, to be held in Cape Town in the month of April, 1883. And until such Conference shall have assembled and been duly constituted, the Conference appoints the Rev. John Walton, M.A., its delegate in South Africa.

EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL.

Q. XV. What is the Report upon the Examination of PREACHERS ON TRIAL during the past year?

A. The Conference receives the Report, expresses its satisfaction with the general results of the Examination, and directs that an Abstract of the Report be printed in the Minutes. The Conference also directs that the Report be printed and sent to all Chairmen of Districts, to the Ministers who form the Board of Examiners, to the District Examination Secretaries, and to every Preacher on trial. (See Appendix, No. VIII.)

Q. XVI. What are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of PREACHERS ON TRIAL for the ensuing year?

A. 1.

(1.) The Examination of Preachers on trial shall be conducted by a Connexional Board of Examiners, to consist of one Examiner in each subject contained in the course of reading prescribed for the four years of probation.

(2.) In addition to the Probationers' Examination Committee, two General Examination Secretaries shall be appointed.

(3.) Arrangements shall be made at each Financial District Meeting for a Central Examination of Preachers on trial in each District, or more than one if necessary; at which Central Examination or Examinations the Probationers in that District shall attend. In the event of any Preacher on trial being unable to pay the necessary travelling expenses, those expenses shall be defrayed, together with other expenses of the Examination, from the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund and from the Theological Institution Fund, in such proportions as the Committees of those Funds may decide.

(4.) At each Financial District Meeting a District Probationers' Examination Secretary shall be appointed, or more than one, so as to provide a Secretary to take charge of each Central Examination in the District; and each District Secretary shall be held responsible for the efficient conduct of the Central Examination. Full and clear instructions as to the course to be pursued are to be forwarded to the District Secretaries by the General Secretaries.

(5.) The Examination shall take place throughout the Connexion on the same days in the first week of April.

(6.) The Examination-Papers, prepared under the direction of the Committee, shall be sent by the General Secretaries to each District Examination Secretary, whose duty it shall be to distribute them at the Central Examination, and by the earliest post transmit to the General Secretaries the Papers written by the several Probationers at those Examinations.

(7.) The Probationers' Papers shall be forwarded by the General Secretaries to the Examiners for valuation, and each Examiner shall send to them the results of his valuation of the Papers shown by numbers, together with any remarks upon them which he may think desirable. In the case of the North and South Wales Districts, such variations from the foregoing arrangements are permitted as the Examination Secretaries may find necessary.

(8.) The General Secretaries shall compile from the returns of the Examiners a complete Report upon the reading of each Probationer, and forward it to the District Examination Secretary, to be presented by him to the May District Meeting, together with such remarks on the Examination of the Preachers on trial in the District as he may think desirable. The numbers obtained by each Preacher on trial in the several subjects of Examination shall be entered on the District Minutes. The Resolutions of the District Meetings on the Examination of Preachers on trial shall be forwarded to the General Secretaries by the District Examination Secretaries.

(9.) The Conference directs the General Examination Secretaries to send to each District Committee—in May—having one or more Candidates for Ordination, a Report showing the result of the examination of every such Candidate during each year of his probation.

(10.) The General Secretaries shall prepare and present to the Conference a General Report upon the Examination of the Preachers on trial.

2. The following Ministers are appointed the Probationers' Examination Committee for the ensuing year; viz.,—the PRESIDENT of the Conference, the Ex-President, the Tutors of the four Branches of the Theological Institution, the two General Examination Secretaries, the REV. BENJAMIN GREGORY, DR. RIGG, BENJAMIN HELLIER, and GEORGE W. OLVER, B.A. The Rev. Dr. Moulton is reappointed the Secretary of this Committee.

3. The Rev. George O. Bate and Dr. Moulton are reappointed the two General Examination Secretaries.

4. The following are the subjects of Examination for the year 1882—3; viz.,—

(1.) For Preachers in the first year of trial:—
- i. Wesley on Christian Perfection.
- ii. Pearson on the Creed. Articles VI., VII.
- iii. The Acts of the Apostles.
- iv. St. John i.—iv., in Greek.
- v. St. John i.—viii., in English.

(2.) For those in the second year:—
- i. Pope's Compendium of Theology. Vol. I., pp. 1—230.
- ii. Wesley's Sermons, i.—xxx.
- iii. Moulton on the English Bible.
- iv. St. Matthew's Gospel.
- v. Acts vii.—xi., in Greek.
- vi. Exodus xiv.—xx., in Hebrew.
- vii. Psalms i.—xli.

(3.) For those in the third year:—
- i. Butler's Analogy. Part I.
- ii. Wesley's Sermons, xxxi.—liii.
- iii. History of the Christian Church during the Third Century.
- iv. 1 Samuel.
- v. Lightfoot on Galatians.
- vi. Psalms lxi.—lxx., in Hebrew.
- vii. Epistle to the Galatians.

(4.) For those in the fourth year:—
- i. Butler's Analogy. Part II.
- ii. Williams on the Constitution and Polity of Wesleyan-Methodism.
- iii. History of the Christian Church, A.D. 300—350.

iv. St. John's Gospel.
v. 1 Timothy, in Greek.
vi. Isaiah lx.—lxv., in Hebrew.
vii. 1 Timothy.

5. The following are the subjects of Examination for the year 1883—4; viz.,—

(1.) For Preachers in the first year of trial:—
i. Wesley's Sermons, i.—xxx.
ii. Pearson on the Creed. Article II.
iii. The Acts of the Apostles.
iv. St. John v.—viii., in Greek.
v. St. John i.—viii., in English.

(2.) For those in the second year:—
i. Pope's Compendium of Theology. Vol. II., pp. 1—253.
ii. Wesley's Sermons, xxxi.—liii.
iii. Moulton on the History of the English Bible.
iv. St. Matthew's Gospel.
v. Acts xii.—xvi., in Greek.
vi. Deuteronomy i.—iv., in Hebrew.
vii. Psalms xlii.—lxxii.

(3.) For those in the third year:—
i. Butler's Analogy. Part I.
ii. Pope's Compendium, Vol II., pp. 254—451.
iii. Westcott's Introduction to the Study of the Gospels.
iv. 2 Samuel.
v. Ephesians, in Greek.
vi. Psalms lxxi.—lxxx., in Hebrew.
vii. Ephesians, in English.

(4.) For those in the fourth year:—
i. Butler's Analogy. Part II.
ii. Williams on the Constitution and Polity of Wesleyan-Methodism.
iii. History of the Christian Church, A.D. 300—350.
iv. St. John's Gospel.

v. 1 Timothy, in Greek.
vi. Isaiah xl.—xlv., in Hebrew.
vii. 1 Timothy, in English.

6. The subject mentioned last in the list of subjects for each year is intended for those only who do not read Greek.

7. The Conference requires every Probationer of the second, third, and fourth years respectively to be examined in four subjects; but it expects such Probationers to be examined, as a rule, in five subjects. Probationers of the first year shall be examined in four subjects.

8. The Conference resolves that the Examination shall extend to two days.

9. The Conference requires every Probationer, who can do so, to take the examinations in Greek and Hebrew. Every Probationer who has been a student in the Theological Institution shall be examined in Greek and Hebrew, unless the Tutors under whom he studied, having taken into consideration his attainments on leaving the Institution, are of opinion that these examinations cannot reasonably be required in his case.

10. Every Preacher on Trial shall present for examination as many as two books (or other prescribed portions) of Scripture, either in the original language or in English; and in every case in which a Preacher on Trial obtains less than one-third of the full number of marks for a paper on any portion of Scripture, he shall be re-examined in the same subject in the month of June following, and the results of both examinations shall be specially reported to the Conference.

11. Every Probationer shall, not later than the end of October in each year, inform Dr. Moulton what subjects he will present for Examination.

12. All Probationers whom the President of the Conference shall send into the work before Christmas, 1882, shall be examined in the subjects of the First Year.

13. The Conference directs that, with the exception of students who by the decision of the Conference are allowed to remain in the Institution for a fourth year, all Probationers not at present appointed to Circuits, including those who may return to the Institution while awaiting employment in Circuits, shall be examined in accordance with the regulations for the Examination of Preachers on Trial.

14. The days of Examination for the ensuing year shall be Tuesday, 3rd, and Wednesday, 4th April, 1883.

15. Should any Probationer be prevented by illness, or otherwise, from attending the Annual Examination, the Chairman of the District in which he is stationed shall, in concert with the General Secretaries, make suitable provision for his examination.

16. The Conference sees no sufficient reason for the exemption of those brethren who have formerly been Ministers in other Churches from the usual course of reading and examination prescribed by the Conference for Preachers on Trial, and directs that they be required to observe such regulations.

17. The following Ministers are appointed the Board of Examiners for the ensuing year; viz.,—the Rev. Thomas Akroyd, John S. Banks, J. Agar Beet, J. Bush, J. Chalmers, M.A., W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., George G. Findlay, B.A., John D. Geden, Richard Green, J. Robinson Gregory, John Hartley, Marshall Hartley, Henry G. Highfield, B.A., William Hudson, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., Edward Lightwood, Frederic W. Macdonald, R. W. Moss, Dr. Moulton, Frederick P. Napier, B.A., Charles D. Newman, Dr. Nicholson, George W. Olver, B.A., Dr. Osborn, George Oyston, B.A., Richard Peart, Dr. Pope, G. Stringer Rowe, W. F. Slater, M.A., Jacob Stephenson, M.A., Robert Stephenson, B.A., William Stevinson, B.A., Alfred H. Vine, Dr. Williams, Joseph C. Woodcock, and Robert N. Young.

18. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Board of Examiners for their services during the past year; and also to the Rev. George O. Bate and Dr. Moulton for their services as General Examination Secretaries.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Q. XVII. What are the Directions of the Conference respecting the EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY?

A. 1. (1.) No Candidate for the Ministry shall be received who does not possess a fair acquaintance with English Grammar, Orthography, Arithmetic, Geography, and History.

(2). A preliminary Examination by papers which shall be prepared each year by the Tutors of the several Branches of the Theological Institution in turn shall be conducted during the session of the District Meeting by a Sub-Committee of two or three Ministers, who shall value and report the answers of the Candidates. This Sub-Committee shall be elected by the District Committee. The answers shall be written in the presence of one or more Ministers, who need not be members of the Sub-Committee.

(3.) In order to secure, as far as practicable, uniformity of valuation, figures showing the number of marks obtainable by a complete answer shall be placed at the end of each question, and no Candidate shall be considered to have passed a satisfactory examination who does not gain one-fourth of the maximum number of marks allotted to the whole of the papers.

(4.) No Candidate who has failed to obtain the minimum number of marks in the preliminary Examination shall undergo the usual Examination by the District Committee unless in the judgment of the Committee he possesses such special gifts as to justify an exceptional procedure.

2. The Special Examination of Candidates for the Ministry, who have passed the District Committees, shall be conducted by a Committee in two Sections, having charge of Examinations to be held simultaneously at Richmond and Didsbury respectively.

(i.) The two Sections of this Committee shall be constituted as follows:—

(1.) THE SOUTHERN SECTION, to meet at Richmond, shall consist of the Ex-President and the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-Presidents resident in London; the Secretaries of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society (one excepted); the Tutors and Governors of the Richmond and Birmingham Branches of the Theological Institution; the General Treasurer of the Theological Institution Fund; the Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch; the Financial Secretary of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; Dr. Moulton, the Rev. Peter Thompson, together with twelve other Ministers of the three London Districts, four of whom shall be annually elected by the District Committee of each of the said Districts in May.

(2.) The Northern Section, to meet at Didsbury, shall consist of the President of the Conference; the Ex-Presidents living in the Manchester and adjoining Districts; one of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches of the Theological Institution; the Local Secretary of the Didsbury Branch: one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. David C. Ingram; together with twenty-one Ministers of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts, seven of whom shall be annually elected by the District Committee of each of the said Districts in May.

(ii.) Two Sub-Committees, to read and report on the manuscript sermons of the Candidates, shall be annually appointed as follows:—one for the Southern Section, consisting of six Ministers, two of whom shall be chosen by the District Committee of each of the three London Districts from among the Ministers elected by it as members of the Examination Committee; and another for the Northern Section, consisting of six Ministers, two of whom shall be chosen by the District Committees of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts respectively, from among the Ministers elected by them as members of the Examination Committee.

(iii.) The Literary Paper for the Examination shall be prepared in succession by the Classical and Mathematical Tutors of each of the four Branches of the Theological Institution; and the Theological Paper for the Examination shall be prepared in succession by the Theological Tutors of the said four Branches.

(iv.) The Classical and Mathematical Tutors of the Richmond and Birmingham Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Southern Section of the Committee; and the Classical and Mathematical Tutors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Northern Section of the Committee.

(v.) The Examiners of the Papers in Theology, written by the Candidates, shall be appointed as follows:—each of the First and Second London, the Liverpool, and the Manchester Districts shall appoint one Examiner from among the Ministers elected by it as Members of the Examination Committee; thus providing two Examiners for each of its two Sections.

(vi.) The General Secretary of the Theological Institution, and the Rev. Charles H. Kelly are re-appointed General Secretaries of the Examination Committee. All communications relating to Candidates, and the Reports on their sermons heard after the District Committees, must be addressed to the Rev. Charles H. Kelly, Spanish Close, Wandsworth Common, S.W.

(vii.) The Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, and the Rev. Peter Thompson, are appointed to act as Examination Secretaries for the Southern Section; and the Local Secretary for the Didsbury Branch, and the Rev. David C. Ingram, to act as Examination Secretaries for the Northern Section.

3. When Candidates for the Ministry are recommended by the North or South Wales District Committee, the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee shall summon a Welsh Minister to attend the Northern or Southern Section of the Committee, who shall be a member of that Committee.

BOOK AFFAIRS.

Q. XVIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee on BOOK AFFAIRS?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Book Committee.

2. The London Book Committee shall consist of the PRESIDENT and SECRETARY of the Conference, the Ex-Presidents, the Book-Steward, the Secretary of the Book Committee, the Secretary of the Tract Committee, the Missionary Secretaries, the Principal of the Battersea Branch of the Normal Training Institution, the Governor and the Tutors of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, the Rev. Dr. Moulton, the Financial Secretary of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, the Secretary of the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund, the Secretary of the Fund for the Extension of Methodism, the Secretary of the Education Committee, the Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-School Union, the Principal of the Children's Home, the Superintendents of the London Circuits, and the following additional members chosen from Ministers in London and the Metropolitan District; namely, the Rev. Dr. Williams, J. Ernest Clapham, Walford Green, John Evans (B), John S. Simon, Luke Tyerman, and G. Stringer Rowe.

3. The REV. EDWARD LIGHTWOOD is re-appointed the Secretary of this Committee for the ensuing year. Letters should be addressed to him at Dingwall Road, Croydon.

4. The Methodist Tract Committee shall consist of Ministers to be appointed by the London Book Committee.—The REV. RICHARD GREEN is appointed the Secretary. Communications for this department should be addressed to him at 114, Downs Park Road, Lower Clapton, E.

5. The General Book Committee, which is appointed to meet at the next Conference, shall consist of the President, the Secretary, the Ex-Presidents, and all the members of the London Book Committee who shall be duly authorised to attend the Conference; with the—

7. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Theophilus Woolmer for the fidelity and business ability with which he has conducted the affairs of the Book-Room during the year.

8. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Edward Lightwood, the Secretary of the Book Committee; and to the Rev. Richard Green, the Secretary of the Methodist Tract Committee, for their services during the year.

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

Q. XIX. What OTHER RESOLUTIONS are adopted by the Conference in its PASTORAL SESSION?

A. 1. The respectful and hearty Thanks of the Conference are due, and are hereby given, to its late President, the REV. GEORGE OSBORN, D.D., for his able, judicious and dignified services in the discharge of the duties of his office, both during the Session of the last Conference, and throughout the year.

2. The best Thanks of the Conference are presented to the REV. ROBERT N. YOUNG for his valuable services as Secretary of the Conference during the past year.

3. The respectful Thanks of the Conference are due, and are hereby presented, to the ex-President, the REV. GEORGE OSBORN, D.D., for the timely and faithful sermon delivered by him on Sunday morning, July 23rd, in Brunswick Chapel, Leeds; and he is earnestly requested to publish it.

4. The hearty Thanks of the Conference are presented to the ex-President, the REV. GEORGE OSBORN, D.D., for the instructive and valuable charge delivered by him to the newly-ordained Ministers at Oxford Place Chapel, Leeds, on Thursday morning, July 27th; and he is earnestly requested to publish it.

5. The REV. FRANCIS W. GREEVES is re-appointed Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions.

6. The Annual Meetings of the several District Committees shall be held between the 20th and 27th of May, 1883, with the exception of the North Wales, South Wales, Isle of Man, Edinburgh and Aberdeen, and Zetland Districts.

SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE.

The Conference, having carefully considered the Report and Recommendations of the Missionary Committee respecting the Plan and Constitution of a South African Conference (see Min., 1881, p. 221), adopts the following Resolutions;—

The Conference, gratefully recognising the prosperity of the Missions which, during the last sixty years, have been carried on in South Africa under its direction, and having regard to the suggestions which, from time to time, have been made for the formation of a South African Conference, and especially to the proposals and requests of the last Triennial Meeting of the South African Districts, believes that the time has arrived when a South African Conference may be established with advantage both to the Colonial and Native Churches. In relinquishing the oversight of its Missions, and confiding to the South African Conference the responsibility of watching over them, the Conference is assured, not only that the existing Missions will be carefully nurtured, but that the establishment of a South African Conference, while greatly benefiting the Colonists, will equally conduce to the extension of Missionary operations among the Native races, for whose complete evangelization and intellectual and moral elevation this Conference will ever cherish the most earnest solicitude.

The Plan and Constitution of the South African Conference shall be as follows:—

I. The Conference resolves to constitute a South African Conference which, in accordance with the Plan hereafter stated, shall have jurisdiction over all the Wesleyan-Methodist Ministers, Preachers on Trial, Churches, and Missions in South Africa, comprised in what are designated in the Minutes of the Conference for 1881 the Cape of Good Hope District, the Graham's Town District, the Queen's Town District, the Clarkebury and Kokstad District, the Kimberley and Bloemfontein District, and the Natal District; such Conference to meet annually, and to be affiliated to 'The Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists.'

N.B.—Where the phrase 'Yearly Conference' occurs in the subsequent Resolutions, it is used instead of 'the Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists,' as constituted and defined by Mr. Wesley's Deed Poll.

II. This Conference accordingly, under and by virtue of the Methodist Conference Act, 1876 (39 and 40 Vict., c. 72: see Minutes of the Conference, vol. xx., pp. 248—255), resolves to delegate to, and confer upon, and doth hereby delegate to, and confer upon, the said South African Conference, when consisting of Ministers only, the powers, privileges, and advantages vested in the Yearly Conference under and by virtue of the 8th, 9th, and 11th clauses of the late Rev. John Wesley's Deed Poll, dated the 28th day of February, 1784, so far as such powers, privileges, and advantages are exercisable or available within the limits of the South African Connexion.

N.B.—The word 'Ministers' throughout these Resolutions designates only Preachers who are admitted into full connexion either with the 'Yearly Conference,' or with the South African Conference.

III. This Conference further resolves that the acts done by virtue of the delegation thus conveyed shall not require any confirmation or approval by the 'Yearly Conference,' and shall not be entered on the Journals or Minutes thereof.

IV. Nor shall any disciplinary action of the South African Conference, in relation to English Ministers, Preachers on Trial, Assistant Missionaries, Native Ministers, or Members of Society, require confirmation or approval by the 'Yearly Conference,' nor shall such disciplinary action be entered on the Journals thereof.

V. This Conference further empowers the South African Conference, when consisting of Ministers and Lay Representatives, to consider and deal with the subjects hereinafter specified as being within the province of that Conference as so constituted; but with the provision that, so long as the South African Conference continues to be affiliated to the 'Yearly Conference,' any new legislation must be submitted, through the Missionary Committee, to the 'Yearly Conference' for approval at its first Meeting after such legislation is proposed by the South African Conference, and shall only come into operation when such approval has been officially notified to the President of the South African Conference for the time being.

This provision shall apply also to any new legislation by the South African Conference when consisting of Ministers only.

N.B.—A copy of any Resolution of the 'Yearly Conference,' signed by the President and Secretary for the time being, and approving of such new legislation, shall be a sufficient official notification.

VI. This Conference further resolves that all Ministers who are in connexion with the South African Conference, or who may hereafter be admitted into connexion with that Conference, and all persons now or hereafter upon trial for such admission, shall be eligible for appointment to the use and enjoyment of any Churches, Chapels, dwelling-houses, schoolhouses, and premises, situate within the limits of the South African Connexion, in the same manner and to the same extent as if such persons had been admitted into connexion with the 'Yearly Conference.'

VII. This Conference also resolves that the South African Conference, so long as it continues to be affiliated to the 'Yearly Conference,' shall have the right, in its Ministerial Session, to nominate a Minister to be the President of the next South African Conference; but the appointment to that office shall rest with the 'Yearly Conference.' If in any case, the Minister nominated by the South African Conference be not appointed by the 'Yearly Conference,' the President of the preceding South African Conference shall continue in office until a successor is duly nominated and appointed.

N.B.—The first President of the South African Conference shall be appointed, without nomination, by the 'Yearly Conference.'

VIII. The powers and duties of the President of the South African Conference, in relation to the Ministers, Preachers on Trial, Churches, and Missions comprehended in the South African Connexion, shall be the same as those belonging to the President of the 'Yearly Conference' in relation to the Ministers, Preachers on trial, and Societies in Great Britain. In the event of the death of the President of the South African Conference, the Ex-President shall succeed to his powers and duties; but if the Ex-President also is deceased, or if he be incapacitated, or if no second President has been appointed, the Secretary of the South African Conference shall communicate with the Ministerial members of the preceding South African Conference, and the Minister for whom the majority shall vote shall act as President for the remainder of the year. This provision shall apply also to the prolonged illness of the President, incapacitating him for the discharge of his duties; but in this case the arrangement shall cease when the President's health is restored.

IX. The Plan and Constitution of the South African Conference referred to in the second and fifth of the foregoing resolutions, are defined as follows:—

1. For the present the Conference, when considering the subjects hereafter specified as being within the exclusive province of the Conference when composed of Ministers only, shall consist of:—

i. The President appointed by the 'Yearly Conference of the people called Methodists.'

ii. The President and Secretary of the preceding South African Conference.

iii. The Chairman of each of the Districts within the area of the South African Connexion.

iv. Three Ministers from each District, to be elected at the preceding District Meeting, of whom one must be a Native Minister.

2. For the present, the Conference, when considering the subjects hereafter specified as being within the province of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Lay Representatives, shall consist of:—

i. All the Ministerial Members of the Conference, as already described.

ii. The Lay General Treasurer of each Connexional Fund, as such Funds may from time to time be formed, provided always that the total number of such Treasurers shall not exceed six.

iii. Three Laymen from each District, of whom one must be a Native Layman, to be elected by the joint vote of the Ministers and Laymen of the District Committee at the preceding District Meeting.

N.B.—No Layman shall be eligible for election as a Representative unless he be a member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and at the time of his nomination in the District Committee a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a member of a District Committee. Any Layman nominated in a District Committee must be a member of Society in some Circuit within that District.

X. The following subjects shall be within the exclusive province of the Conference when consisting of Ministers only:—

1. Introduction of the President appointed by the 'Yearly Conference,' election of Secretary, and appointment of the other Officers of the Conference.

N.B.—The President of the South African Conference shall be nominated by that Conference the year before he takes office; and such nomination shall be submitted, through the Missionary Committee, to the 'Yearly Conference,' with the request that the Minister so nominated may be appointed.

2. Ministerial lists; recommendations of admission, and continuance of Preachers on trial; arrangements for the examination of Candidates and Preachers on trial; recommendations of admission into full connexion and for ordination.

3. All questions affecting Ministerial character and ability, and all questions of discipline arising therefrom or in any wise relating thereto.

4. All final appeals in matters of discipline relating to Ministers, Preachers on trial, or Members of Society.

5. Ministers becoming Supernumeraries, and Supernumeraries returning to Circuit work.

6. Obituaries.

7. Stations, and all appointments of Ministers.

8. Alterations and divisions of Circuits and Districts, concerning which the Quarterly Meetings and District Committees are agreed, and against which there is no appeal.

9. Pastoral consideration of the number and the state of the Societies, and the Pastoral Address.

10. Pastoral reports; District summaries of Circuit reports; reports of Educational and Industrial Institutions.

11. General supervision of Methodist Literature.

12. Conduct of public worship in accordance with the rules and usages of the Connexion.

13. Time and place of holding the next Conference, and the order of its business.

14. All Ministerial and Pastoral subjects of like nature with any of those specified in this resolution, or affecting the Ministerial or Pastoral supervision of the South African Connexion.

XI. The following subjects shall be within the province of the Conference when consisting of Ministers and Lay Representatives:—

1. Committees of Privileges and Exigency, Native Matters, and reports of all official communications with Government.

2. The organisation and management of a South African Missionary Society.

3. Education, general and special, including Day and Sunday-Schools and Industrial Institutions.

4. Chapel affairs and Trust property generally.

5. The Children's Fund.

6. The Contingent Fund.

7. The Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund.

8. Religious observance of the Lord's Day.

9. Temperance.

10. District Sustentation or other Funds.

11. Proposed alterations and divisions of Circuits or Districts against which there is any appeal.

N.B.—The Conference when consisting of Ministers only shall have power to consider and decide all questions as to alterations and divisions of Circuits or Districts, concerning which the Quarterly Meetings and District Committees shall be agreed, and against which there is no appeal; and also any proposals for the employment of additional Ministers, when the respective District Committees have been satisfied that provision for the support of such Ministers will be made, and have sanctioned the proposals.

12. All financial and general subjects of like nature with any of those specified in this resolution, or affecting the financial or general affairs of the South African Connexion.

XII. The consideration and determination of all questions raised by any resolutions of District Committees, or by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings or otherwise, shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject matter thereof respectively. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the province to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide.

XIII. The following shall be the Order and Form of business :—

(i.) The Ministerial Conference.

1. The calling of the Roll.

2. Introduction of the President appointed by the 'Yearly Conference.'

3. Election of Secretary.

4. Thanks to the retiring President and Secretary.

5. Appointment of Assistant Secretaries and official Letter-Writers.

6. Appointment of hours of session.

19. Reading and confirmation of the Conference Journal.

XIV. The foregoing Constitution and Plan shall be open to revision and amendment, but subject to the provisions of Clause V.

XV. Those Ministers in the South African Connexion who have now a claim to return to this country shall have the option of so doing, subject to the recommendation of the South African Conference and to arrangements with the Committee of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society.

XVI. Any Preacher now on trial who has been received into the work on the recommendation of any of the Districts comprehended in the South African Connexion, and any Preacher who may hereafter be admitted on trial by the South African Conference, shall, at the close of his probation, if approved, be received as a Minister in connexion with the affiliated South African Conference, but shall not thereby acquire any claims upon the 'Yearly Conference' or its Connexional Funds.

XVII. The claims of the present Ministers for Auxiliary Fund Grants, when they become Supernumeraries, shall continue to be met by the Committee of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society until some other arrangement is made; but a South African Auxiliary Fund shall be formed at the earliest possible period.

N.B.—Any Preacher now on trial on a South African Station, who was sent out from this country prior to the Conference of 1882, shall be allowed to elect whether he will be received into full connexion by the 'Yearly Conference' or by the South African Conference. In the former case he shall be at liberty to return to England after a term of service to be agreed upon; and in the latter event, he shall become a member of the South African Conference, and his claim for Auxiliary Fund Grants shall be upon the South African Auxiliary Fund.

XVIII. The educational claims of the Ministers for their children shall be met by the South African Connexion as soon as possible, either by charging the amount to the Children's Fund, or by some other more eligible mode; but until a satisfactory arrangement can be made, such claims in behalf of those Ministers who are now in connexion with the 'Yearly Conference' will still be recognised and provided for by the Committee of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society.

XIX. With regard to Ministers now in full connexion with the 'Yearly Conference,' who have been sent out to South Africa from this country, and who elect to remain in South Africa, their claims on the several Connexional Funds shall be matter of equitable adjustment between the Committee of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society and the South African Conference.

XX. Considering the financial dependence of the work in South Africa upon the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society, and the consequent rights and responsibilities of the Missionary Committee, the grants from the Missionary Committee shall, for the present, be made to each District direct as heretofore; but all the estimates and accounts from the several Districts shall be submitted to the South African Conference for examination and report, such report to be forwarded to the Committee of the aforesaid Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society. The grants now made by the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society shall be subject to periodical revision, with a view to an adjustment of the amounts granted to each District, and a gradual reduction of the total amount granted to the South African Connexion.

The Financial Arrangements between the South African Conference and the Committee of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society shall be as follows :—

I. Grants to the South African Districts.

1. Subject to Resolution XX. of the Scheme for the South African Conference, the sum total of the grants to the South African Districts, comprehended in the South African Connexion, shall be continued at the present amount for a term of five years.
2. After the expiration of this term of five years, there shall be a gradual reduction of the grants as then distributed by the Missionary Committee in the following manner:—
   i. There shall be a reduction of the Committee's grant to Colonial Circuits, at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, on the amount of the grant as distributed in the fifth year.
   ii. On the amount of the grant to Missionary Circuits, as distributed in the fifth year, there shall be a reduction of five per cent. per annum for a further term of five years, at the expiration of which period there shall be a careful review of the position and necessities of such Circuits, with a view to a continued diminution of the grant.

II. Missionary Contributions in the South African Connexion.

The Missionary contributions in the Districts constituting the South African Connexion, instead of being remitted, as heretofore, to the Treasurers of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society, shall belong to the South African Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society as soon as it is constituted; but the sum of £1500, taken as a fair average, shall, during the next five years, be annually deducted from the grants made to the Districts forming the South African Connexion in proportion to the respective amounts now remitted by the several Districts as Missionary contributions.

III. Outfit and Passage of Ministers and Preachers on trial who may be sent from this country at the request of the South African Conference.

1. The entire expenses of the outfit and passage of all Ministers and Preachers on trial who may be sent out from this country, at the request of the South African Conference, to supply Colonial Circuits, shall be provided in South Africa.
2. For the period of ten years from the formation of the South African Conference, the expenses of the outfit and passage of Ministers and Preachers on trial sent out from this country, at the request of the South African Conference, to supply Missionary Stations, shall be defrayed, as at present, by the Missionary Committee. At the close of that period this arrangement shall be carefully reconsidered.
3. The case of any Minister who, for Connexional reasons, may be sent out from this country, shall be subject to arrangement with the Missionary Committee.

IV. Permission to Ministers to visit England.

1. With regard to Ministers in Colonial Circuits who have now a right to return to this country, each application to visit England must have the recommendation of the South African Conference, and that Conference shall bear such a portion of the expenses incurred as may be arranged with the Missionary Committee.
2. With regard to Ministers on Mission Stations who have now a right to return to this country, each application to visit England must have the recommendation of the South African Conference and the concurrence of the Missionary Committee. In these cases the Missionary Committee shall defray the expenses.

3. With regard to Ministers and Preachers on trial now in the work, who have no right to return to this country, permission to visit England must rest entirely with the South African Conference, which shall provide the whole expense.
4. With regard to Ministers, Preachers on trial, and approved Candidates for the Ministry, who may hereafter be sent out from this country, at the request of the South African Conference, to be employed in Colonial Circuits, if permission to visit England be granted by the South African Conference, that Conference shall provide the whole expense.
5. In the case of Ministers, Preachers on trial, and approved Candidates for the Ministry, who may be sent out from this country, at the request of the South African Conference, to be employed on Mission Stations, any application to visit England, when recommended by the South African Conference, must have the concurrence of the Missionary Committee, and the apportionment of the expense must be a matter of arrangement between the South African Conference and the Missionary Committee. This provision, however, shall be reviewed at the close of ten years from the formation of the South African Conference.

Trust Property in South Africa.

With a view to the settlement of the trust property in South Africa upon a uniform Deed, drawn as far as possible on the lines of the Chapel Model Deed, which may be adopted throughout the South African Connexion, this Conference requests the South African Conference to prepare such a Deed as early as possible, and submit it for the approval of the Missionary Committee and the 'Yearly Conference'; and this Conference resolves that, as soon as may be, the property now held on behalf of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society, or so held as to involve a right on the part of the 'Yearly Conference' to appoint persons to the use or enjoyment of it, shall be settled, as far as practicable, on the trusts of the Deed thus approved and sanctioned.

N.B.—The above Plan and Constitution, having been approved in that part of it which relates to Pastoral and Ecclesiastical affairs by the Conference when composed of Ministers only, and in that part of it which relates to Financial Affairs by the Conference in its Representative Session, was subsequently approved and adopted as a whole by the Legal Conference.

REVISION OF THE LITURGY AND BOOK OF OFFICES.

The Report of the Committee appointed to revise the Form for the Administration of Baptism was adopted by the Conference, with certain modifications. It was resolved that in thus adopting a revised Form of the Baptismal Service, the Conference does not prohibit the use of any Forms which have heretofore been approved by the Conference.

The Conference directs that a Book of Offices, containing the revised Formularies as now sanctioned, shall be forthwith published, and also a Book containing, in addition, the Revised Order of Morning Prayer, and the Revised Service for the Renewal of the Covenant; and that a summary of the Laws of Marriage and of Burial shall be printed as an Appendix.

The following Ministers are appointed a Committee to determine the Title of the above Book:—The ex-President, Rev. William Arthur, Benjamin Gregory, Dr. Rigg, Dr. Williams, and Theophilus Woolmer, Convener.

MINISTERS IN DEPARTMENTAL OFFICES.

The Conference having received the Report of the Committee appointed to consider the relation to their respective District Committees of Ministers set apart to Departmental Offices, resolves:

1. That it is expedient that when Ministers are appointed to work together as Colleagues in any Department, they should be members of the same District Committee; but that any Minister appointed to a Department who has not a Colleague should be a member of the Committee of the District in which he resides.

2. That as regards disciplinary and pastoral questions there is no reason for altering the arrangement at present existing by which the Officers of the Wesleyan Missionary Society, the Home-Mission Fund, and the Conference Office, are attached to the First London District; but that the Secretaries of the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund, and the Fund for the Extension of Methodism, neither of whom has a colleague, shall be attached to the District in which they reside.

ŒCUMENICAL CONFERENCE.

The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, and directs that certain Resolutions relating to the holding of a second Œcumenical Conference in 1887 shall be presented to the Conference of 1883.

WORKS OF THE REV. JOHN WESLEY.

The Conference directs that the following extract from the Minutes of Conference, 1815, pp. 122, 123, shall be re-printed: 'Those Preachers on Trial who do not already possess Mr. Wesley's Works are required to procure them during the period of their probation; and shall be allowed to pay for them to our Book-Steward by such instalments, if they desire it, as may best suit their convenience.'

EXAMINATION IN THE CATECHISMS.

The Conference recommends the Superintendents of Circuits, wherever they may find it practicable, to make arrangements, in conjunction with the Sunday-School Committees, for the annual public examination in the Catechisms of the children of our Sunday-Schools, and that such examination shall, where possible, be held in the Chapels.

REGISTRATION OF LOCAL-PREACHERS, ETC.

The following Committee is appointed to consider the subject of the annual registration in the Minutes of the Conference of the total number of Local-Preachers and Class-Leaders:—The ex-Presidents, the Ministerial members of the Home-Mission Fund Committee, and the Assistant-Secretaries of the Conference resident in London. The Rev. John W. Greeves is appointed Convener of the Committee.

THEOLOGICAL EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR ORDINATION.

The Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the existing arrangements for the Theological Examination of Candidates for Ordination, with a view to their improvement, and to report to the next Conference:—The President and Secretary of the Conference, the ex-President, the Rev. William Arthur, John S. Banks, Joseph Bush, Ebenezer E. Jenkins, Frederic W. Macdonald, Dr. Moulton, George W. Olver, Dr. Pope, Richard Roberts, and George O. Bate, Convener.

RELATION OF BAPTIZED CHILDREN TO THE CHURCH.

The following Committee is appointed to consider the position of baptized children, and what means can be adopted to secure their admission to full fellowship among us:—The ex-Presidents, the Rev. William T. Radcliffe, George O. Bate, Joshua Mason, Dr. Lyth, Charles H. Kelly, John Harvard, Joseph Bush, John Hartley, and Richard Green, Convener.

N.B.—The Treasurer of any District Auxiliary Society in Great Britain, and the Chairman of any District, who may be in London at the time of holding any Meeting of the General Committee, shall be entitled to sit and vote with the Committee; and the Treasurer, or Treasurers, of the London Districts' Auxiliary Society shall be regularly summoned to the Committee.

Messrs. Alfred Parker, F. Porter Smith, T. H. Barlow, M.D., and Howard Barrett are requested to act as a Medical Sub-Committee.

3. The Conference learns with much satisfaction and devout gratitude to Almighty God that arrangements have been made, by the aid of the Thanksgiving Fund, the generous gifts of the Methodist people, and the adjustment of the finances of the Society, for the entire liquidation of the Society's debt. But inasmuch as the Expenditure of the Society is still in excess of the Income, the Conference earnestly hopes that the most strenuous efforts will be put forth to improve the ordinary Income, so that the operations of the Society may be carried on with unimpaired efficiency. Under any circumstances the Conference instructs the Committee to bring its Expenditure within its Income.

6. The Conference directs that the provisional scheme for raising the income of the Schools Fund to meet the expenditure be the same as that adopted at the Conference of 1881, and that the sums to be raised by the various districts be the same as those named in the Minutes of Conference of 1881, pp. 225-6.

N.B.—The payment of £2 for each child by Ministers in Circuit work, having children at the Schools, is in addition to the subscription of one guinea.

7. Woodhouse Grove Estate.—i. With a view to retaining the Woodhouse Grove Estate as Connexional property, the Conference directs the General Committee of the Schools Fund to take such steps as shall be necessary for the establishment at Woodhouse Grove of a Middle-Class Boarding and Day School, to be conducted by a Limited Liability Company, upon terms and covenants to be hereafter agreed upon, and recommends the case to the best consideration of the Middle-Class School Committee.

ii. The Conference resolves that the Woodhouse Grove School, established by Deed dated October 5th, 1811, be discontinued, it being intended to make other provision for the Education of the sons of the Itinerant Ministers of the Gospel within the Methodist Connexion under the direction of the Methodist Conference.

iii. The Conference further resolves that the trustees of the properties now settled upon the trusts for the benefit of the said school be authorised and requested, with the consent of the General Committee for the time being of the Schools for the Education of Ministers' Children, to sell or let for any term not exceeding twenty-one years, or to let on building leases for any term not exceeding 999 years, on such terms and conditions as the said General Committee shall approve, all or any part or parts of the said properties; and for the purpose of giving validity to any such sale or lease, to make such application to the Charity Commissioners, or to take such steps as the General Committee shall approve.

iv. The Conference also resolves that until further direction of the Conference, the proceeds of any such sale be invested by the trustees as may be directed by the said General Committee, and that the income thereof or rents to be received under any such lease or leases as aforesaid be applied, until further direction of the Conference, as part of the general Fund for the education of Ministers' Children, as established and administered by the Conference.

v. In adopting the foregoing scheme for the settlement on new trusts of the Woodhouse Grove estate, which includes, as drawn by the Legal Advisers of the Committee, a power to sell, the Conference directs that no sale shall take place by virtue of any of the preceding resolutions except for Wesleyan educational purposes.

8. CLOTHING.—The Conference directs that after Midsummer, 1882, the Governors of the School for Boys shall cease to provide clothing for the boys; and that this rule shall apply to the sons of Supernumerary and Deceased Ministers, except in cases of extreme need.

9. The Conference directs that the action of the rule adopted by the Conference of 1881 (Min. Conf. 1881, p. 224), 'that the number of years which a boy may spend at School without payment be reduced from six to five,' be suspended for the year ending at the Conference, 1882, and that its application and enforcement for the following year be left to the discretion of the General Committee.

10. The Conference further directs that the rule adopted by the Conference of 1881 (Min. Conf. 1881, p. 226), 'that in those cases in which children are admitted to our Schools, whose fathers were admitted into full connexion subsequent to the birth of such children, unless the amount fixed as compensation money in the proposed Memorandum of Agreement has been paid, £30 a year shall be charged for each child received into the Schools instead of £20 as at present,' be regarded as applying to boys now in the Schools, and to girls hereafter to be admitted to the Schools, dating from the Conference of 1881.

11. New Kingswood Extension.—The Conference directs that the Building Committee be re-appointed, with the addition of the names of the President, the ex-President, and the Secretary of the Conference.

12. Endowments for Prizes, Etc.—The Conference empowers the General Committee of the Schools Fund to take such legal steps as they may think necessary for the transfer to the Governing Body of the School at New Kingswood of all Endowments for Prizes, Medals, or Scholarships hitherto attached to Woodhouse Grove School.

13. Susannah Gibson Memorial Fund.—The Conference having considered the Report of the General Committee respectfully declines to sanction the proposals of the Gibson Memorial Fund Committee. The Conference hereby expresses its hearty appreciation of the interest taken by the Ladies of the Memorial Fund Committee in the welfare of Queenswood School, and earnestly hopes that while existing arrangements are continued the Queenswood School will have the benefit of the generous contribution and other aid proffered in the Resolutions submitted.

14. Scholarships at Trinity Hall.—The Conference expresses its appreciation of the liberality of the gentlemen who offer to provide Funds for the proposed Scholarships for Trinity Hall, and directs that the following scheme be printed in the Minutes:

(1.) That the Scholarships be of the value of £35 and £25 per annum respectively.

(2.) That the first Scholarship be called the Fernley Scholarship, and the second the Trinity Hall Scholarship.

(3.) That the amounts be paid annually to the Local Treasurers of the Trinity Hall Executive Committee. The rate of payment for each girl who receives an extra year being as at present fixed by the Conference £30 per annum, the girl holding the Fernley Scholarship shall be required to expend £5 in the purchase of books, or for other educational purposes, under the direction of the Local Executive Committee.

(4.) That the Scholarships be open to all Girls who are in their last year at Trinity Hall.

(5.) That the Scholarships be awarded annually by the Local Executive Committee. In awarding the Scholarships the Committee shall take into consideration

(i.) The age of the Candidates, and their moral character as reported by the Lady Principal.

(ii.) The Register of School marks for the year.

(iii.) The position in the Cambridge Local Examination (Senior or Junior) or in the First Division of the Second Class, or in a higher Class of the College of Preceptors' Examination, one of which Examinations the Candidate must have passed.

(iv.) The results of the School Examination in June, now conducted by the Syndicate of Cambridge.

(6.) That moneys belonging to the Scholarships' Fund shall be vested in the Trustees of Trinity Hall.

(7.) That in the event of the death or withdrawal of any girl while holding a Scholarship, the payment on behalf of the girl shall cease at the end of the Quarter then current.

(8.) That power shall be reserved to the Local Executive Committee to revise, alter, or add to this scheme from time to time, subject however to the approval of the Governing Body of the Schools for Girls.

15. ADMISSION TO THE SCHOOLS.—Not later than the 1st of March, the name and age of every applicant for admission shall be sent, in the case of boys, to the Rev. JOHN HARVARD, Manchester Road, Bolton; and, in the case of girls, to the Rev. David C. Ingram, 4, Church Street, Southport: the boys must not be less than ten, and girls not less than twelve, years of age at the next Midsummer. The Examination of Candidates for entrance at the School shall be regulated on the following principle: boys of ten years of age shall pass an examination equivalent to a pass in Standard IV.; those of eleven years of age in Standard V.; and those of twelve years of age in Standard VI.

Admission to the Schools on Payment. The number of boys for whom free provision has been made is 250. In addition to these, a few boys are received annually on payment, for the first year, of £25. Boys so admitted may thereafter remain five years on the foundation. Parents whose boys are thus received will be entitled, for that year, to the usual allowances of six guineas from the Children's Fund and twelve pounds for Education. In every case where an extra year, at the end, is granted to any boy or girl, the sum of £30 shall be paid. The Rule as to extra years shall be construed in harmony with Clause thirty-two of the Scheme of Management. Parents whose children are granted an extra year are entitled to the six guineas from the Children's Fund, and, unless they have already received for six years, the twelve pounds for Education. All payments for children at the Schools, whether £25 for first year or £30 for extra year, are due in four equal instalments, one on each quarter day; and the money must be sent to the REV. JOHN HARVARD, Manchester Road, Bolton.

Educational Allowances for Children not at the Schools. Payments are made at the Conference for the past year; and in every case in which the Educational Allowance has been received by the parent, the claim upon the Schools Fund shall be understood to have been met and satisfied for that year. Claimants must be nine years of age on or before the previous Christmas-day.

Circuit Schedules. Not later than the 1st of March, each Superintendent shall send to the Rev. Marshall Hartley, Elland, Normanton, a particular account of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit, specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, together with the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received.

The Conference directs that the Meetings of the General Committee be held ordinarily in London, and that the first meeting be held early in October.

The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Officers of the Schools Fund, the General Committee, the Governing Bodies, with their Treasurers and Secretaries, and to the Executive Committees, for the diligent and faithful discharge of the duties of their respective offices during the year; also to Mr. John Blackburn, of Horsforth, for his valuable services as Auditor of New Kingswood and Woodhouse Grove School Accounts.

The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. John H. Lord, and the Rev. George Fletcher, the Governors of the School for Boys; and to Mrs. Lord and Mrs. Fletcher, together with the Lady Principals having charge of the Schools for Girls, for their kind attention to the comfort of the Boys and Girls under their care during the past year.

N.B.—For Resolution of the Conference on the 'Memorandum of Agreement' (Min. Conf. 1881, p. 226, par. 7), see Miscellaneous Resolutions, p. 289.

CHILDREN'S FUND.

1. The Conference directs that for this year the Circuits are to raise £7 per 100 members, but that, as heretofore, the Zetland Isles shall be exempted from this assessment, the allowances for Ministers stationed in that District being paid otherwise than from the Children's Fund; and that for this year the Cornwall District shall be relieved of one-fourth, and the Isle of Man District of 15 per cent. of their respective assessments.

2. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the District Treasurers of the Children's Fund for their valuable services during the year; and also to the Rev. G. Stringer Rowe and Mr. William Mewburn, the General Treasurers, and to the Rev. James D. Tetley, the General Secretary.

3. The Rev. G. Stringer Rowe and Mr. William Mewburn are re-appointed the General Treasurers, and the Rev. J. D. Tetley the General Secretary, for the ensuing year.

HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND.

Q. XXIV. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee, and of the Army and Navy Sub-Committee; and directs that the Returns from the Army and Navy and Reserve Forces be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. VII.)

2. The Home-Mission Committee has authority, in concert with the Superintendent of the Circuit, to employ—in addition to District Missionaries—Ministers and Lay Agents for general evangelistic work in different parts of the Connexion; the arrangements for the employment of such Evangelistic Agents to be left for the present with the Home-Mission Committee. Also, for this year, after providing for the year's expenditure, and the balance due on last year's account, the Home Mission Committee are authorised to expend any sum that may remain from last year's income in the employment of men available for evangelistic work, on the condition that any Student who has passed through the Theological Institution, or any accepted Candidate for the Ministry, so employed, shall not on this account have the year counted as one of his years of travelling.

3. Whenever the Conference has determined, after considering any recommendation of the District Committee and of the Home-Mission Committee, to withdraw a Home-Missionary Minister, and yet deems it desirable that the work be continued by means of a Lay Agent, the Home-Mission Committee shall have authority to make a grant towards the support of such Lay Agent, the grant being paid to the Circuit through the Superintendent Minister.

4. It is recommended to the next Conference to withdraw the single preachers from the Redhill, Sevenoaks, Higham Ferrers, Wellingborough, Rye, Sittingbourne, Newbury, Stonehouse, Shrewsbury, Worcester, Northwich, Ormskirk, Hornsea, Hartlepool, and Ulverston Circuits, except such Circuits as shall in the interval arrange to take a married instead of a single Minister, or shall make such financial arrangements as shall be satisfactory to the Home-Mission Committee.

5. The Conference directs the Birmingham and Shrewsbury District Committee to consider the relations and boundaries of the Worcester, Bromyard, Malvern, Leominster, and Bromsgrove Circuits, with a view to a redistribution of the Ministers stationed in those Circuits, or to a reduction of the number.

6. In accordance with the recommendations of the Committee on Connexional and Circuit Finance the Conference authorises the Home-Mission Committee to make a contribution of £200 per annum to the Children's Fund.

7. (1.) The following Grants are to be paid to the Districts for the ensuing year:—

9. The Conference directs that the following resolutions previously adopted shall be reprinted:—

(1.) The Conference resolves that wherever it is practicable two Collections shall be made annually in each Chapel throughout the Connexion on behalf of the Funds of the Theological Institution, and that these Collections shall be made, if possible, on some Sunday in December.

(2.) The Conference affirms the principle, which has from the beginning been recognised in the administration of the Institution, in regard to charges on account of Students, that such Students as have the means, or whose friends have the means, shall be expected to contribute, in whole or in part, according to their ability, towards the cost of their own maintenance and education, and directs the Committee to consider and adopt such methods as may be deemed best for carrying this rule into effect.

10. The Conference renews its expression of confidence in the principles and aims of the Theological Institution, and, whilst gratefully recognising that, by the opening of the Birmingham Branch, provision is now made for the training of all Candidates of the Ministry, it commends this important department of work to the liberality of Boards of Trustees, of Circuit Quarterly Meetings, and of the Methodist people in general, so that the Committee may be able (without the recurrence of debt) to meet the demands of the Connexion for a succession of trained and efficient Preachers of the Gospel.

11. The Conference directs that the Quarterly Meetings of the General Committee shall be held once each in Birmingham, Manchester, Leeds and London.

12. The Conference appoints a Finance Sub-Committee and directs it to meet before each Quarterly Meeting of the General Committee, to consider the reports of the Governors as to payments to and payments by Students, to examine the quarterly statements of the Local Treasurers, and generally to compare and watch the expenditure at the several Branches of the Institution.

This Committee shall consist of the General and Local Treasurers, the General and Local Secretaries, the House Governors, the Revs. Thomas Akroyd, Dr. James, George W. Olver, Henry W. Holland, Dr. Rigg, Edwin H. Tindall, Messrs. T. P. Bunting, H. Edmunds, A. Pointon, J. Fishwick Stead, with Rev. J. Ernest Clapham, Convener.

EDUCATION.

Q. XXVII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of WESLEYAN EDUCATION?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the proceedings of the Education Committee during the year, together with a Statistical Statement relating to Training Colleges, Day Schools, Sunday-Schools, and the Connexional Sunday-School Union, and directs that an Abstract thereof be printed in the Minutes as an Appendix. (See Appendix, No. II.)

2. The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted:—

(1.) The Conference empowers the Education Committee to make Grants, on inspection, to new Schools to which the provisions of the Minute of the Education Department, dated June 21st, 1878, apply, and for the probationary period during which, under the said Minute, such Schools cannot receive Grants in aid from the Department.

(2.) The Conference expresses its opinion that, in view of the working of existing arrangements for Public Elementary Education, it is highly desirable that the number of Wesleyan Day Schools should at least be maintained. The Conference therefore strongly recommends that before any steps are taken towards the closing or transfer of any Wesleyan Day School, the proposal to close or transfer it be communicated to the Education Committee, in order that they may have an opportunity of suggesting alternative proposals for the consideration of Local Managers.

(3.) The Conference directs that in all ordinary cases of Day Schools conducted on Wesleyan Trust premises, no such Schools shall be discontinued so long as there is a reasonable prospect of their being carried on without serious embarrassment. The same general principle shall apply to Wesleyan Day Schools conducted in premises rented for the purpose under the management of a recognised Wesleyan School Committee. When, however, the discontinuance of a Day School is proposed, before such proposal is carried into effect the Superintendent shall consult the Trustees, the Managing Committee, and the Subscribers; and if in any case there is a considerable division of opinion, the case shall be submitted to the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit. In all cases, the general principle laid down by the Conference respecting the Transfer of Schools —viz., that the Superintendents of the Circuits, with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall consult the Education Committee—shall be adhered to.

(4.) The Conference declares that it shall not be deemed to be within the power and option of a Superintendent to prevent the establishment or continuance of a Wesleyan Day School, so long as responsible parties pledge themselves to bear all the financial cost and risk.

(5.) (i.) In view of the interpretation which is put upon Section XXIII. of the Elementary Education Act by the Lords of the Committee of Council, to the effect that any transfer of a School, settled upon our School Model Deed No. I., to a School Board, for any term whatever, for the purposes of such School Board, must be sanctioned not only by the signatures of the Trustees, but by the Conference, testified by the President in writing, the Conference directs that in every case in which the transfer of such a School is proposed, the Superintendent, with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall first consult the Education Committee on the subject, and that if, for reasons given, that Committee recommends such a transfer, the Rules of the Conference in relation to the sale of Trust Property shall be applicable thereto;—the Education Committee considering all questions affecting School management, and the Chapel Committee questions affecting Trust Property.

(ii.) In respect to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. II., or on any other Deed in which the consent of the Conference is rendered necessary for the alienation of the property, the Conference recommends the Trustees to act upon the same principles as those laid down in the foregoing clause in relation to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. I.

(iii.) In all cases of transfer which may hereafter occur, the Conference recommends that provision be made in the instrument of transfer to secure the resumption of the premises by the Trustees, without their being required to reimburse any money laid out upon them by the School Board solely for its own purposes.

(6.) The Conference directs that the Statistics of the Day and Sunday-Schools of each Circuit be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but that if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

(7.) The Conference directs that the Education Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendents to the District Education Secretary, not later than April 20th, in each year.

(8.) The Conference directs all who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises for the establishment of new Schools, to communicate with the Education Committee, for the purpose of receiving counsel as to their projected undertakings, and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted.

(9.) The Conference directs that the October Examination of Pupil Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday of that month. The March Examination will continue to be held on the first Saturday of that month.

(10.) The Conference authorizes the observance of the third Sunday in October in each year as a day for Special Prayer on behalf of Sunday-Schools and young people.

3. The Conference directs that the District Sunday-School Sub-Committees shall have charge also of the interests of the Day-Schools in their respective Districts.

4. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the REV. FREDERIC GREEVES, to MR. FREDERICK HOWARD, and to MR. WILLIAM VANNER, for their services as Treasurers of the Education Fund.

5. The Conference re-appoints the REV. FREDERIC GREEVES, MR. FREDERICK HOWARD, and MR. WILLIAM VANNER, to be Treasurers of the Education Fund. The special duty of Mr. William Vanner shall be the charge of the Sunday-School Union branch of the finance.

6. The EDUCATION COMMITTEE shall consist of the following persons, namely,—

(1.) CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

Q. XXVIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of the CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the Children's Home and Orphanage, and directs that an Abstract of it be printed in the Minutes as an Appendix. (See Appendix III.)

2. The Conference rejoices in the manifold blessings attending this work as indicated by the very large number of former inmates who are filling useful positions in life, and especially is thankful that a considerable number of them are now members of the Church of Christ.

3. The Conference is thankful to hear that the subscriptions from Sunday-Schools are slightly in excess of last year; and, conceiving the Children's Home to be a specially appropriate object for the sympathy and liberality of our Sunday-Schools, authorises the repetition of the appeal to them.

4. The Conference is glad to hear that a commencement of the new Orphanage Branch, on a safe and moderate scale, is likely to be made in the course of the ensuing year; and in view of this enlargement of the work specially commends the whole enterprise to the liberal support of the Christian public at large.

5. The Conference directs the General Committee to appoint a Local Committee for the management of the Children's Home at Ramsey.

6. MESSRS. JAMES BARLOW and JAMES E. VANNER are re-appointed General Treasurers; MESSRS. W. L. WILLIAMS and F. HORNER are re-appointed Local Treasurers for the London and Milton Branches; MESSRS. J. „ J. Slack, „ F. Teesdale,
„ W. Warlow,
„ J. G. Wright,

and the Rev. F. KELLETT, who is appointed the Secretary of this Committee.

8. While the Conference regrets to be deprived of the advantage of Dr. Stephenson's attendance during its Sessions, it is gratified to learn that his health has improved during his stay in South Africa. The Conference requests the Rev. George O. Bate to give such superintendence to the affairs of the Children's Home, and its several Branches, as may be found practicable and desirable.

RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

Q. XXIX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee for Promoting the RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee, and being convinced that the observance of the Sabbath is necessary to the spiritual welfare of the nation, earnestly recommends the Methodist people to abstain from secular engagements and unnecessary travelling on the Lord's Day.

2. The Conference rejoices in the growth of an enlightened public opinion respecting the question of the Liquor Traffic on the Lord's Day, and also in the limitations which have been imposed upon Sunday Traffic in intoxicating drinks in Scotland, Ireland and Wales; and trusts that the same legislative protection will be extended to every part of the kingdom.

3. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the REV. JOHN BAKER, M.A., and the REV. JAMES FINCH, for their valuable services during the past year; and they are re-appointed the Secretaries of the Committee for the ensuing year.

TEMPERANCE.

Q. XXXI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of TEMPERANCE?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Temperance Committee, and directs that an Abstract of the Report be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. IV.)

2. The Conference hears with great satisfaction that the Temperance organizations of Methodism are constantly increasing, and that there are now in Great Britain 2,345 Wesleyan-Methodist Bands of Hope, with 225,160 members, and 177 Wesleyan-Methodist Temperance Societies, with 10,912 members. The Conference rejoices in the unprecedented prosperity of the Temperance movement generally, and especially in the increased disposition to associate the advocacy of Temperance with those distinctively Christian influences without which no social movement can secure thorough or permanent success.

3. The Conference repeats the expression of its deep regret and disappointment that no step has yet been taken to close public-houses in England during the whole of the Lord's-day, and records its emphatic opinion that Parliament ought in its next session to confer upon the people of England this inestimable boon which is already enjoyed by the inhabitants of Scotland, Ireland, and Wales. The Conference directs the Temperance Committee to avail itself of all legitimate means of impressing upon the Government and Parliament how deep and general is the feeling of the Methodist people upon this subject.

4. The Conference recommends that on the second Sunday in December in each year special reference shall be made in all Wesleyan-Methodist places of worship, and in all Wesleyan Sunday-Schools, to the appalling extent and dire results of Intemperance in Great Britain.

5. The Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of,—

i. Ex-officio members,—namely, the President and the Secretary of the Conference; the ex-President; the Secretaries and Lay Treasurer of the Committee; the Book-Steward; the Connexional Editor; the Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-School Union; one of the Secretaries of the Lord's Day Observance Committee; and,—

WESLEYAN-METHODIST THANKSGIVING FUND.

I. The Conference receives the Report of the Executive Committee, and directs that it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. XII.) The Conference is thankful to learn that up to July 12th, 1882, the promised subscriptions to the Fund amounted to £303,600 4*s.* 7*d.*, and that of this amount £281,437 14*s.* 6*d.*, up to the same date, had been paid to the General Treasurers, after deducting various Circuit and District expenses. The Conference is very thankful to God for the success of the Fund thus far, and confidently anticipates its early and satisfactory completion.

II. The Conference would have been gratified to receive a completed Report of the Fund; but it approves the action of the Executive Committee in deferring the closing of the Fund and the preparation of the Balance-Sheet, under the circumstances stated in their Report.

III. The Conference deems it to be necessary that the Fund shall be closed as soon as practicable, and therefore directs that in Circuits in which the accounts of the Fund are not closed, every effort be made to secure the early payment of such promised subscriptions as remain unpaid.

IV. The Conference resolves—

(1.) That the Thanksgiving Fund shall be closed on December 31st, 1882.

(2.) That the printing of Circuit Lists for the Report of the Fund shall be proceeded with as soon as circumstances permit; and (3.) That the Report of the Fund shall be presented to the ensuing Conference.

V. The Conference appoints the following Ministers and Laymen to be the Executive Committee of the Fund:—

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

Q. XXXII. What OTHER RESOLUTIONS are adopted by the Conference in its REPRESENTATIVE SESSION?

A. NOMINATION COMMITTEE.

The Conference appoints the Rev. Charles H. Kelly and Mr. William Vanner as Secretaries of the Nomination Committee for the Conference of 1883.

DIVISION OF CIRCUITS.

The Report of the Committee was received. The Conference resolves, subject to the provisions of the Seventh Clause of the Scheme of Lay Representation (Min. Conf., 1881, p. 382):—

1. That no proposal for the alteration, amalgamation, or division of any Circuit (or Circuits) shall be adopted by the Conference until that proposal has been submitted to the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit (or Circuits) concerned, and to the District Committee of the District (or Districts) to which the Circuit (or Circuits) may at the time belong.

2. That in all ordinary cases the concurrence of the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit (or Circuits) concerned, and of the District Committee of the District (or Districts) to which such Circuit (or Circuits) may belong, shall be required, before the Conference decides in favour of any proposal for the alteration, amalgamation, or division of any Circuit (or Circuits).

3. That any District Committee shall, however,

(i.) Have power, at its Annual Meeting, to suggest a proposal for the alteration, amalgamation, or division of any Circuit (or Circuits) within the District, and to send down that proposal for consideration by the next June Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit (or Circuits) affected by it.

(ii.) If the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit (or Circuits) concerned, objects to the proposal, or desires that it should be modified, the objection or proposed modification shall be reported to the District Committee at its meeting in the September following. If that District Committee, after considering the Resolution or Resolutions of the Quarterly Meeting adheres to its proposal, with or without modification, for the alteration, amalgamation, or division, of the Circuit (or Circuits) in question, and does not approve the modification (if any) of its proposal, desired by the Quarterly Meeting, the District Committee shall remit its proposal to the Circuit (or Circuits) concerned with a request that the proposal be reconsidered by the Quarterly Meeting.

(iii.) The result of this reconsideration of the District Committee's proposal by the Quarterly Meeting shall be reported to the District Committee in the following May. If the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned (or either of them) continue to object to the proposed alteration, amalgamation, or division, and the District Committee, after weighing the objections which may have been alleged against its proposal, adheres to it substantially; the Resolutions of the Quarterly Meetings and those of the District Committee shall be laid before the ensuing Conference in its Representative Session, which shall have power to approve or to reject the proposal of the District Committee for the alteration, amalgamation, or division of the Circuit (or Circuits) concerned; and if it be approved by that Conference, it shall be carried out by the following Conference in its Pastoral Session.

4. That any District Committee shall have power to suggest a proposal for the alteration of any Circuit not within the boundary of the District, but adjacent thereto, in order to the adjustment of the boundaries of that Circuit in relation to those of some Circuit (or Circuits) within the District; and to recommend the proposal to the Conference, subject to the following conditions:—

(i.) The District Committee shall send down its proposal (a) to the District Committee of the District to which the Circuit belongs, for consideration at its Meeting in the ensuing September, and (b) to the Circuit to which the proposal refers, for consideration as hereinafter provided.

(ii.) The District Committee of the District to which the Circuit belongs shall send to the Circuit a copy of any Resolution which it (the District Committee) adopts in September in reference to the proposal, with a request (a) that its Resolution, with the proposal, may be considered at one of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuit prior to the month of May ensuing, and (b) that copies of any Resolutions which the Quarterly Meeting adopts may be sent (i) to the District Committee which suggested the proposal, and (ii) to the District Committee of the District to which the Circuit belongs, for consideration at their Meeting in the month of May referred to.

(iii.) So far as any Circuits within the boundary of the District may be affected by the proposal, the regulations of 3 shall take effect.

(iv.) The Resolutions adopted by the two District Committees shall be forwarded to the ensuing Conference. If it be found necessary for the subject to come before the Conference for decision in its Representative Session, and it adopts a proposal for such an alteration of the Circuit as affects Stations, effect shall be given to its Resolution by the Conference of the following year in its Pastoral Session.

5. That the Leaders' Meeting of any Society to which a proposed change, by alteration, amalgamation, or division, in the Circuit of which it forms a part refers, the Trustees' Meeting of any Chapel in a Circuit to which a proposed change refers, and also the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit, shall have the right of Appeal to the Conference in its Representative Session, when the Resolution of a District Committee with respect to the proposed change is brought before it.

The Conference further resolves to rescind all previously existing Regulations which relate to the matters dealt with by the foregoing Resolutions, with the exception of daries of existing Circuits may be regulated, and partial alterations made, without dividing them or making any new Circuit; and such arrangements the District Meetings have authority to make, subject, however, to the decision of the Conference if there be any appeal against them.'

(ii.) The Regulation relating to Lay Representation in the Conference (xv.) (Min. Conf., 1881, p. 382).

MIDDLE CLASS EDUCATION.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference receives with pleasure the favourable reports of the Schools at Truro, St. Helier's, and Bury St. Edmunds.

3. The Rev. Charles H. Floyd and the Rev. Alfred Freeman (A) are re-appointed Directors of the Cornwall Wesleyan-Methodist School Association, and the Rev. Thomas T. Dilks and Mr. T. W. Pocock are appointed Directors of the East Anglian Wesleyan-Methodist School Association.

4. The Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of the President and the Secretary of the Conference; the ex-President; the Rev. George O. Bate and Mr. Percy W. Bunting, Secretaries; and the following persons:—

Rev. Richard W. Allen,
" J. Ernest Clapham,
" William H. Dallinger,
" George Fletcher,
" George Follows,
" Frederic Greeves,
" J. Richard Hargreaves,
" Henry W. Holland,
" Charles H. Kelly,
" Edward Lightwood,
" Frederic W. Macdonald,
" Dr. Moulton,
" George W. Olver,
" John S. Pawlyn,
" Thomas Richards,
" Dr. Rigg,
" G. Stringer Rowe,
" Dr. Stephenson,
" David J. Waller,

Mr. T. Percival Bunting,
" George H. Chubb,
" Thomas Dewhirst,

" James Duncan,
" James J. Flitch,
" James Floyd,
" H. French,
" W. R. Horner,
" Samuel Ingham,
" Henry Jefferson,
" J. Wesley Lewis,
" George Lidgett,
" Alexander M'Arthur, M.P.,
" W. H. P. Martin,
" Thomas G. Osborn,
" Thomas W. Pocock,
" J. C. Quickfall,
" W. Farrar Smith,
" S. D. Waddy, Q.C.

1. The Committee is empowered to make appropriations by way of grant or loan, or otherwise, on account of the remainder of the sum of Ten Thousand Pounds, which was allotted from the Thanksgiving Fund in aid of Methodist Middle Class Schools.

2. The Conference recommends the promoters of any projected Middle Class School, which it is proposed to denominate a Wesleyan-Methodist School, to submit to this Committee the draft of the Trust Deed or Articles of Association of the School, for any suggestions which the Committee may deem it to be desirable to make.

3. The Conference directs the Committee:

(i.) To consider schemes for the establishment of such schools, when they are submitted to them, and to advise respecting such schemes as they may deem expedient.

(ii.) To report on such cases to the Conference.

(iii.) To act on behalf of the Conference, in the cases referred to, in the interval between one Conference and another.

(iv.) To present to the Conference annually any suggestions for the promotion of the interests of Methodist Middle Class Education.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES ACTS.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Wesleyan Society for Abolishing the Regulation of Vice by the State, and renews its solemn protest against the Contagious Diseases Acts as being iniquitous in principle and demoralizing in tendency. The Conference approves the action of the Society in the prudent dissemination of information respecting the character and operation of these immoral Acts, and repeats its recommendation to our people to unite and persevere in vigorous efforts to procure their repeal.

2. The Conference expresses its thanks to the Rev. Dr. Osborn for the noble testimony which he has borne before the Committee of the House of Commons against the immoral and irreligious principles on which these Acts are founded. The Conference also tenders its respectful thanks to the Right Hon. James Stansfeld, M.P., for his high-principled and self-denying labours in the great work of repealing the Contagious Diseases Acts, and enforcing in Parliament a higher standard of morality in dealing with the subject of vice.

OLDHAM-STREET CHAPEL, MANCHESTER.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee appointed to consider questions affecting the Oldham-Street Chapel Trust Property.

2. The following is the Building Committee for the ensuing year: The President of the Conference, the Revs. Joseph Bush, James Chalmers, Joseph Exell, William Jackson, Dr. Pope, Henry T. Pope, William T. Radcliffe, James D. Tetley, Joseph C. Woodcock; with Messrs. J. Lees Barker, John Berrie, Ralph B. Brierley, Thomas Briggs, John Cooke, James Fildes, Henry B. Harrison, Samuel Hunter, J. Clarkson Kay, P. Keevney, John Napier, James Prescott, Thomas H. Rigby, Charles W. Rippon, W. A. Russell, William Tunstill, Thomas Willshaw, and Rev. Edwin H. Tindall, Convener.

CUSTODY OF CONNEXIONAL DOCUMENTS.

The Conference resolves that in addition to the Journals and Daily Records of the Conference, and the Minutes of the several District Committees, the following Documents shall also be preserved: The printed Agenda of the Conference; the Minutes of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions from year to year, with the Documents laid before that Committee, and the Resolutions of the Conference thereon; the Reports of any Special Committees or Commissions appointed by the Conference; any Legal Opinion obtained from time to time by the direction of the Conference; a Record of all Legacies and Funds left to the Connexion, of the place where the Trust Deeds are deposited, with the names of the Trustees, and the provisions (if any) for the renewal of the Trust; and when the Legacies have been finally disposed of, the Minute Books of the Trustees, showing the arrangements made; with any other Documents the safe custody of which the Conference may direct.

As the gathering and classification of such documents will be a work of considerable labour, the Conference appoints the Rev. Dr. Williams to act as Custodian and Registrar.

The Conference re-appoints the Committee with the addition of the names of the President and the Secretary of the Conference, and the Rev. David J. Waller, with power to prepare a proper place for the safe keeping of these Documents, and to make such other arrangements as may be necessary. The Rev. Dr. Williams is appointed Convener of the Committee.

METHODISM IN THE CITY OF LONDON.

The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, and appoints the following Committee, with power to promote the erection of a Chapel in the City for the Society and congregation formerly worshipping in Jewin Street; and in the event of the Committee being able to obtain a suitable site, the Conference commends the case to the practical sympathy of friends outside the City Society: The President and the Secretary of the Conference, the ex-President, the Rev. John Bond, Frederic Greeves, John W. Greeves, William Hirst, Ebenezer E. Jenkins, George Kenyon, John M'Kenny, Dr. Rigg, Richard Roberts, William Williams (A), Theophilus Woolmer; with Messrs. John Beauchamp, John Carr, W. Aver Duncan, John W. Gabriel, Thomas M. Harvey, Alderman McArthur, M.P., Alexander McArthur, M.P., W. Wilmer Pocock, Clarence Smith, Lancelot Smith, James E. Vanner, William Webster, W. Lisle Williams, James Yeo, and the Rev. George Scott (B), Convener.

The Conference authorises the Committee of the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund to treat this as an exceptional case, and not to require the provision of accommodation for a thousand hearers as a condition of its aid.

ELECTION OF LAY REPRESENTATIVES BY THE CONFERENCE.

Mr. Henry B. Harrison is appointed Convener of the Scrutineers for the Conference of 1883.

RE-ARRANGEMENT OF THE KENT DISTRICT.

The Conference directs that the question of the re-arrangement of the Kent District be reconsidered, and appoints the following Committee: The President, the Officers of the Home-Mission Fund, the Rev. Richard W. Allen, Charles H. Bishop, Wesley Butters, Benjamin Browne, Forster Crozier, Walford Green, William Hirst, Samuel Hutton, William King, Richard Martin, John D. Thomas, Thomas Wenn; with Messrs. T. M. Attwater, John R. Hale, T. W. Harris, John Holden, George F. Killick, George Lidgett, Henry Page, F. W. Pygott, William Ransom, John Rose, Henry Swaffield, and Rev. Richard W. Allen, Convener.

METHODISM IN SOUTH WALES.

The following Committee is appointed to watch the interests of Methodism in South Wales during the year, and to report to the next Conference:—The Chairmen of the Bristol, Swansea, and South Wales Districts, with two Ministers and three Laymen from each of these districts, together with the Rev. Samuel Davies, John W. Greeves, Lancelot Railton, Dr. Rigg, and Edwin H. Tindall, Convener.

MINISTERS FROM OTHER CHURCHES.

The Conference receives the Report of the Committee in the case of Ministers from other Conferences or Churches seeking to be admitted into Full Connexion with the Conference; and approves the Memorandum of Agreement setting forth the claims of the several Funds involved, and the privileges to which such Ministers will or will not be entitled.

CONNEXIONAL AND CIRCUIT FINANCE.

The Conference receives the Report of the Committee and adopts the two following recommendations:—

1. That the allowances to the Children of Ministers employed in Army and Navy work, for whose support the Home-Mission Fund is responsible, be paid by that Fund.

2. That in respect of the Children of other Ministers employed by the Home-Mission Committee in Circuit and Evangelistic work, the sum of two hundred pounds per annum be paid by the Committee as compensation on account of the maintenance of such children, in addition to the sum of three hundred pounds per annum, paid on account of their education.

The Conference re-commits the Report, and appoints the two following Committees, the smaller of which shall prepare a Scheme to be submitted to the larger Committee.

The smaller Committee shall consist of the President and the Secretary of the Conference, the ex-President, the Officers of the Wesleyan Missionary Society, the Home-Mission, Schools', Children's, Auxiliary, and Theological Institution Funds; the Rev. George O. Bate, William J. Brown, George Dickenson, Featherstone Kellett, Samuel Lees, Henry J. Pope, Dr. Rigg, John S. Simon, David J. Waller; with Messrs. Joseph Bennett, T. Percival Bunting, J. Wesley Lewis, Thomas G. Osborn, Thomas W. Pocock, John Raynar, T. Walton Stead, James S. Sutcliffe, William Tunstill, and Joseph G. Wright.

The larger Committee shall consist of the above, together with one Minister and one Layman to be chosen by each September District Meeting in Great Britain, and such other persons as the President may deem it right to invite.

The Rev. J. Ernest Clapham is appointed Convener of both Committees.

The Conference resolves that in consequence of important Connexional changes since the establishment of the Children's Fund in 1819, it has become necessary to find a more equitable basis of assessment for the purposes of this Fund than the number of enrolled members only, so that the pressure now unfairly resting upon many Circuits may be removed; and the Conference refers to this Committee the consideration of the Memorials and Suggestions relating to this subject which have been presented.

NECESSITOUS LOCAL PREACHERS.

The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee, and approves the insertion of the following clause in the Trust Deed:—'The Trustees may from time to time accept any further sums which may be given or bequeathed for the purposes aforesaid, and shall hold the same upon any special Trusts and subject to any special conditions or directions which may be declared or imposed by the respective donors or testators, and subject thereto upon the same trusts as are herein declared with respect to the said sum of eight thousand pounds.'

The Conference directs the Trustees of the Necessitous Local Preachers' Fund to pay to the Committee the available income of the current year, to be administered by the Committee in accordance with the Scheme adopted by the Conference.

The Conference appoints the following Committee, with power to appoint a small Executive Committee:—Rev. Alexander M'Aulay, George O. Bate, George Kenyon, Samuel Lees, David J. Waller, Dr. Williams; Messrs. Henry Avis, John Beauchamp, Thomas Cole, John Dyson, George Lidgett, George Parkinson, William J. Pile, W. Wilmer Pocock, Major Smith, H. A. Smith, and Samuel D. Waddy, Q.C.

Mr. JOHN BEAUCHAMP is appointed Treasurer, and the Rev. JOHN JACKSON (A) Secretary.

N.B.—All communications to the Trustees are to be sent to the Rev. SAMUEL LEES, 19, Yew Tree Road, Birmingham.

PRIMARY EDUCATION IN THE CORNWALL DISTRICT.

The Conference gives permission to the Cornwall District Committee, in compliance with their request, to employ a Minister to examine in Religious Knowledge in Wesleyan Day Schools within the boundaries of the District, and the same Minister is permitted to examine such Methodist Scholars from other Schools, in Religious Knowledge, as may present themselves for examination.

TRANSFER OF STUDENTS TO THE NEW SOUTH WALES CONFERENCE.

The Conference in its Representative Session concurs in the Resolution of the Conference in its Pastoral Session relating to the transfer of certain Students at the Theological Institution to the Conference of New South Wales, and agrees to remit, to the New South Wales Conference, any charge on account of their maintenance and training.

III.

Q. XXXIII. What RESOLUTIONS of the Conference are to be submitted to the several Districts in Great Britain, at their Annual Meeting, when Ministers only are present?

A. None.

Q. XXXIV. What RESOLUTIONS of the Conference are to be submitted to the several Districts in Great Britain, at their Annual Meeting, when Ministers and Laymen are present?

A. 1. Resolutions 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, on the Rules relating to the Division of Circuits. (See pp. 282—284.)

2. Resolution as to the Lay Treasurer and Honorary Lay Secretary of the Relief and Extension Fund for Methodism in Scotland. (See p. 250.)

IV.

Signed in behalf and by order of the CONFERENCE,

CHARLES GARRETT, PRESIDENT.

Leeds, August 5th, 1882.

The PRESIDENT'S address is 4, Blackburn Terrace, Liverpool; and the SECRETARY'S, Friary Road, Handsworth, Birmingham.

V.

STANDING ORDERS.

1. Names and Addresses of Circuit Stewards.—The Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman of the District with the names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting; and, immediately after the March Quarterly Meeting, with the name and address of any gentleman elected to attend the May District Meeting in the place of any Circuit Steward declaring his inability to attend such District Meeting.

2. Admission of Members.—Mistakes having occasionally arisen respecting the meaning of the Rule of 1797 on the subject of the admission of persons who are on trial as Members of our Society, the Conference deems it necessary to repeat the statement, That it never was intended that the names of all those who are on trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely, that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on trial, such objection may be stated by him; and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to the person so objected to, at the Quarterly Visitation.

3. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit Town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation.

If the accused person is a Trustee, then there shall also be associated with the Leaders' Meeting, as above constituted, the Trustees of the Chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected; or, if there is no such Chapel, then the Trustees of the Chapel in connection with the principal Society in the Circuit Town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated, unless he is himself a Member of Society in the same Circuit.

4. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—Mistakes having arisen on this subject, the Conference deems it proper and necessary to declare, that all the Ministers and Preachers on Trial appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders' Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed.

5. Probationers and the Lord's Supper.—The Conference, having been informed that, in several Circuits, the Preachers on Trial have very rarely an opportunity of receiving the Lord's Supper, resolves that, in compliance with a former injunction on this subject, the Superintendents be required to make the necessary arrangements, in their Circuit-Plans, for securing to their junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of this Holy Sacrament.

6. Liverpool Minutes.—The Resolutions adopted by the Conference in the year 1820, and usually called the 'Liverpool Minutes,' besides being read and considered in the Annual Meeting of each District Committee, (as our Standing Regulations require,) shall also be read at the Weekly Meeting of Ministers in each Circuit, next following the September Quarterly Meeting, or instead thereof the Resolutions on the Work of God, and on Pastoral Duties adopted in the years 1835 and 1847; and the Chairmen of Districts are directed to make inquiry concerning the due observance of this regulation.

7. Supply of Vacancies.—Instances having occurred in which Superintendents and other Ministers needing Circuit-supplies on occasion of sickness and various casualties, have applied to the President of the Conference, without first taking counsel with the Chairman of the District; the Conference directs the brethren to return to the old plan of first communicating with the Chairman in every such case, who is also directed to satisfy himself, by personal inquiry, that a local supply cannot be obtained.

8. Reading of the Pastoral Address.—The Superintendents are directed to appoint special Society Meetings, to be held at the principal Chapels in their Circuits, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations.

9. Annual Return of Members.—The number of Members in the Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported at the District Meetings, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference.

10. Returns of the Military.—The Conference directs that the returns of the Military in attendance at our Chapels shall include the actual number of soldiers who are declared Wesleyan-Methodists stationed in the Circuit, and not merely the average number in attendance at Divine Service.

11. Examination of Pupil-Teachers.—The Conference directs that the Annual Examination of Pupil-Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday in October and on the first Saturday in March; that the questions shall be prepared by the General Committee; that the Examination shall be held, either in the several Circuits by the Superintendent Ministers or their Colleagues, or at suitable places for Central District Examinations, as may be determined by the September District Meetings, and agreed to by the respective School Committees; and that the written answers shall be forwarded to the General Secretary, and shall be valued by a Central Board of Examiners to be elected by the General Committee. The Conference further recommends that, in connection with Central Examinations, Meetings of Teachers and Pupil-Teachers be held under the direction of the Chairman of the District and the District Educational Secretary.

12. Quarterly Fast-Days.—The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by Rule, is to be observed throughout the Connexion, for the following year, are, Fridays, September 29th, and December 29th, 1882, March 30th, and June 29th, 1883.

13. Discipline of Methodism.—The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular inquiries at their Annual Meetings in reference to all the points of Discipline specified in the first Article of the Answer to Q. XXVIII. in the Minutes of 1825.

14. Candidates for Admission on Trial.—(1.) Those Preachers who are recommended for Admission on Trial shall preach in the presence of at least three of the Ministers of the District Committee, (at or about the time of its Annual Meeting in May,) to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendents by whom the Candidates respectively are proposed; and a special report of the Sermons shall be made in the District Meeting, and immediately forwarded in writing to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates.

(2.) The Conference directs that arrangements shall be made by the May District Meetings for the hearing of each Candidate by one Minister of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the District Committee, such Minister to forward his Report to the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee.

15. Preachers on Trial.—Whenever it shall be found to be practicable, Preachers on Trial shall preach during the District Meetings.

16. Candidates for Ordination.—The Conference directs that Candidates for Ordination shall, at or before the May District Meeting, preach before three Ministers of the District, who shall report to the Meeting.

17. Annual Returns of the Members.—The Returns of the Members in the Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May District Meetings, to the Rev. John W. Greeves, Wesleyan Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, London, E.C.

18. Returns of the Military.—The Chairmen of Districts are directed to inquire of the Superintendents of Circuits in which troops are marched to Divine service in our chapels, the average number of non-commissioned officers and men in attendance; distinguishing the number of Members in Society. These returns must include, also, the actual number of soldiers who are declared Wesleyan-Methodists. The returns given are to be recorded in the District Minutes. If there be no military attendance in the District, a note to that effect shall be inserted.

19. Home-Missionary Ministers.—The Conference directs that a special inquiry shall be made at the May District Meetings, whether the Regulations for the employment of Home-Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home-Missionary Ministers are appointed; and that a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference.

20. Lay-Members of District Committees.—The Chairmen of Districts shall be required to send a circular to the Lay-Members of the District Committee, requesting their attendance on the Wednesday, and, if necessary, on the Thursday, in the week of the Annual District Meeting, specifying the business that will be brought forward, and particularly mentioning any subject that may have been specially remitted by the Conference to the consideration of such Meeting. A similar circular shall be prepared and sent with reference to the Financial District Meeting.

21. Representative to the Stationing Committee.—The Minister who shall be the Representative of any District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen by the united votes of the Ministers and Laymen who are members of the District Committee.

22. Division of Circuits.—Before District Committees consent to the division of any Circuit, inquiry must be made whether due attention has been paid to satisfactory arrangements for the Trust-Estates affected by the proposed division, especially in reference to any debts existing thereon.

23. Boundaries of Circuits.—Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the boundaries of Circuits, the Conference directs that, in future, the boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall be fully stated in the Minutes of the District Meeting to which they belong, and that the Secretary of the District shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and that, in such cases, copies of the Ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned, be coloured so as to show the boundaries, and deposited in the safes provided for the custody of the Trust-Deeds of the Circuits. The Conference further directs that these arrangements be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits.

24. Minor District Meetings.—In all cases in which the holding of a Minor District Meeting is rendered necessary, such Meeting, except under the Regulation passed by the Conference in 1840, (Minutes, Vol. IX., p. 94,) shall be held in the District in which the accused party resides, the accused and the accuser selecting respectively two Ministers from the said District, who, with the Chairman thereof, shall constitute the Minor District Meeting.

Should either party refuse or decline to choose two Ministers, to act as members of the Meeting, the Chairman is empowered and directed to nominate them so that the number required by Rule may be made up.

25. District Minutes.—The Chairmen of Districts are required to procure three complete copies of the Minutes of the several Annual and other Meetings of the District Committees, transcribed according to the order of time in which such Meetings shall have been held, and duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary. One of these copies shall be inserted in the District Records; a second shall be reserved for the use of the Chairman and Financial Secretary at the Conference; and a third shall be sent to the Rev. David J. Waller, Wesleyan Training College, Westminster, S.W., not later than June 26th, and delivered by him to the President during the first week of each Conference, to be preserved under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion. The several copies of the last class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

26. Schedules from Departments.—As it is obviously desirable that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Session, should be furnished with as much statistical information as possible on the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorises them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up.

27. Committee on Appeals and other Cases.—At each Conference, the President shall nominate, not later than the second day, a Committee of twenty-one members of the Conference, to whom shall be referred, without discussion, all cases requiring further inquiry touching the character of Ministers or Preachers on Trial, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Committees thereupon, or of any notice of charge or appeal relating thereto, or for any reason which the Conference may deem sufficient.

Any complainant or appellant, or any person under inquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case; and the President shall then appoint some other member of the Conference to act instead of the member so objected to.

Special Cases to be decided upon by the Conference may be referred to the whole Committee; but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a Convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee.

28. Lay-Members of Connexional Committees.—In respect to the several Committees of the Connexional Funds, the Conference resolves, that a certain number of Lay Gentlemen, being at least one-sixth of the number of Lay Members of each Departmental Committee, shall annually retire from each Committee by rotation, the same persons being ineligible for immediate reappointment, except in special cases, and after nomination for such re-appointment by the vote of four-fifths of the Members of the Committee present.

29. Preparations for the Stationing Committee.—The Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than the 27th day of June in each year, upon a Schedule to be provided by him, complete lists of (1) the arrangements provisionally made for the Stationing of Ministers in his District, (2) the invitations accepted by Ministers in his District to Circuits in other Districts, and (3) all Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made;—from these lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, one complete list of all arrangements thus provisionally made, and a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made; and a copy of these lists shall be sent to each member of the Stationing Committee at least seven days before the meeting of that Committee.

30. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may, from year to year, assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, (as already required by Rule,) complete and print, not later than the 15th day of June in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels during the Session of the Conference; and shall also, on or before the above date, inform every person whom they have appointed to preach in those chapels, of the time and place of such appointment. And in order that the Plan thus prepared may not be violated, to the disappointment of our friends, and to the great inconvenience of other parties concerned, no Minister who attends the Conference shall be at liberty to make an engagement to preach in any other Circuit, either on the Sabbath, or on any other day, during the period appointed for the meeting of the Conference, at the time for which his name shall be inserted on the Conference Plan.

VI.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it Please Your Majesty,—

We, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, Ministers in the Connexion established by the Rev. John Wesley, A.M., now assembled in our annual Conference, beg to approach your Majesty with loyal and hearty congratulations on the marriage of His Royal Highness the Duke of Albany with Her Royal Highness the Princess Helena of Waldeck Pyrmont.

We earnestly pray that the blessing of Almighty God may so rest upon their Royal Highnesses, that their union may not only be conducive to their mutual happiness, but also to the honour and welfare of your Majesty's House and Realm.

We also desire to assure your Majesty of our deep and heartfelt gratitude to Almighty God for preserving your Majesty's life from the wicked attempt recently made upon it, and we earnestly pray that the same Divine protection may continually shield and defend your Majesty from every evil, and that your Majesty may long be spared to reign over the nation in Righteousness and Peace.

We are, in the name of the Wesleyan-Methodist Conference, your Majesty's faithful subjects and servants,

CHARLES GARRETT, President.
ROBERT N. YOUNG, Secretary.

Leeds, August 4th, 1882.

THE FOLLOWING REPLY HAS BEEN RECEIVED:—

WHITEHALL,

SIR,

I have had the honour to lay before the Queen the loyal and dutiful Address of the Ministers in the Connexion established by the Rev. John Wesley, in annual Conference assembled, on the occasion of the Marriage of His Royal Highness Prince Leopold Duke of Albany, K.G., and also referring to the recent attempt upon the life of Her Majesty:—And I have the satisfaction to inform you that Her Majesty was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

W. V. HARCOURT.

THE REV. CHARLES GARRETT,
President of the Wesleyan Conference, Brunswick Chapel, Leeds.

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF THE

CONFERENCE TO THE METHODIST SOCIETIES.

Dearly Beloved in the Lord,—

Assembled once again in our Annual Conference, it is alike our duty and our pleasure to address you in words of fraternal greeting and pastoral counsel. We beg that this may not be regarded merely as a formal part of our proceedings, but as the expression of a sincere interest in your welfare. We remember that in many instances the pastoral relation, sacred and important in itself, is strengthened by the ties of personal friendship: in your hopes, anxieties, joys and sorrows we too have participated; our lives are spent in your service; our dearest hopes are fulfilled when spiritual prosperity is granted to you; 'we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord;' ye are our glory and our joy.

We are humbly thankful to the Head of the Church, that our first duty is to call upon you to rejoice with us over the addition to our Societies of more than twelve thousand members since the last annual return was made. Such an increase may well gladden your hearts, as it has gladdened ours. We have seen with peculiar satisfaction that it has been widely diffused; in all directions there have been blessed seasons of Divine visitation; God has sent a gracious rain upon His inheritance; far and wide there have been showers of blessing. In the hallowed labours which have resulted in this accession to our numbers, many of you have largely shared; the work has been your work as well as ours. And in the joy of manifest success, the joy of harvest, you, too, have justly participated. Unite with us, then, in ascribing all the glory to Him to whom alone and always it is due.

The success recently vouchsafed to our united efforts has tended to confirm yet more fully a conviction in which some of us have never wavered—that we do not need to depart from the modes of working long familiar to Methodism. Open-air services, earnest and personal invitations to the sanctuary, hearty singing, fervent prayer, faithful, pointed and experimental preaching,—these, when attended and pervaded by the power of the Holy Spirit, are now, as they have been in the past, mighty agencies for good. In respect of all these, the Methodism of former days has been greatly favoured, and our strength still lies in fostering them with zealous care. From time to time novel and peculiar modes of working have been, and may yet be tried. But we have prospered without them in the past, and through God's great mercy are prospering still. The faithful preaching of Christ crucified, the universal offer of a free, full and present salvation through faith in His blood, still has its ancient, mighty power. He Who was lifted up upon the cross for our sins, can still draw the hearts of men unto Himself; and it is the paramount duty, as it should be the supreme joy, of His Church everywhere, to cry 'Behold the Lamb'!

We are deeply concerned that you should accept these successes as the strongest possible encouragement to further efforts, for Christ and for souls. The fact that the Lord has thus answered our united prayers, has thus blessed our united labours, ought surely to be like a trumpet-call to press forward. It is in the hour of victory that the true soldier redoubles his efforts, and is carried beyond himself by the exultation of success. So may it be, dear brethren, with you. God has put upon many of you the great honour of doing His work with His manifest approval. It is among the highest of sacred privileges. Let it encourage and stimulate you to further faithful and diligent effort. You have rejoiced over the sheaves, go forth as reapers yet again. You have rejoiced as men that 'divide the spoil'; expect and hope that yet again you shall march to victory. You have found not only one but hundreds of the Saviour's lost sheep; remember that there are still multitudes wandering from the Good Shepherd further and further away in the paths of sin.

We would also affectionately remind you how important it is that all new converts should receive a hearty welcome among us, and should be encouraged to engage actively in work for the Saviour and His cause. A true love to Him will always prompt to effort in His service. 'The tree is known by its fruit.' The zeal of a new convert may sometimes stand in good stead of other qualifications requiring time for their development. You may have seen newly-converted souls both able and ready to help others, perhaps pointing them to the Saviour in the very same service in which they themselves had but just learned how to put their trust in Him. While it might be neither wise nor kind to place a novice in the chief posts of service, it is, on the other hand, a serious misfortune if the ardour and zeal of any young believer should grow cold for lack of employment. And surely this never need be; for in our Societies we have work for all, as truly as we have need of all.

We gratefully acknowledge that the year has been one of much liberality, as well as of spiritual progress. Local efforts of various kinds have been extensive. Before the noble results of the Thanksgiving Fund were completed, a memorable outburst of sanctified generosity relieved our Foreign Missions in two days from a burden of debt which had painfully hampered their operations. But, notwithstanding all this, we still feel deeply the fact that there are many claims to which we cannot respond, many most interesting openings for missionary effort of which we are quite unable to avail ourselves. Our great Missionary Society lacks neither agents nor opportunities; but our means are sadly straitened. Other and minor demands upon Christian liberality have now become so numerous that there is danger lest the great cause of Christian Missions should be regarded as merely one of the crowd. In former days this work stood out in just prominence. Its claims still need a fuller recognition. 'The field is the world.' Were our efforts to be at once largely extended, there are still multitudes who must pass into eternity ere the message of salvation through Christ could reach them. They are not turning away from religious ordinances which stand neglected at their very doors, but sit in darkness, and in the land of the shadow of death. Whatever other forms Christian liberality may take, the work of sending to these the light of heavenly life should occupy a foremost place. We would just now especially commend to your sympathy Mission-schools and work in Zenanas. Thousands of Oriental women are prisoners alike in body and mind: will you not seek to send into their dreary existence the truth which has brightened your own? And our schools, those invaluable aids to missionary effort, have felt painfully the iron hand of retrenchment.

Bear with us when we ask you to anticipate the day when you will meet the untaught multitudes of the heathen world before the 'great white throne.' Remember, too, the inexhaustible claims of your Redeemer's dying love. When you give up your account to Him, it will never be a matter of regret that you have made sacrifices, great or small, to spread in distant lands the knowledge of Christ crucified.

We are truly gratified that the work of providing suitable education for the children of those among our people to whom God has given 'neither poverty nor riches' is still advancing. Our Church has for some years made important efforts on behalf of both primary and superior education, but we have needed a more ample supply of schools suited to the means of very many of our valued members. We welcome any well-considered attempts to supply this want; and we trust the efforts recently made will meet with a hearty response, and that the various new schools will receive the support to which we believe them well entitled. We have often been pained to find that the children of some of our people, the hope of our flocks, have been deliberately placed under influences unfriendly, not merely to Methodism, but to all vital godliness. Such a mistake as this may lead but too easily to very disastrous results. We doubt if the members of other religious denominations exhibit a similar laxity or indifference in this important matter; indeed, it is certain that many of them act in a far different spirit. And we beseech you, brethren, not to place your children in positions where it will be a matter for grateful surprise if they are not estranged, sooner or later, from the Church of their fathers. Young people are not always proof against continual and carefully-adjusted opposition, and it is no wonder if the very young are overpowered by it. Early piety is not promoted by unfavourable surroundings, and it is a profound misfortune if the most easily impressed years of life are passed in an atmosphere of utter worldliness or ecclesiasticism. We speak the more freely to you on this question because there are now in various parts of the country attractive, cheap and successful middle-class schools, which are absolute centres of Ritualistic propagandism. We most earnestly and affectionately warn you against placing the young people whom we have baptized, and for whom we have prayed, under the care of men who will seek to persuade them to practise secret confession. There are already perils enough in the ways of youth without adding to them this extreme and altogether needless danger.

We have also to press upon you, now as at other times, the paramount importance of family religion. In these days of restless activity and great competition, there is an additional danger to family devotion; and the increasing habit of suburban residence, not only in the Metropolis, but in all large towns, often tends to shorten the time available for the morning and evening sacrifice. We have a painful anxiety, sometimes, in regard to this particular duty. Many of you, looking back to your own youth, will recall the unbroken regularity, the tranquil order, the simple but deep and fervent devotion, and the conscious blessing which characterised the family worship of former generations of Methodists. See to it, we beseech you, that these things are more than hallowed memories. Do what in you lies to maintain them as living realities in the present; take care that you are remembered, when your day of opportunity has ended, as persons who, like Abraham of old, commanded their households after them that they 'keep the charge of the Lord.'

The influences of the family altar are, in many instances, among the most precious associations of childhood and youth; and many a servant entering a godly home has received deep and lasting religious impressions in the sacred ordinance of domestic worship. Let us rejoice in thinking that you are firmly resolved that altered habits, and possibly unfavourable circumstances, shall be overcome rather than yielded to, and that you will not suffer them to prove obstructions in this great channel of blessing. The promise is unto you and to your children; dedicate them to the Lord in baptism, and lead them to Him daily at the throne of grace.

Since we last addressed you, a memorable gathering of Methodists from various parts of the world has assembled in City Road Chapel, London. Many of the Churches there represented, were the fruit of the Missionary zeal of former generations of Methodists. Prosperous Christian communities now occupy places that were desolated by superstition and barbarism. The desert has rejoiced and blossomed under the life-giving influences of Divine truth. In this Œcumenical Conference, we not only beheld the result of faithful labours in the past, but had the opportunity of manifesting to one another, and to the world, our unity of spirit, and our glad and hearty appreciation of each other's labours. We hope and pray that the day may come when Methodism shall be yet more manifestly a praise in the earth, not merely on account of growing numbers, influence and prosperity, but through its yet more fully-developed capacity for conveying blessing to mankind. We are thankful for the peace and doctrinal unity that exist in our own Societies, and in the other Methodist communions. Looking beyond our own boundaries, we observe in many quarters a disinclination for controversy, a feeling that in these days there is other work to be done. And, while we highly value accurate definition and firm defence of truth, we rejoice, when it is possible, to address ourselves to the work of feeding the flock of God, undisturbed by the painful necessity of discussion or dispute. Year by year, we, each one of us, solemnly affirm our continued adhesion to the truths 'which are most surely believed among us.' And whatever may be the shifting phases of modern thought, it is alike our duty and our purpose to bear a constant testimony to the great cardinal truths upon the due reception of which depends the salvation of immortal souls.

We are thankfully persuaded that there is nothing in the religious difficulties of our days that need be to you any new cause for anxiety and fear. There is nothing that is new in principle, nothing that the Church of God, in one form or other, has not often had to contend against. Arrogant formalism and elaborate ceremonialism, the leaven of the Pharisees—cold intellectual or scientific unbelief, the leaven of the Sadducees—these things are not new in principle, however they may vary in details of manifestation. Nor are other forms of assault upon your earnestness and fidelity to be regarded as dangers which derive any increase of power from their novelty. The threefold enemy,—the world, attractive or hostile; the flesh, ambitious or pleasure-loving; the devil, assaulting fiercely or approaching insidiously, coming as a roaring lion or as an angel of light,—these are the old hereditary foes of the disciples. They have been again and again overcome by untold multitudes; and, in the strength in which they conquered, you, too, may gain the victory. Gird yourselves for the conflict; 'quit you like men, be strong.' Perhaps there is in the Christian life in general too much thought of standing on the defensive; perhaps greater safety, and assuredly greater prosperity, would lie in more aggressive action. Be not afraid to carry the war into the enemy's country. In your Master's name, and in your Master's glorious strength, assail the kingdom of darkness to the best of your powers. A witnessing Church will scarcely fail to be a prosperous Church.

Individual Christian testimony seems to be the mightiest ageney contemplated by the Divine Spirit of Prophecy for the conversion of the world. 'Teach every man his neighbour . . . and every man his brother,' is the appointed order, and the mode of operation which is placed in direct connection with the glorious promise of the universal knowledge of a pardoning God. Relief from many doubts, solace under many anxieties, strength and support under many sorrows, will be found in working for Christ, as many of you, we trust, can already joyfully testify. But are there not too many in our Societies who have no post of duty, no sphere of useful and blessed activity? They are enrolled in the army, but are non-combatants; they stand within the vineyard, but it is to loiter and not to labour. Alas, how many talents lie buried within our borders! some of them are very precious and sorely needed, but they lie buried from year to year. Brethren, we put the question solemnly to each one of you,—What are you doing for Christ? and we pray that conscience, and the voice of the Holy Spirit, may cause it to echo in the heart of many an idler —What are you doing for Christ?

In turning to face the duties of another Connexional year, we are again admonished, as we have been continually, and of late most solemnly, that we must work while it is day. This year, as we call the roll of the loved and honoured dead, we inscribe upon it names, dear alike to you and to us; among them that of another ex-President of our Conference, whose abundant labours, genial spirit and varied activity in Christian service our Church has long recognised. The echoes of many voices that are now silent in the tomb, still ring in our hearts as in yours. Let them admonish you devoutly to remember those who have spoken unto you the word of God—be followers of their faith; consider 'the end of their conversation.'

We close by asking a continued, and if it may be, an increased, interest in your prayers. We have the treasure in earthen vessels,—the demands upon the Ministry multiply, and assume various and somewhat novel forms. Ours is no life of studious leisure in these days; it rather tends to become more and more one of strained activity and even perilous excitement. Hold up our hands, beloved, in continual prayer, so that we may receive from on high that blessing which alone can render our labours effectual, and which we shall rejoice to dispense among you.

'And now, brethren,' we 'commend you to God, and to the Word of His grace, which is able to build you up'; praying with all our hearts that He may grant, both to you and to us, an inheritance among them that are sanctified by faith that is in Christ Jesus.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

CHARLES GARRETT, President.
ROBERT N. YOUNG, Secretary.

OF THE

IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1882

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1882.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren,

'We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers, remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labour of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.'

We hail with peculiar joy the coming amongst us once more of your beloved President, whose practical wisdom and great administrative ability have rendered us invaluable service in our deliberations. We rejoice with you, and render devout thanksgiving to God for His goodness in prolonging the life and restoring the health of one whose extensive knowledge of the past, and sympathy with the present generation, pre-eminently fitted him to represent British Methodism in the recent Œcumenical Conference which will render ever memorable the year in which, for the second time, Dr. Osborn was called to the Presidential Chair.

We cordially welcome the honoured companions of the President. The ex-President, the Rev. E. E. Jenkins, M.A., and the Rev. Dr. Pope, well-known and highly-valued friends, occupy a high place in the esteem and affection of each member of this Conference. The Rev. R. N. Young, though coming for the first time to the Conference, is well known to many on this side the Channel as an able preacher and an effective missionary advocate.

We rejoice with you in the abundant increase in your Membership, as we have no doubt you will with us in the fact that we too are able to report an increase. For several years past, owing to the losses occasioned by death and emigration, we were compelled, year after year, to report a decrease. While, however, one of the darkest chapters in the history of our country was being written, the Great Head of the Church graciously accepted our labours and crowned them with His abundant blessing. Eight out of our ten districts report an increase. After filling up the losses occasioned by emigration and other causes, amounting in all to 1,800, we report a net increase of 249, with 776 on trial. At least 2,000 new members have been added.

Notwithstanding the agitated state of the country, it is pleasing to note that our ministers have not been subjected to any kind of molestation or even annoyance in the prosecution of their hallowed toil.

You will be pleased to know that the Students at our Collegiate Institutions—the Methodist College, Belfast, and the Wesley College, Dublin—have won the highest distinctions at the University examinations.

The spirit of liberality has been poured out upon our people. Our funds—Circuit and Connexional—are well sustained. The promised subscriptions to the Thanksgiving Fund come steadily in. The Deputation to America in the interests of the Union Guarantee and Home-Mission Funds was well received. The senior members, Revs. Wm. Crook, D.D., and Oliver M'Cutcheon, have returned. The junior member, the Rev. John Ker, remains for another year.

Four brethren, beloved and honoured, — viz., Rev. John Duncan, Gibson M'Millen, William Lutton, and John Carlisle,— have been summoned to their rest in heaven. As Superintendent of Missions and Schools—a position he held for nine years—our revered brother M'Millen became widely known throughout the Connexion. His genial, brotherly disposition, his piety and faithfulness, secured for him a high place in the confidence and affection of his brethren. We have no doubt you will hear with very great sorrow that during the sittings of our Conference, in the earlier deliberations of which he took an active part, the Rev. William Parker Appelbe, LL.D., B.D., well known and esteemed by you, was seized with sudden illness, and after a brief season of suffering his valuable life was brought to a close. In his death our Church sustains no common loss. He was a thorough scholar, a gifted theologian, and a preacher of remarkable pathos and power.

We beg to offer you an expression of deep sympathy in the losses which you have sustained in the death of honoured Ministers, especially in the comparatively early removal of the Rev. Gervase Smith, D.D., whose memory will be long cherished by the members of this Conference. As President, and when with us on other occasions, he endeared himself to our hearts by his genial, generous and hearty appreciation of the peculiar difficulties of our work. In our sorrow, we rejoice with you in the assurance that he now serves in the Church triumphant.

Four young men of promise have been received into full Connexion, and four others have been accepted as Candidates for the Ministry.

Eight highly-esteemed brethren, who have served the Connexion long and faithfully, obtained leave to become Supernumeraries. One of these, the Rev. James Tobias, well known and esteemed on both sides of the water, has, during an unprecedented ministry of fifty-three years, placed at the disposal of the Connexion gifts altogether out of the common order. The Conference directed that a suitable record, expressive of its appreciation of the eminent services he had rendered to the Church, should be placed on the published Minutes.

We send you, as the bearers of this fraternal message, three beloved and honoured brethren—the Rev. Oliver M'Cutcheon, whom we nominate as Delegate; the Rev. William Graham Campbell, M.A., our veteran General Missionary; and the Rev. James Thompson, whom we place at the disposal of the Missionary Committee for an appointment in South Africa.

'The Lord God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as He hath promised you!'

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,
JAMES DONNELLY, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1882

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1882.

Reverend and Dear Brethren,—

We have welcomed into our midst, as it is always our pleasure to do, the respected Representatives of your Conference, and in the terms of the Address, of which they were the bearers, as well as through their personal statements, we have heard of your affairs, and rejoice to know 'that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the Gospel; and in nothing terrified by your adversaries.'

We have, as ministers of British Methodism, in common with our people, watched, with solicitous interest, the progress of events in your country throughout the year. The unrest and lawlessness, the deliberate revolt against authority of the disaffected part of the population, despite all assurance of good-will on the part of our National Government,—ours and yours,—and despite also all measures intended to give practical effect to that good-will, have been to us a perplexity and a sorrow.

It is some relief, therefore, to be assured that a majority of the people of Ireland are not disaffected; that the Protestants of the island, with scarcely an exception, are loyal to the British crown, and are resolved to maintain the integrity of the Empire, whatever might threaten it; and we are very glad to believe that, of all the Protestants, there are none whose loyalty exceeds that of 'the people called Methodists.' We cherish the hope, notwithstanding the discouragements of the past, that the efforts which are put forth for the benefit of Ireland will, erelong, be rewarded by the prevalence of a spirit of contentment, and by the establishment of the most cordial relations between both parts of the Empire.

At the same time, we are ready to confess that our strongest confidence is not placed in the efficiency and generosity of legislative enactments and governmental administration, but in the might and gentleness of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. If, in the gracious providence which overrules all human affairs, the events of the recent past 'fall out rather to the furtherance of the Gospel'; and if, in fulfilment of the promise of the Father, the Spirit be poured upon you from on high, 'the wilderness' shall 'be a fruitful field,' and 'the desert' become 'the garden of the Lord.' 'Then the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever.' At no period in this generation have we and our people more frequently or more fervently made mention of you in our prayers; and we shall still pray for you, dear brethren, 'that the Word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified'; and that you, the heralds of that Word, may be in the future, as in the past, 'delivered from unreasonable and wicked men.'

We regard it as specially encouraging that during the year Almighty God has given to the United Methodism of Ireland such success, that you are able to report an increase in the total membership of your churches. This, coming as it does after a series of years in which no increase could be reported, and coming, too, in a year of public disquietude, must be most gratifying to you. The results of the recent census, from which it appears that a large increase has been made, during the last ten years, in the number of adherents to the Wesleyan-Methodist Church, must be a further gratification. We have observed, with thankfulness to God, and with admiration of you, our brethren, the patient zeal and cheerful hope with which you have laboured in times of manifold discouragement, and we the more rejoice with you because of the present proofs of prosperity.

You have congratulated us upon the increase in the churches of British Methodism this year; we reciprocate your congratulations. As to our own increase, it is instructive to notice that the total is the result of an increase in almost every district of the Connexion—a particular in which your experience for the year corresponds with our own. We have gathered as new members, fully received into our fellowship, 55,382, and show a net increase upon the returns of last year of 12,798. These figures are not a little cheering to us, inasmuch as they go to prove that a spirit of vigorous aggression still prevails amongst us, and that our methods of work, the tried and well-approved methods of our fathers, brought into competition as they are with the looser methods of a modern evangelism, do not need to be remodelled, but only to be employed. A simple faith, a fearless courage, and a sustained use of accredited instrumentalities will, with the assured Divine co-operation, bring us more abundant successes.

Together with the earnest evangelization which has marked the year, we have been diligently applying ourselves to the difficult problems of a more economical management of several of our Connexional departments. The resources of the Thanksgiving Fund have been steadily brought to hand, and whilst we have been able to relieve overburdened departments, we have sought so to adjust expenditures to present and prospective incomes as to provide against the recurrence of debt. We have not been without success in our efforts, and we shall pursue them to a still more satisfactory issue.

You have offered to us your fraternal sympathy in the sorrow we have felt because of the withdrawal, by death, of our loved and honoured brother, the late Dr. Gervase Smith. We have missed from our assembly his manly presence, his cheerful spirit, his practical wisdom. We have found mournful pleasure in recalling his various gifts and services, and it is comforting to us to be assured that he had endeared himself to you as to ourselves. Many other beloved names have been added to the death-roll of the year: some, of brethren who had attained a venerable old age, others, of those who were in the early years of their ministry. We are therefore the better prepared to enter into the sense of bereavement which you also have felt. We mourn with you the sudden death of the learned and esteemed Dr. Appelbe. His honourable position as Theological Tutor in the Belfast College, his long service to the Methodism of your island, and his several appearances as your Representative in our Conference, had made him well known to us and well beloved. We are admonished by these removals, and we shall resume our work, in the more regular forms of it, as we are sure you have already resumed yours, in humble imitation of the example of our Divine Master, who said, 'I must work the works of Him that sent Me while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.'

Before we close this message of sympathy and brotherly fellowship, we may not unfitly remind you that the tie which binds you and your Connexion to us is such as unites us to no other Methodist Conference. You are not, strictly speaking, affiliated to us; rather, you are part and parcel of us. Your Conference, to use the language of the highest Court of Equity in your country, was an 'emanation' from the British Conference. Your leading ministers are incorporated with us as members of the Legal Conference. Your organization, like ours, is directly bound to John Wesley's own foundation and settlement of what is properly and discriminatingly styled Wesleyan Methodism. May our union and unity be true and vital, our mutual love and loyalty in the future not less firm and cordial than in the past; and may England and Ireland continue to receive the richest blessings from the Fountain of our united Wesleyan Methodism.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

ROBERT N. YOUNG, Secretary.

OF THE

CONFERENCE OF THE EVANGELICAL METHODIST CHURCH OF FRANCE AND SWITZERLAND

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1882.

Dear and Honoured Brethren,—

We joyfully hasten to avail ourselves of another opportunity of declaring the deep affection which unites us to you—an affection which has for one very natural and prominent element, a feeling of filial gratitude towards the Mother Church, which after having founded our Churches has not ceased to feel a lively concern for their prosperity, and to provide for their support. It is our strong wish that the bonds of confidence and love which unite us to one another, should grow stronger and closer instead of becoming relaxed and broken. Therefore we have been happy to hear the two brethren, who, this year, represented among us the Missionary Committee, and virtually, if not officially, the British Conference, affirm in the most cordial manner that your interest in our work has not in any way diminished, whatever may be the modifications which may take place in your financial relations to us.

The Rev. G. W. Olver and the Rev. W. Gibson have gladdened us by confirming the good news which we have already heard of the prosperity of your work in England. We bless God that the piety of your Churches becomes constantly more living and fruitful. We feel that it is inward life which is the best, or rather, the only means of preserving in full efficiency that special organization and those special means of grace, of which, after long experience, we recognise more than ever the immense utility. We fully understand also that when the Holy Spirit is poured out upon Christians, He acts in them as a spirit of testimony, and moves them to new efforts for the evangelization both of those who immediately surround them, and of other nations who are still under the yoke of error or idolatry. A vigorous renewal of spiritual life can alone explain the generous efforts which your Churches make for the maintenance and development of the blessed Missionary enterprise. And we have the deep conviction, that among ourselves the same causes will not fail to produce the same effects, and that in this respect also God will give unto us both 'to will and to do.'

It is unnecessary to refer again to the social, moral, and religious condition of the nation in the midst of which we labour, and to the special character which that condition gives to our work. You know what, alas! is the state of our suffering but beloved France, how she is dragged in one direction by unbelief, and in the contrary direction by superstition. It will be sufficient to affirm, that during the last few years, this state of things has become worse, and that everything seems to bear us along to a severe and alarming crisis. Unbelief is becoming transformed into avowed atheism, and superstition is ripening into fanaticism. We have faith in God, and we know that our extremity will be God's opportunity; yet it is no less true that in such serious conjunctures, we feel more than ever our insufficiency, and the need of relying on the Lord and on the help of our brethren. Yes, beloved British friends, it is now that we must bé able to count upon your sympathy and upon your prayers. These you will not refuse us, for you have rightly estimated the influence, direct or indirect, which our country exercises upon the European continent, and upon the world at large, both with regard to forms of thought, and the level of public and private morals.

We know that you will learn with satisfaction, that we are putting forth serious efforts to consolidate the organization of our Churches in a genuine Methodist way, in conformity with the sound traditions received from our past history, so rich in blessed memories, and embodying for us so many facts which are altogether decisive in favour of those methods which are at the foundation of our existence as a Church. Our efforts have already been crowned with sufficient success to encourage us to continue them resolutely, patiently, and perseveringly, until we obtain the full and complete success of this movement of concentration, as a preparation for further action. Nevertheless, daily experience leads us to recognise, with yourselves, the necessity for sustained and prolonged exertion, since progress in all directions cannot be realized at a stroke, by a momentary dash, by a sort of coup d'état. We must advance by a succession of stages, but we are firmly resolved to go forward without lingering on the way, looking to God to give us courage and strength.

Meanwhile, we can speak of progress in the right direction, progress towards the object which we seek to realize—namely, the establishment of Christian societies, alive to God and truly Methodist. In several of our Circuits there have been during the last year revivals, conversions, especially among the young people of our congregations, and spiritual blessings which have quickened, fired, and stimulated the members of our Churches, both old and new. To unbelief, which grows constantly more daring, we shall for the future reply by bolder affirmations of Christian truth, and our young men will overcome the Wicked One by the word of truth abiding in them. We also cherish the hope that it will be given unto us to break down, to some extent, the worm-eaten, but still tenacious structure of Popery, which has been so fatal to our nation and to so many others. Thanks be unto God, doors are opening before us, and there is no lack of labourers; but for want of more abundant resources we are obliged, from time to time, with great regret, not to respond to appeals which are addressed to us, and to leave unemployed devoted and well-prepared workmen.

As in the past, but still more largely at the present time, our Church contributes to the general work of the evangelization of France, by lending or by handing over to different societies agents of all classes. We regret that we are unable ourselves to employ them; but we find consolation in the thought, that in this way also our labours are useful, and contribute to the moral elevation of our country. And we are convinced, that if God so wills it, He will restore to our Church, as a Church, a part, perhaps the whole, with interest, of what we have thus lent or given unto the Lord. Unto Him be given the Kingdom, and the power and the glory!

We have requested our honoured and beloved brother, the Rev. James Hocart, to be our Representative to the Leeds Conference. We have again elected as President the Rev. William Cornforth, and we respectfully ask you to confirm that nomination.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

SIMEON DUGAND, Secretary.

Nismes, 15th June, 1882.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1882

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE EVANGELICAL METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE AND SWITZERLAND, 1882.

Beloved Brethren,

Your affectionate and fraternal address, couched in terms of so great tenderness, we have received with unfeigned gratification. Its touching words have made an effectual appeal to our hearts, and we desire to assure you of the sincerity with which we reciprocate your expressions of attachment and brotherly devotion.

We thank you for the kind way in which you speak of the measure of our prosperity; a prosperity sufficiently large to encourage our efforts and to call for our thankfulness, but not sufficiently ample to satisfy our desires. Most gratefully do we acknowledge the goodness of God in allowing us to report a much larger increase in the number of our Society this year than for many years past. To Him who giveth all increase be the praise.

Be assured, dear brethren, that it is not our intention to allow any circumstances to diminish in the slightest degree our sympathy with you in your holy and difficult toil. We feel more and more tenderly drawn towards you as we observe how greatly your difficulties increase.

We regard with the profoundest sorrow the present condition of the religious thought and life of the people amongst whom you labour. We note, with a pain we cannot express, the growing tendency to utter indifference to religious belief and the inevitable weakening of the bonds of religious obligation. It is most natural that covert infidelity should develop into avowed atheistic antagonism to the truth, and superstition degenerate into virulent fanaticism. We are pained to learn from your testimony, what we but too truly feared, that in these respects matters are becoming worse and worse around you; and we do most fervently pray that the perilous and critical issue which you fear may be averted. For some time we have felt, more than formerly, the influence of evils with which you are more familiar creeping over portions of our own population, and hindering the progress amongst them of spiritual religion. With you we feel that in so serious a conjuncture of affairs as that which you deplore the only hope and refuge must be in God. It shall be well if to Him our fears drive us. He is Lord of all: and even over the hosts of the aliens His kingdom ruleth. Depend upon it, dear brethren, He will not forsake you in the hour of your conflict. And we, while sympathetically watching your struggle, will appeal on your behalf to Him, in the interests of whose kingdom you engage in this sacred warfare. We are the more moved to this, knowing as we do that the influence of your country upon the counsels of the world is not greater than the force and contagion of your example upon the morals and modes of thought current in the politer nations of the earth.

But we turn with gladness to brighter and more cheering views. With thankfulness we behold you faithfully availing yourselves of the civil liberty which you enjoy, and of the spirit of hearing which exists at least in some parts of your country. And we watch you with interest guarding and feeding the flock of God committed to your trust; while your resolve to meet an increasingly daring unbelief by a bolder avowal of the truth is in the utmost degree instructive and gratifying to us. We rejoice to hear that you are seeking with all seriousness to consolidate the organization of your Churches according to the principles which underlie all true Methodism throughout the world; varying your methods only to meet the peculiar necessities and genius of your own country. We encourage you to persevere in this, having full persuasion from our own experience that the more faithfully we adhere to our original design, and seek to carry it out in the original spirit, the more real and substantial will be the results of our work. Let all be subordinated to the one aim,—however far its attainment may seem to be postponed into the future,—the aim of spreading scriptural holiness throughout the land. We are greatly cheered by the spirit of heroic devotion to your work—your great work—which you display; and by your firm determination to go steadily forward, undaunted by difficulties, to the attainment of the end for which you exist as one of the Evangelical Churches of France.

It is a source of extreme pleasure to us to hear of definite progress made by you during the year, and that you give prominence in your notes of encouragement to the fact, that you have had revivals of religion in several of your Circuits; and that conversions, especially amongst the young, have taken place. These are the most trustworthy evidences that the Divine Spirit, whose work alone issues in religious revivals, is with you. You may often have to speak to unwilling ears and to appeal to unsympathetic hearts; but as you preach the word of Christ you may rely upon the aid of the Spirit of Christ, and as you cultivate a Christian character and a godly discipline in the Churches entrusted to your care, you may assure yourselves of the presence and benediction of that Lord who is Head over all things to His Church.

We can the more readily sympathize with you in your inability to employ all the agents whom God vouchsafes to raise up amongst you, as it is one of the greatest difficulties pressing upon ourselves at the present time. If, however, they are drafted from you into other Churches or Societies, that may be one means by which you may benefit classes of people who would otherwise be beyond your reach.

We receive with great cordiality your dear brother, and ours, the Rev. James Hocart, as your Representative to our present Conference, and we have heard with much gratification his words of wisdom and meekness. We entirely approve your selection of the Rev. William Cornforth to be the President of your Conference. Both these brethren we hold in the highest esteem.

Accept, dear brethren, the assurance of our most fervent fraternal affection, and of our prayers to God our Heavenly Father that He may 'make all grace abound' to you, and 'fill you with all joy and peace in believing.'

ADDRESS

OF THE

EVANGELICAL NONCONFORMIST MINISTERS IN LEEDS

TO THE

PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS OF THE WESLEYAN-METHODIST CONFERENCE ASSEMBLED IN LEEDS, JULY, 1882.

Mr. President, Dear and Honoured Brethren,—

We rejoice in the opportunity afforded us by the holding of your Conference this year in Leeds of expressing to you our very high estimate of your varied and successful labours in the Lord's Vineyard, and of the practical wisdom with which these labours are directed.

United as we are with you in seeking the extension of the Redeemer's Kingdom, we cannot but mingle our gratitude with yours, that, by means of Wesleyan Methodism, so great a harvest of souls has already been gathered into the Lord's garner.

We give thanks to God for your steadfastness in proclaiming the Lord Jesus Christ as the only Source of life and salvation, and in setting forth the universal need of the regenerating power of God's Holy Spirit.

It is with unfeigned pleasure we learn that the members and adherents of your body in all parts of the world (accustomed as they are to healthy evangelical teaching) are now to be reckoned by millions, and we have full confidence that the Great Head of the Church has still more abundant blessings in store for you than any yet experienced.

That His presence has been so manifestly with you, and His blessing so richly bestowed upon you in the past, is the surest pledge that the future will be still more bright and glorious.

Nor is your influence for good confined to your own body, but supplies a stimulus to the Church of God at large.

We are sure that our sympathies and congratulations will be received in the spirit in which they are offered; and we pray, that by the combined influence and labours of all who love the Lord Jesus Christ, the time may soon come when 'the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.'

APPENDIX I.

METROPOLITAN CHAPEL BUILDING FUND.

The following is a Summary of the work done during the past year:—

I.—Chapels Opened.

Mile End Road, Holly Park, Locksfields, Queen's Road, Munster Park, Forest Gate, Putney, and Surbiton Hill, being the largest number opened in any single year in the Metropolis. The Chapels in course of erection and rapidly approaching completion are Addiscombe, Streatham, and Willesden.

When these shall have been opened, the Committee will be able to report that since the Fund was founded in 1861, no fewer than sixty-four large Chapels, each providing, when completed, accommodation for at least 1,000 persons, will have been added to the sixteen similar Chapels that existed when the Fund was founded. Thus in about twenty-one years the number of large Methodist Chapels will have been quintupled; in other words it may be said that four times as many Chapels of this class will have been provided in 21 years as in the previous 120 years of Metropolitan Methodism.

Further extension is projected, and Chapel sites are held at Agincourt Road, Amhurst Park, Denmark Park, Forest Hill, Hornsey, Sutton and Walham Green.

II.—Finances.

(A) Income.—The income of this Fund is derived from the following sources.

(1.) The ordinary contributions of the Metropolitan congregations, which have amounted to £1,305 6*s.* 3*d.*, being a decrease of £9 10*s.* 6*d.* (2.) The Special Provincial Fund, towards which the sum of £2,257 10*s.* has been received since January 1st, 1881, the period to which the accounts were last made up. (3.) The sum of £5,000 placed by the late Sir F. Lycett, during his last illness, in the care of the late Secretary, to give £500 each to ten special cases of chapel building, commenced before July 1st, 1881. (4.) A further sum of £2,500, handed by the late Sir F. Lycett, to the late Secretary, to continue the payment of his ordinary contributions during his illness—that illness from which he never recovered. (5.) Repaid loans, which have amounted to £2,003 5*s.*

(B.) Expenditure.—The grants and loans have amounted to £27,168, while a further sum of £10,000 remains to be paid under the provisions of Sir F. Lycett's Will.

N.B.—The amount outstanding in loans is £28,794 10*s.*

In no previous year has the Committee been able to give a more favourable report of the state and work of the Union than now; nor of the Union only, but it is a pleasure to know that the whole Sunday-School department of Methodism is in a vigorous and improving condition.

APPENDIX III.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT

THE CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

In presenting their Report for the year ending 31st March, 1882, the Committee record their gratitude to Almighty God for the results which have attended the work of this Institution since its commencement.

Whilst more than 1,300 children have to some extent received the benefit of the Institution, upwards of 700 have passed forth from it into the world; and of these, only three per cent. have to be classed as moral or social failures. Such figures are easily quoted, but the meaning of them it is hard to realize, and not only so, the work has also embraced the creation of a system and machinery for philanthropic and religious results which in the future will produce larger and larger returns.

Yet the Committee cannot present their Report without finding in it cause for serious concern. True, the income is in advance of that of the year previous by £337 15s. 9d. The Ordinary Subscriptions and Donations show an increase of £10 12s. 7d. But it must be remembered that £55 2s. income of the Ramsey Branch is now brought into the general account for the first time. Without this the Subscriptions and Donations would have shown a decrease of £44 9s. 5d. The contributions from Sunday-Schools are £27 8s. 8d. in excess of the previous year, and the Birthday Society, though not yet in full operation, has contributed £387 9s. 5d. So far the Report is encouraging.

On the other hand, the expenditure of the Home has exceeded the income by no less than £2,542 12s. 8d. Of this sum, however, £760 9s. 10d. has been spent in the reduction of debt, £500 17s. 5d. has been the charge on money borrowed, and £917 17s. 3d. has been provided from the General Fund for the enlargement of buildings, furnishing, or refurnishing, at one or other of the Branches of the Home.

The charge for general maintenance shows an increase of £913 15s. 1d. This includes the cost of the Branch at Ramsey, which has now, for a complete year, been dependent on our funds. And it includes the charge occasioned by the residence during the year of forty more children in the English Branches of the Home than during the preceding year.

Excluding all items of extraordinary expenditure, it appears that the total ordinary expenditure has exceeded the total ordinary income by £468 6s. 5d.

The Committee are confident that this deficiency does not arise from any extravagance of expenditure; but they will do their utmost to reduce expenditure in any ways which may be found consistent with efficiency, and to ensure a considerable reduction in next year's expenditure they have resolved to lessen the number of children in the London Branch.

The Committee, however, do not abandon the hope that the income may be considerably increased. The Report of last year presented an arrangement of subscriptions for the first time according to locality; and a glance at that list will show that, whilst some localities support the Home very nobly, very little indeed is received from other places which might be supposed to be both able and willing to support it liberally.

Moreover, in view of the opening of the Birmingham Orphanage, to which the Committee feels itself pledged, it is evident that considerable increase of income is absolutely necessary. For such an increase the Committee again most earnestly appeal to the Christian public.

Cordial thanks are due to the Sunday-school friends and supporters of the Home throughout the country. They have nobly come to its aid, and the Committee trust in them for still larger help in the future.

APPENDIX IV.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE, 1882.

The Temperance returns for this year reveal the pleasing fact that there are in existence 2,345 Bands of Hope, an increase on the year of 312. The number of enrolled members is 225,160, an increase of 22,644. The Sunday-School Union reports this year 829,666 Sunday-scholars, hence the great majority of our scholars are still outside the Bands of Hope. An analysis of the District returns discloses the unsatisfactory fact, that 794 Bands of Hope, with 75,990 members, are not organized according to Conference Rules. That there are 41 Bands of Hope otherwise organized according to Conference rules, but not connected with a Sunday-school. These latter report 2,101 members. There are also 121 irregular Bands of Hope not connected with Sunday-schools, with 4,208 members. It is most desirable that these Associations should be organically connected with Sunday-schools, but there may be exceptional circumstances which occasionally render this impracticable.

There are 177 Methodist Temperance Societies, an increase of 33, with 10,912 enrolled members, an increase of 1,510. It is greatly to be desired that Circuit authorities would promote the establishment of these adult societies. But few persons seem to be aware that the Conference has sanctioned the formation of Circuit Temperance Unions. It will be desirable to call attention to the usefulness of these organizations.

We report an increased observance of the Temperance Sunday. Great advantage would be derived from a general response to the recommendation of the Conference in reference to the second Sunday in December.

Several District Committees have reported that Temperance

Meetings, in connection with their annual session in May, have been attended by much good. A Public Temperance Meeting was held during the session of the Œcumenical Conference. All sections of Methodism were represented, and the meeting was of a most enthusiastic and satisfactory character.

The engrossing character of Irish affairs has prevented the Government from dealing during the present session with the subject of Sunday closing in England; but your Committee have promoted petitions to the House of Commons from Wesleyan Methodist congregations for Stopping the Sale of Intoxicating Liquor on Sunday. Our people have extensively and heartily responded.

The District Secretaries have discharged their important duties with great ability and zeal.

APPENDIX V.

EXTENSION OF METHODISM IN GREAT BRITAIN.

The following is an Abstract of the Committee's Report for the year ending June 30th, 1882:—

During the past year the Committee have received and considered 143 applications, and have made 123 Grants, amounting to £7,810 15s. These Grants have been distributed in most of the Districts and in 36 counties.

Additional sittings provided during the year 18,786

Subscriptions during the year have amounted to ... ... £1,940 13*s.* 10*d.*

Applications for aid 777

Grants made 538, amounting to... £33,843 12*s.* 6*d.*

Additional sittings provided 89,876

The total amount promised was £47,470, exclusive of the £45,000 granted by the Thanksgiving Fund.

Subscriptions repaid amount to £28,848 6*s.* 5*d.*

Death of the Rev. Dr. Smith.

The Committee place on record their painful sense of the great loss occasioned by the death of Dr. Smith. They would glorify God in him, remembering the many excellencies which adorned his character, and the great services he rendered to Methodism in its various departments.

The Committee respectfully assure Mrs. Smith and the members of her family of their sincere sympathy and condolence, and their earnest desire that Divine support and consolation may be vouchsafed to them in this time of trouble.

APPENDIX VI.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT ON THE DISTRICT SUSTENTATION FUNDS.

The District Sustentation Fund has completed the eighth year of its existence.

During the eight years subscriptions to the Fund have been raised to the amount of £20,965, and grants have been made to Districts to the amount of £20,972. The sum of £17,075 has been raised in the aided Districts to meet grants. The total amount paid to the several Districts in augmentation of the allowances made to Ministers since the establishment of the Fund is £38,047.

The amount raised for the Fund during the past year is £2,064, and the amount granted to Districts is £2,325.

Sustentation Fund Committees have been established in thirty-three out of the thirty-five Districts in Great Britain.

One hundred and forty-three Circuits have made themselves independent of the Fund. There are now only 217 Circuits paying less than the minimum proposed by the Fund.

APPENDIX VIII.

ABSTRACT OF REPORT UPON THE EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL.

PRESENTED TO THE CONFERENCE, 1882.

THE Examination was held, as directed by the last Conference, on Tuesday, April 4th, and Wednesday, April 5th, 1882. On the former day the Probationers were examined in the first three subjects of examination prescribed by the Conference for the several years of probation, and the remaining subjects were taken on the second day named.

A supplementary examination, in accordance with the Resolution of the Conference 1881, No. 14 (Minutes, pp. 198, 199), was held on July 4th and 5th. It was attended by six probationers in the third year, by one probationer in the second year, and by one in the first year.

The results are presented to the Conference, since they could not be reported to any District meeting prior to the Conference.

Every probationer attended either the ordinary examination or the supplementary one in July.

Eight probationers from the Theological Institution who had not been excused from examination in Greek by their Tutors did not present a Greek Testament paper, of these three were in the fourth year of their probation, and five were in their third year; and five probationers who were not excused from examination in Hebrew by their Tutors did not present a Hebrew paper, of whom one was in his fourth year of probation, and four were in their third year. Each of these cases was reported to the District meeting, and an explanation was asked respecting it.

In all, 136 probationers who had been at the Theological Institution for periods varying from one year to four years were examined. Of these nine were excused from examination in Greek, and fifty-three from examination in Hebrew, on the recommendation of the Institution Tutors.

The general result of the Examination of the probationers of each year was as follows :—

First Year.—9 probationers were examined: of whom 1 wrote three papers, and 8 wrote four. 35 papers were written: of these, 16 obtained marks higher than 3+, being $45\frac{3}{4}$ % in 1882 compared with 54 % in 1881. The papers on Paley's Evidences and on St. John (Greek) were inferior to those of last year in the same subjects; the papers on Pearson on the Creed were superior in merit to those of 1881; and the papers on St. John's Gospel in English were about equal. Two probationers obtained places in the Honours list.

Second Year.—21 probationers were examined: of whom 2 wrote three papers, 6 wrote four, and 13 wrote five. 95 papers were written: of these 32 obtained higher marks than 3+, being about $33\frac{3}{4}$ % in 1882 compared with 44 % in 1881. The papers on Pope's Compendium of Theology, on Wesley on Christian Perfection, and on Exodus and Acts (English) were inferior to those on similar subjects last year; the papers on St. Luke's Gospel were about equal to those on St. Mark's Gospel last year; and the papers on Moulton on the English Bible and in Hebrew (Exodus) were of about the same quality with those of last year, when the examination results in both subjects were unsatisfactory; and the papers on Acts (Greek) were very inferior to those of last year. Of 17 papers written the marks were i. 2; iii. 4; iii. + 8; iv. 2; failure 1. Two probationers obtained places in the Honours list.

Third Year.—69 probationers were examined: of whom 2 wrote two papers, 1 wrote three, 8 wrote four, and 58 wrote five. 329 papers were written: of these 113 gained higher marks than 3+, being 34 % compared with 38 % last year. The papers on Butler's Analogy and Wesley's Sermons are very much better than those of last year on the same subjects; the papers on Church History were considerably inferior to those on Payne Smith on Prophecy last year; the papers on Deuteronomy this year are not equal to those on Exodus last year; the papers on Galatians (Greek) are better than those on Philippians (Greek) last year; there is a marked improvement both in the number and in the quality of the Hebrew papers this year, though the result as a whole is not satisfactory; and the few papers written on Galatians (English) were better than those on Philippians (English) of last year. Fourteen probationers obtained places in the Honours list.

Fourth Year.—66 probationers were examined: of whom 7 wrote four papers, and 59 wrote five. 323 papers were written: of these 121 gained higher marks than 3+, being $37\frac{1}{2}$ % compared with 49 % last year. The papers on Butler's Analogy were not quite equal to those of 1881; those written on the Constitution and Polity of Methodism this year (for the first time) were scarcely equal in merit to those on the subject (Lee on Inspiration) which they substitute; the papers on Church History were much less satisfactory than those of 1881; those on St. John's Gospel were more unsatisfactory in 1881 than in 1882; the papers in Greek Testament (Epistle to the Romans) were inferior (23 % over 3+ in 1882 against $37\frac{1}{2}$ % in 1881, and 63 % under 3+ against 40 % in 1881); but at the same time it is necessary to a complete comparison to know, as it is also gratifying to report, that in 1882 71 % of the Examinees of the Fourth year wrote Greek Testament papers, while only 58 % of the Examinees of the Fourth year in 1881 wrote Greek Testament papers. The marks gained by the Hebrew papers were much lower than those gained last year, while the proportion of examinees in Hebrew is but very slightly increased. Thirteen probationers obtained places in the Honours list.

APPENDIX IX.

LAY REPRESENTATION IN THE CONFERENCE.

THE following are the Resolutions of the Conference of 1877 on the subject of Lay Representation :—

I. The Conference, when considering such matters as are hereinafter declared to be within the province of Ministers and Laymen acting conjointly, shall consist of the President of the Conference, and of 240 Ministers and 240 Laymen.

(i.) The Ministerial Members of the Conference when the Lay Representatives are present shall be, in addition to the President and all other Members of the Legal Conference for the time being who shall have declared at the May Meeting of the District Committee their intention to attend the Conference :—

(a) Any Assistant Secretary of the Conference, not being a member of the Legal Conference.

(b) All Chairmen of Districts in Great Britain, not being members of the Legal Conference.

(c) Six Ministers in Full Connexion, stationed in Foreign Districts, who may be in England at the time of the sitting of the Conference. The Conference when consisting of Ministers only shall determine in what manner such Ministers shall be chosen ; or if there be not six such Ministers in England at the time of the sittings of the Conference, in what manner their places shall be supplied.

(d) If, in any year, any Department would not, in the judgment of the Conference, be adequately represented by Members of the Legal Conference, provision shall be made for the Ministerial Representation of such Department by the preceding Conference when consisting of Ministers only.

(e) The remaining Ministerial Members of the Conference, when composed of Ministers and Laymen, shall be elected at the Annual Meetings in May of the District Committees in Great Britain, as follows:—The Ministerial Members of each District Committee shall elect from their own number so many Ministers as, by the allocation of the Conference preceding, are entitled to attend the ensuing Conference. From the Ministers so elected, the Ministerial Members of each District Committee shall elect by vote, taken by ballot after nomination, so many Ministers as were allocated by the preceding Conference to represent such District in the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen.

N.B.—The newly-elected Members of the Legal Conference in each year shall be Members of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen.

(ii.) No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected annually by the Conference or by the May Meeting of the District Committee, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his election by the Conference or nomination in the District Committee, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a member of a District Committee. Any Layman nominated in a District Committee must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District.

(a) One-eighth of the Lay Representatives shall be elected annually by the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen; but in the case of the first Conference to be held after the adoption of this Scheme, by the preceding Conference. This number shall in all cases include the Lay Treasurers of the following General Connexional Funds—namely, the Foreign Missions Fund, the Schools' Fund, the Chapel Fund, the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund, the Children's Fund, the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, the Auxiliary Fund, the Theological Institution Fund, the Education Fund, and the Fund for the Extension of Methodism in Great Britain, for the time being. One-third of the remaining number elected in the first instance by the Conference shall retire at the end of the first year; one-third at the end of the second year; and one-third at the end of the third year. This arrangement for retirement in rotation shall be continued from year to year, and the Lay Representatives so retiring shall not be immediately eligible for re-election by the Conference.

(b) For the present, the election of the remaining Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Meetings of the District Committees; such nomination to be by the Lay Members only. The Circuit Stewards of each Circuit shall be called upon at the March Quarterly Meeting to declare their ability and willingness to attend the ensuing Annual Meeting of the District Committee in May, or the contrary. If they, or either of them, shall declare inability or unwillingness to attend the said District Committee, the Quarterly Meeting shall have the right of electing by and from its own members, and by open vote, a Representative or Representatives to supply the vacancy or vacancies so created.

(c) The number of Laymen to be elected in each District shall be determined by each preceding Conference when consisting of Ministers and Laymen; but, in the case of the first Conference to be held after the adoption of this Scheme, by the preceding Conference.

II. The business to be transacted by the Conference when consisting of Ministers only shall be completed before that which is to be transacted by Ministers and Laymen conjointly is entered upon.

III. The deliberations of the Conference, when consisting of Ministers and Laymen, shall be confined to the duly-appointed Members of that Conference; but any Minister permitted by the District Committee to attend the Conference when composed of Ministers only, may be present during the Sessions of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen; and the Lay Members of Connexional Committees may be present during the proceedings of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen. Seats for the purpose shall be reserved for Ministers and Laymen.

The admission of any other persons shall be determined and arranged according to circumstances, at the discretion of the Conference.

IV. The following subjects shall remain within the exclusive province of the Conference when consisting of Ministers only, viz :—

(i.) The formal constitution of the Conference: Filling up of vacancies in the Legal Conference: Election of the President and Secretary: And the appointment of other Officers of the Conference.

(ii.) Ministerial Lists: Admission and Continuance of Preachers on Trial: Arrangements for the Examination of Candidates and of Preachers on Trial: Admission into Full Connexion, and Ordination.

(iii.) All Questions affecting Ministerial Character and Ability, and of Discipline arising thereupon, or in any wise relating thereto.

(iv.) All Final Appeals in matters of Discipline relating either to Ministers or Members.

(vi.) Obituaries.

(vii.) Stations: and all Appointments of Ministers.

(viii.) Pastoral consideration of the Number and State of the Societies, and Pastoral Address.

(ix.) Pastoral Reports: Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove School, Clapton and Southport Schools, Sheffield and Taunton Colleges, the Leys School, Cambridge, and any similar Institution.

(x.) Supervision of Connexional Literature.

(xii.) Official Appointments, Deputations, and Delegations.
(xiii.) Conduct of Public Worship, in accordance with the rules and usages of the Connexion.
(xiv.) Time and Place of holding the next Conference, and the Order of its Business.
(xv.) And all Ministerial and Pastoral subjects of like nature with any of those specified in this Resolution, or affecting the Ministerial or Pastoral Supervision of the Connexion.

N.B.—It is understood that the Management of the Book-Room remains as at present.

V. The following subjects shall come within the province of the Conference when consisting of Ministers and Lay Representatives, viz:—The business now classed in the printed Minutes of the Conference, under the several heads of—

(i.) Committees of Privileges and Exigency.
(ii.) Missions (Foreign).
(iii.) Schools: Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove, Clapton, Southport.
(iv.) Chapel Affairs: (a) General Fund; (b) South Wales District Chapel-Fund; (c) North Wales District Chapel-Fund; (d) The Relief and Extension Fund for Methodism in Scotland; and (e) The Metropolitan Chapel-Building Fund.
(v.) The Children's Fund.
(vi.) The Home-Mission and Contingent Fund: (a) General Committee; (b) Army and Navy Committee; (c) Thames Mission; (d) Metropolitan Methodist Lay Mission; (e) Manchester and Salford, and any similar Mission.
(vii.) The Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund.
(viii.) The Wesleyan Theological Institution.
(ix.) Education: The (a) General Committee; (b) Connexional Sunday-School Union; (c) Children's Home.
(x.) Higher Education.

(xi.) Religious Observance of the Lord's Day.

(xii.) Extension of Methodism in Great Britain.

(xiii.) Temperance.

And also all questions relating to—(xiv.) District Sustentation Funds.

(xv.) Proposed alterations and Divisions of Circuits or Districts against which there is any Appeal.

N.B.—The Conference when consisting of Ministers only shall have power to consider and decide all questions as to alterations and divisions of Circuits or Districts on which the Quarterly Meetings and District Committees shall be agreed, and against which there is no Appeal; and also all propositions for the calling out of additional Ministers which shall have received the sanction of the Home-Mission Committee.

(xvi.) And all financial and general subjects of like nature, with any of those specified in this Resolution, or affecting the financial or general affairs of the Connexion.

But all matters connected with, or arising out of, the consideration or decision of the subjects specified in this Resolution, which in the foregoing Resolution are stated to be within the province of the Conference when consisting of Ministers only, shall be considered and decided accordingly.

VI. The consideration and determination of all questions raised by any Resolutions of District Committees, or by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings, or otherwise, shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject-matter thereof respectively. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the province to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide.

VII. No new law on any subject within the province of the Conference when composed of Ministers only, proposed during any Conference, shall come into force until it shall have been submitted to the District Committees, when Ministers only are present, and until their reports, if any, shall have been considered, and such law shall have been confirmed by the next Conference when so composed; and no new law on any subject within the province of the Conference when composed both of Ministers and Lay Representatives, proposed during any Conference, shall come into force until it shall have been submitted to the District Committees, when Laymen are present, and until their reports, if any, shall have been considered, and such law shall have been confirmed by the next Conference when so composed.

N.B.—Nothing in this Resolution shall be so construed as to interfere with the rights of the Circuit Quarterly Meetings as set forth in the Minutes of Conference, 1797, vol. i. New Edition, p. 393, and 1852, vol. xii., p. 117.

ORDER AND FORM OF BUSINESS.

APPENDIX X.

ELECTION OF LAY REPRESENTATIVES BY THE CONFERENCE.

The Conference of 1879 adopted the following recommendations of a Committee which it had appointed to consider the best method of electing Lay Representatives by the Conference:—

1. That means be adopted for securing that the voting list of persons nominated shall contain only the names of persons whose nomination is supported by six members of the Conference.

2. That no person shall be regarded as elected for whom a clear majority of the votes cast is not recorded.

With a view to the carrying out of these two proposals the Committee recommend that the following course be adopted:—

(i.) That a Committee of six scrutineers be appointed.

(ii.) That for the purposes of the nomination a paper shall be prepared and distributed which will provide for the following entries to be made in it without declaring aloud in the Conference the names of the persons nominated:—

(a) The name of the person nominated.

(b) The name of the person nominating.

(c) The names of six persons who support the nomination.

[N.B.—The names of these supporters are to be obtained by the persons nominating.]

(iii.) That these nomination papers be collected by the scrutineers; and that from papers which have been duly filled up, they shall prepare a voting-sheet to be printed after the manuscript has been read in the Conference.

(iv.) That the manuscript shall supply the names of both the persons nominated and persons nominating them, but not the names of the persons supporting the several nominations.

(v.) That the printed voting-papers shall contain only the names of the persons nominated.

(vi.) That in counting votes the scrutineers shall reject every voting-paper upon which more than six names are marked for election.

(vii.) That, having counted the votes, the scrutineers shall report to the Conference the names of persons for whom a clear majority of the votes cast has been recorded, and that such persons be thereupon declared to have been duly elected.

(viii.) That in the event of less than six persons being elected by this first voting, a second vote shall be taken in the following manner: Double the number, minus one, of the names necessary to complete the election of six persons shall in that event be submitted to the Conference by the scrutineers (or if only one remains to be elected two names), the said names being those of the persons who have obtained in the first voting the highest number of votes, but less than half the total number of votes cast.

(ix.) That these names shall be submitted to the Conference on a second voting-paper, and from among them the number neces ary to complete the election of six persons shall be chosen.

APPENDIX XI.

NOMINATION OF MIXED COMMITTEES.

The Conference receives the Report of the Committee appointed in 1878, and re-appointed (subject to some modifications) in 1879 and 1880, 'to consider the constitution of the Connexional Mixed Committees and the best method of appointing the members thereof,' and adopts the following Resolutions in order that the satisfactoriness or otherwise of the Scheme, submitted by the Committee, may in its details be ascertained by actual working.

I.

In the judgment of the Conference it is neither desirable nor practicable to conform all Committees of Departments to one model, either with respect to considerations governing the appointment of individual members, or with respect to the number of members of which each Committee should consist.

As to the latter point the Conference is of opinion:—That the number of members constituting Departmental Committees may vary with the nature and range of the work entrusted to each Committee; but that, while the number of persons appointed to serve on any Departmental Committee should, on the one hand, be adequate for the efficient discharge of all its duties and for securing the confidence of the Connexion in its administration, it should not, on the other hand, be larger than may be necessary for these purposes.

II.

The Conference adopts the following Resolutions respecting Mixed Committees of Connexional Departments.

1. That Members of the Society, whether they are Members of the Conference in its Representative Session or not, shall be eligible for appointment upon Departmental Committees.

2. That the President of the Conference, the ex-President, and the Secretary of the Conference, shall be ex-officio Members of every Committee of a Connexional Department.

3. That although exceptions may be occasionally admitted, every Committee of a Connexional Department shall ordinarily consist of an equal number of Ministers (in addition to the President) and of Laymen.

4. That no Minister who is not an Officer of a Departmental Committee, shall remain upon that Committee as a Member more than six consecutive years, unless he shall have been nominated for a further appointment thereon by the vote of four-fifths of the Members of the Committee present.

5. That the Standing Order (No. 16) of the Conference (Minutes 1880, p. 264) be amended so as to read as follows:—That a certain number of Lay Gentlemen, being at least one-sixth of the number of Lay Members of each Departmental Committee, shall annually retire from each Committee by rotation, the same persons being ineligible for immediate re-appointment, except in special cases, and after nomination for such re-appointment by the vote of four-fifths of the Members of the Committee present.

III.

The Conference adopts the following REGULATIONS for the appointment of MIXED COMMITTEES OF CONNEXIONAL DEPARTMENTS:—

1. The Conference shall annually appoint the Members of each Mixed Committee of a Connexional Department (not being hereinafter described as ex-officio Members) after receiving the Report of a Nomination Committee, which shall be appointed and shall act in the manner hereinafter provided.

The General Treasurers of the several Funds, and the Local Treasurers of Executive Committees, shall be appointed by the Conference after receiving the Nominations of the Committees of the several Funds.

2. The Nomination Committee shall consist of:—

(a) The eighteen Laymen appointed by the previous Conference in its Representative Session to be Members of the Conference then next ensuing.

(b) Eighteen Ministers to be appointed annually by the Conference in its pastoral Session.

(c) Two Secretaries (one Minister and one Layman), who shall be annually appointed by the Conference to act upon the Nomination Committee of the Conference ensuing.

3. It shall be the duty of the Secretaries:—(a) to convene the meeting of the Nomination Committee, and to summon to it persons entitled to attend its meeting: (b) to receive from the Committee of each Connexional Department a list of persons, ex-officio and otherwise, who are proposed for appointment upon it by the Conference: (c) to present the lists so received to the Nomination Committee: (d) to keep the record of the proceedings of the Committee, and (e) to report to the Conference on its behalf.

4. The Nomination Committee shall meet on the Saturday previous to the Meeting of the Representative Conference. At that Meeting the President of the Conference shall preside, or, in his absence, some ex-President or other Minister whom he shall depute; and the Secretary or some other deputed representative of each Connexional Department shall attend to give such information as may be necessary.

5. The Nomination Committee shall consider the lists sent forward by the several Committees of Connexional Departments; it shall take care that the constitution of each Committee nominated is in accordance with the regulations of the Conference; it shall have power to amend the lists sent forward, as it may deem desirable, and to make any changes in reference to Ministers recommended for nomination which the action of the Ministerial Conference may have rendered necessary, but only in cases of necessity shall it make any change in reference to either the Ministerial or Lay nominees of a District Committee, and every such change shall be reported to the Conference.

6. The Conference appoints the Rev. Charles H. Kelly and Mr. William Vanner as Secretaries of the Nomination Committee for the Conference of 1883.

IV.

The Conference adopts the following REGULATIONS for the CONSTITUTION OF COMMITTEES OF CONNEXIONAL DEPARTMENTS:—

HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND.

The General Committee shall consist of—

i. Ex-officio Members,—namely, the President and the Secretary of the Conference: the ex-President; the Treasurers and the Secretaries of the Fund; the Treasurers and the Secretary of the Fund for the Extension of Methodism in Great Britain; the Secretaries of the Foreign Missionary Society:

ii. Twelve Ministers and fifteen Laymen residing in the London Districts, to be recommended for nomination to the Conference by the General Committee.

iii. (1) The Chairman of each District in Great Britain:

(2) One Layman from each District in Great Britain, to be nominated by the District Committee at its Meeting in May; with,—

(3) Eight Ministers and eight Laymen residing in other than the London Districts, to be recommended for nomination to the Conference by the General Committee.

The names of the Laymen nominated by the District Committee shall be sent to the Secretaries of the General Committee, who shall report them at its Meeting next before the Conference, and at that Meeting the twelve Ministers and fifteen Laymen named in section ii. above, and the eight Ministers and eight Laymen named in section iii. (3) above, to be recommended for nomination, shall be chosen.

ARMY AND NAVY SUB-COMMITTEE.—This Sub-Committee shall consist of (a) the Treasurers and the Secretaries of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, the Treasurers and Secretaries of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society; the Minister appointed to be Assistant-Secretary of the Army and Navy Sub-Committee; (b) eight Ministers and eight Laymen resident in the London Districts; and (c) six Ministers and six Laymen resident in Provincial Districts. N.B.—The Ministers and Laymen named in (b) and (c) shall be recommended for nomination to the Conference in equal proportions by the Home-Mission and the Foreign Mission Committees respectively.

THE SEAMEN'S MISSION SUB-COMMITTEE.—The Sub-Committee shall consist of the officers of the Home Mission Fund; the Superintendent of the Mission; the Superintendent of the London (St. George's) Circuit; the Circuit Stewards of the London (St. George's) Circuit; four Laymen, to be nominated by the Sub-Committee; and ten other persons to be elected by the Home Mission Committee.

As early as possible after the meeting of the General Committee next before the Conference, and not later than ten days before the opening of the next Representative session of the Conference, the Secretaries of the Committee shall forward to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee a list of all persons (together with a list of ex-officio members), who are recommended for nomination to the Conference for the General Committee, the Army and Navy Sub-Committee, and the Seamen's Mission Sub-Committee respectively.

CHAPEL AFFAIRS.

The CHAPEL COMMITTEE shall consist of—

i. Ex-officio Members,—namely, the President and the Secretary of the Conference; the ex-President; the Treasurers of the Fund; the Secretaries of the Committee; the Chairman of the Manchester District; the Secretary and Lay Treasurers of the Metropolitan Chapel Building Committee; and the Secretary of the Fund for the Extension of Methodism in Great Britain: with,—

ii. Twenty three Ministers and twenty-seven Laymen, who shall be recommended by the Chapel Committee for nomination to the Conference, chiefly from among members resident in the Manchester, Bolton, and adjacent Districts.

A list of the Ministers and Laymen recommended by the Chapel Committee for nomination to the Conference (together with a list of ex-officio members) shall be sent by the Secretaries of the Chapel Committee to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, not later than ten days before the opening of the next Representative session of the Conference.

THE SOUTH WALES AND NORTH WALES CHAPEL FUND COMMITTEES shall each consist of eight Ministers and eight Laymen, to be recommended for nomination to the Conference by the South Wales and the North Wales District Committees respectively, in May of each year; and the names of Ministers and Laymen so nominated shall be sent by the Secretaries of the two District Committees to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, not later than ten days before the opening of the next Representative Session of the Conference.

RELIEF AND EXTENSION FUND FOR METHODISM IN SCOTLAND.—The Committee shall consist of the Superintendent Ministers in the Edinburgh and Aberdeen District, of one Layman from each Circuit, to be recommended for nomination to the Conference by the Committee of the Edinburgh and Aberdeen District, at its meeting in May of each year, and of such other gentleman or gentlemen from any Circuit in Scotland as the District Committee may appoint. The names of the Laymen nominated shall be sent, by the Secretary of the District Committee, to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, after the May District Meeting, and not later than ten days before the opening of the Representative Session of the Conference. The General Treasurers and Secretaries of the Fund shall be appointed by the General Committee from amongst the members of that Committee at their meeting, to be held annually in connection with the Financial District Meeting of the Edinburgh and Aberdeen District.

METROPOLITAN CHAPEL BUILDING FUND.

The COMMITTEE shall consist of—

i. Ex-officio Members,—namely, the President and the Secretary of the Conference; the ex-President; the Treasurers of the Fund; the Secretary; two or more Assistant Secretaries, including a Minister resident in each of the London Districts; the Secretaries of the Chapel Committee; the Secretaries of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund; the Chairman of each of the London Districts; and the Superintendent Ministers of all Circuits within the Metropolitan Postal Districts: with,—

ii. Sixteen Ministers other than the above, and a number of Laymen equal to the whole number of Ministers upon the Committee, in addition to the President of the Conference. The Ministers and Laymen named in this group (ii.) shall be recommended by the General Committee for nomination to the Conference from among Ministers and Laymen resident in Circuits included within the Metropolitan Postal Districts; and a list of their names shall be sent to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee (together with a list of ex-officio members), not later than ten days before the opening of the next Representative Session of the Conference.

EXTENSION OF METHODISM IN GREAT BRITAIN.

The COMMITTEE shall consist of—

i. Ex-officio Members,—namely, the President and the Secretary of the Conference; the ex-President; the Treasurers and Secretary of the Fund; the Treasurers and Secretaries of the Chapel Fund; the Treasurers and Secretaries of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund:

ii. One Minister and one Layman from each District in England to be nominated by each District Committee at its Meeting in May: with,—

iii. Fifteen Ministers and fifteen Laymen (ten of each of whom shall be resident in or near London) to be recommended for nomination by the Committee at its Meeting next before Conference in each year.

The names of the nominees of the District Committees shall be sent to the Secretary of the Extension Fund Committee immediately after the May Meeting. He shall report them to the Committee at its Meeting next before the Conference, when the fifteen Ministers and fifteen Laymen named in iii. above shall be recommended for nomination. As soon as possible after that Meeting, and not later than ten days before the opening of the next Representative Session of the Conference, the Secretary of the Committee shall forward to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee a complete list of the names of persons (together with a list of ex-officio members) recommended for nomination for appointment upon the Extension Fund Committee for the year ensuing.

WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION.

The GENERAL COMMITTEE shall consist of—

i. Ex-officio Members,—namely, the President and the Secretary of the Conference; the ex-President; the General Treasurers; the General Secretary; the Treasurers and Local Secretaries of the several Branches; the House Governors, and the Tutors of the several Branches:

ii. Twenty-four Ministers and thirty-four Laymen, residing in Districts in or near to which the several Branches of the Institution are situated, who shall be recommended by the General Committee for nomination to the Conference: with,—

iii. Six Ministers and eight Laymen, who shall be recommended by the Missionary Committee from amongst its members for nomination to the Conference.

The EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES for the DIDSBURY, HEADINGLEY, and BIRMINGHAM BRANCHES respectively shall act as Sub-Committees of the General Committee, shall be annually appointed by the Conference, and shall be constituted as follows:—

(1) The President and the Secretary of the Conference; the General Treasurers and the General Secretary; the House Governor and Tutors; the Treasurers; the Secretary of the Branch:

(2) Six Ministers and eight Laymen, who shall be appointed from among members of the General Committee included in groups i. and ii. above: and

(3) An additional and equal number of Ministers and Laymen, not exceeding twenty-four of each.

Each of the three Executive Committees above-named shall forward to the General Committee for consideration at its Meeting next before each Conference, a List showing,—

(a) The names of the Ministers and Laymen whom it suggests that the General Committee should recommend for nomination to the Conference as members of that Executive Committee; and

(b) The names of the persons whom it suggests that the General Committee should nominate to the Conference for appointment to the offices of Treasurers and Secretary of the Branch.

The names of the Members of EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES of the three Branches above-mentioned shall be printed in the Minutes of Conference for the year.

The General Committee, after having received and considered at its Meeting next before the Conference in each year the list of names sent forward to it from the Executive Committees of Didsbury, Headingley, and Birmingham, shall prepare and forward to the Nomination Committee a complete Nomination Scheme, showing (together with a list of ex-officio members) the names of Ministers and Laymen recommended for appointment upon the General Committee and upon the Executive Committees of the three Branches named above of the Institution, and specifying the Minister proposed for the office of Local Secretary for each of the four Branches.

The above-mentioned Nomination Scheme shall be sent in each year to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, as early as possible after it has been adopted by the General Committee, and in no case later than ten days before the opening of the next Representative Session of the Conference.

The Conference resolves to amend the Resolution of the Conference, 1879, Minutes, p. 249 (iii.), in accordance with the foregoing proposals respecting Local Executive Committees.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE RICHMOND BRANCH.—The Missionary Committee, together with the Junior Classical Tutor of the Branch, shall be the Executive Committee.

THE SCHOOLS' FUND.

The GENERAL COMMITTEE shall consist of—

i. The Governing Body of the Kingswood and Woodhouse Grove School, and the Governing Body of the Schools for Girls: with,—

ii. Seven Ministers and seven Laymen, residing in Districts in or near to which the ordinary place or places of meeting for the General Committee may be situated, who shall be recommended by the General Committee for nomination to the Conference.

THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE KINGSWOOD AND WOODHOUSE GROVE SCHOOL shall consist of—

i. The following ex-officio Members,—the President and the Secretary of the Conference; the ex-President; the General Treasurers and Secretaries of the Schools' Fund; the General Treasurers and Secretaries of the Children's Fund; the Treasurer and Secretaries of the Governing Body; the Chairmen of the Bristol, Bath, Halifax and Bradford, and Leeds Districts; and the Governors and Head-Master of the School: also, ii. Twelve Ministers and twelve Laymen to be elected in accordance with the Scheme of Management adopted by the Conference in 1875.

THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE GIRLS' SCHOOLS shall consist of—

i. The following ex-officio Members,—the President and the Secretary of the Conference; the ex-President; the General Treasurers and Secretaries of the Schools Fund; the General Treasurers and Secretaries of the Children's Fund; the Chairmen of the Second London and Liverpool Districts; the Local Treasurers and Secretaries, and the Convener: also

ii. Ten Ministers and ten Laymen, being the Ministers and Laymen who, with the Local Treasurers and Secretaries, are appointed by the Conference to act upon the two Executive Committees under-named.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES FOR THE GIRLS' SCHOOLS, as appointed annually by the Conference, shall each be constituted as follows:—

(1) Two Treasurers (a Minister and a Layman), one Local Secretary (a Minister):

(2) Five Ministers and five Laymen who shall be Members of the Governing Body: and

(3) The Treasurers and Secretary of the other Executive Committee.

Each Executive Committee shall send forward to the General Committee, for consideration at its Meeting next before each Conference, the names of persons whom it recommends for appointment by the Conference to be Members of that Executive Committee for the year ensuing, the name of the Minister proposed as the Local Secretary being specified.

The names of all Members of each Executive Committee appointed by the Conference shall be printed in the Minutes of Conference for the year.

Each Executive Committee appointed by the Conference shall have power to add to itself—subject to the approval of the General Committee—any Ministers, or other persons who are Members of Society.

The General Committee, after having received and considered at its Meeting next before the Conference in each year the list of names sent forward to it from the Governing Body of the Boys' School, and from the Executive Committees of the Girls' Schools, shall prepare and forward to the Nomination Committee a complete Nomination Scheme, showing (together with lists of ex-officio Members) the names of persons whom it recommends for Nomination to the Conference—(a) upon the General Committee, (b) upon the Governing Body of the Kingswood and Woodhouse Grove School, (c) upon the Governing Body of the School for Girls, and (d) upon the Executive Committee of each School for Girls.

The above-mentioned Nomination Scheme shall be sent in each year to the Secretary of the Nomination Committee as early as possible after it has been adopted by the General Committee, and in no case later than ten days before the opening of the next Representative Session of the Conference.

THE CHILDREN'S FUND.

The Administration of the CHILDREN'S FUND shall be entrusted to the Committee which has charge of the Schools Fund.

EDUCATION.

The GENERAL COMMITTEE shall consist of—

i. Ex-officio Members,—namely, the President and the Secretary of the Conference; the ex-President; the Treasurers; the Secretary of the Committee; the Principals of the Westminster and Southlands Training Colleges; the Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-School Union; the Principal of the Children's Home; the Connexional Editor; and the Book-Steward:

ii. Twenty-four Ministers and thirty Laymen residing in the London Districts: with,—

iii. One Minister and one Layman from each District in Great Britain to be nominated by each District Committee at its Meeting in May. (In the choice of these nominees it is desirable that regard should be had to the relations of the Committee both to Day-school and Sunday-school work.)

The names of the nominees of the District Committees shall be sent to the Secretary of the Education Committee immediately after the May District Meeting. He shall report them to the Education Committee at its Meeting next before the Conference, when the twenty-four Ministers and thirty Laymen named in section ii. above shall be recommended for nomination. As soon as possible after the Meeting, and not later than ten days before the opening of the next Representative Session of the Conference, the Secretary of the Committee shall forward to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee a complete list of the persons who are recommended for nomination to the Conference (together with a list of ex-officio Members), for appointment upon the Education Committee for the ensuing year.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

The GENERAL COMMITTEE shall consist of—

i. Ex-officio Members,—namely, the President and the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Principal; the General Treasurers; the Treasurers of the Local Branches:

ii. Ministers and Laymen who shall be Members of the Executive Committee of one of the Branches of the Institution: with,—

iii. Seven Ministers and seven Laymen not appointed by the Conference upon any of the Executive Committees.

The Ministers and Laymen mentioned in groups ii. and iii. shall be recommended for nomination to the Conference by the General Committee, and one moiety of the number of Ministerial and Lay Members of the General Committee shall be nominated and appointed from among the members of the Education Committee, resident in or near London.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES FOR THE SEVERAL BRANCHES, as appointed annually by the Conference, shall each consist of one or more Lay Treasurers, the Principal, two Ministers and two Laymen, who shall be members of the General Committee, together with five Ministers and five Laymen, who need not be Members of the General Committee.

Each of these Executive Committees shall forward to the General Committee for consideration at its Meeting next before each Conference, the names of Ministers and Laymen whom it suggests that the General Committee should recommend for nomination to the Conference, as members of that Executive Committee.

The names of the Members of these Executive Committees, who are appointed by the Conference, shall be printed in the Minutes of Conference for the year; and each Executive Committee so appointed shall have power to add to itself, subject to the approval of the General Committee, Ministers or other persons, not exceeding five in number.

The General Committee, after having received and considered at its Meeting next before the Conference in each year, the lists of names sent forward to it from the Executive Committees of the several Branches, shall prepare and forward to the Nomination Committee a complete Nomination Scheme, showing the names of Ministers and Laymen whom it recommends for nomination to the Conference for appointment, either upon the General Committee, or upon the four Executive Committees named.

The above-mentioned Nomination Scheme shall be sent in each year to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, as early as possible after it has been adopted by the General Committee, and in no case later than ten days before the next Representative Session of the Conference.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The GENERAL COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT shall consist of—

i. Ex-officio Members,—namely, the President and the Secretary of the Conference; the ex-President; the General

Treasurers; the General Secretaries; the Honorary Secretary (if any); the Secretaries of the Home-Mission Committee; the General Treasurers and the General Secretary of the Theological Institution; the Governor, Theological Tutor, Senior Classical Tutor, and Secretary, of the Richmond Branch of the Institution.

(ii.) Sixteen Ministers and Sixteen Laymen to be chosen for nomination and appointment from not fewer than twelve Provincial Districts: with,— (iii.) Sixteen Ministers and twenty Laymen, resident in the London Districts.

N.B.—The Treasurer of any District Auxiliary Society in Great Britain, and the Chairman of any District, who may be in London at the time of holding any Meeting of the General Committee, shall be entitled to sit and vote with the Committee; and the Treasurer, or Treasurers, of the London Districts Auxiliary Societies shall be regularly summoned to the Committee.

The Ministers and Laymen referred to in groups ii. and iii., above, shall be recommended for nomination to the Conference by the General Committee at its Meeting next before the Conference in each year; and a list of the Ministers and Laymen so recommended shall be sent to the Secretary of the Nomination Committee in each year as early as possible after it has been adopted, and in no case later than ten days before the next Representative Session of the Conference.

The Conference resolves—

(1) To amend Clause X. of the 'Laws and Regulations of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society,' so as to bring it into accord with the foregoing proposals, and to rescind the following words at the end of the same Clause X., namely:—'Those of the Methodist Ministers who are annual subscribers to the Missions of one Guinea, and one Treasurer, Secretary, or other principal member from every District Auxiliary Society, who may be in London occasionally, shall be entitled to meet and vote with the Committee.'

(2) To amend Clause XI. of the 'Laws and Regulations,' so as to bring it into accord with the foregoing proposals, and with the general Regulation respecting the retirement of Ministers, and the retirement of Laymen by rotation from Connexional Committees, now submitted to the Conference.

V.

The Conference adopts the following REGULATIONS respecting the constitution and appointment of 'THE COMMITTEE OF PRIVILEGES AND THE COMMITTEE OF EXIGENCY,' THE COMMITTEE OF THE AUXILIARY FUND, THE COMMITTEE FOR PROMOTING THE RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY, AND THE TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE, namely:—

(i.) That Members of Society, whether they are Members of the Conference in its Representative Session or not, shall be eligible for appointment upon the Committees named above.

(ii.) That the President and the Secretary of the Conference and the ex-President, shall be ex-officio Members of the Committees named above.

(iii.) That each of the Committees named above shall ordinarily consist of an equal number of Ministers (in addition to the President) and of Laymen.

(iv.) That no Minister who is not an ex-officio Member of the Committee of the Auxiliary Fund, or of the Committee for Promoting the Religious Observance of the Lord's Day, or of the Temperance Committee, shall remain upon either Committee as a Member during more than six consecutive years, unless he shall have been nominated for further appointment thereon by the vote of four-fifths of the Members of the Committee present.

(v.) That the Standing Order (No. 16) of the Conference (Minutes, 1880, p. 264), as amended in accordance with a preceding Resolution, shall be so further amended as that members of the Committee named in the foregoing Regulation (iv.) shall be included in its provisions.

(vi.) That the Conference shall annually appoint the Members

(not being ex officio Members) of the Committees named above after receiving the Report of the Nomination Committee.

The Treasurers shall be appointed by the Conference after receiving the Nominations of the respective Committees.

'THE COMMITTEE OF PRIVILEGES;' AND 'THE COMMITTEE OF EXIGENCY.'

The Conference resolves that in future Q. XX. in the Minutes of Conference and the answer thereto, shall be worded as follows:—

Q. XX.—What are the COMMITTEES FOR GUARDING OUR PRIVILEGES during the ensuing year?

A. (i.) The ORDINARY COMMITTEE; which shall have full power to take action in all cases affecting our Connexional interests, unless in its judgment, or in the judgment of the President of the Conference, it is deemed expedient to refer any case to the Extraordinary Committee named below. The Ordinary Committee shall meet whenever it is convened either by direction of the President of the Conference or by its Secretaries:

(ii.) The EXTRAORDINARY COMMITTEE; which shall have full power to take action in all cases affecting our Connexional interests, and shall meet whenever the Ordinary Committee or the President of the Conference shall convene it.

The ORDINARY COMMITTEE shall consist of—

(i.) Ex officio Members: namely, the President and Secretary of the Conference, the ex-President, the Connexional Editor, the Book-Steward, two of the General Secretaries of the Missionary Society, to be recommended for nomination to the Conference by the Missionary Committee, the Secretary of the Education Committee, the Senior Secretary of the Chapel Committee, the Secretary of the Metropolitan Chapel Building Committee, the General Secretary of the Home-Mission Fund Committee, the Senior Secretary of the Lord's Day Committee, the Secretary of the Fund for the Extension of Methodism in Great Britain, the Senior Secretary of the Temperance Committee, the Lay General Treasurer of the Missionary Society, one of the Lay Treasurers of the Education Fund to be recommended for nomination to the Conference by the Education Committee, the Senior Lay Treasurer of the Chapel Committee, the Lay Treasurer of the Home-Mission Fund, and the Lay Treasurer of the Fund for the Extension of Methodism in Great Britain:

(ii.) So many Ministers (in addition to the President) as will make the total number of Ministerial Members of the Committee to be twenty-five. The Nomination Committee shall annually nominate these additional Ministers to the Conference for appointment, of whom not fewer than six shall be resident in or near London: and,—

(iii.) So many Laymen as will make the total number of Lay Members of the Committee to be twenty-five. The Nomination Committee shall annually nominate the additional Lay Members to the Conference for appointment, of whom not fewer than twelve shall be resident in or near London.

Not later than ten days before the opening of the Session of the Representative Conference in each year, the Secretaries of the Missionary Committee shall forward to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee the names of the General Secretaries recommended for nomination to the Conference as ex-officio Members of this Committee, and the Secretary of the Education Committee shall also forward in like manner the name of the Lay Treasurer of the Education Fund nominated for appointment as an ex-officio member.

N.B.—The following Ministers and Laymen shall act as a Sub-Committee of the Ordinary Committee, and shall meet once a quarter, or oftener if necessary, in order to consider any cases of alleged grievance or other matters of exigency which may arise. This Sub-Committee shall be convened quarterly, or oftener, by the Secretaries of the Ordinary Committee. The President of the Conference shall have power to direct that it be convened at any time. It shall consist of the President and Secretary of the Conference, the ex-President, three Lay Members of the Ordinary Committee, to be appointed by the Conference on receiving the recommendation of the Nomination Committee, and the Secretaries of the Ordinary Committee.

Superintendent Ministers are directed to report to the Secretaries all cases of alleged grievance within their Circuits so soon as such cases are alleged to have arisen.

The EXTRAORDINARY COMMITTEE shall consist of—

(i.) All the Members of the Ordinary Committee:

(ii.) The Chairmen of Districts:

(iii.) Thirty-four Laymen: to be nominated for appointment to the Conference by the Nomination Committee from the Lay Representatives to the Conference elected by the several District Committees, one Layman being nominated from among the Representatives of each District: and,— (iv.) The Lay General Treasurers of Connexional Funds who are not otherwise appointed to be Members of this Committee.

THE WORN-OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND.

The Committee of this Fund shall consist of—

(i.) Ex-officio Members,—the President and the Secretary of the Conference, the ex-President, the Treasurers and Secretary of the Fund:

(ii.) Twenty-two Ministers, of whom fifteen shall be annually chosen for nomination to the Conference by the Nomination Committee from among Chairmen of Districts, and seven shall be recommended for nomination to the Conference by the Committee of the Fund; and,—

(iii.) Twenty-five Laymen; of whom eighteen shall be annually chosen for nomination to the Conference by the Nomination Committee from among the Lay Representatives elected by the several District Committees, and seven shall be recommended for nomination to the Conference by the Committee of the Fund.

Not later than ten days before the opening of the Session of the Representative Conference in each year, the Secretary of the Fund shall forward to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee the names of the seven Ministers and the seven Laymen whom the Committee of the Auxiliary Fund recommend for nomination to the Conference as Members of the Committee.

RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

The Committee shall consist of—

(i.) Ex-officio Members,—namely, the President and the Secretary of the Conference, the ex-President, one of the Secretaries of the Temperance Committee, two Ministerial Secretaries:

(ii.) Twenty-one Ministers, of whom not fewer than twelve shall be resident in or near London: and,—

(iii.) Twenty-five Laymen, of whom not fewer than twelve shall be resident in or near London.

The twenty-one Ministers and the twenty-five Laymen above-named, shall be recommended for nomination to the Conference by the Lord's Day Committee, and the Secretaries of that Committee shall forward the names of the said Ministers and Laymen to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, not later than ten days before the opening of the Session of the Representative Conference in each year.

TEMPERANCE.

The Committee shall consist of,—

i. Ex-officio Members,—namely, the President and the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Secretaries and Lay Treasurer of the Committee; the Book-Steward; the Connexional Editor; the Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-School Union; one of the Secretaries of the Lord's Day Observance Committee; and,—

ii. Sixteen Ministers and twenty Laymen to be recommended for nomination to the Conference by the Temperance Committee, not fewer than four of the said Ministers and six of the said Laymen being resident in or near London. In the selection and appointment of the Ministers and Laymen named in this Clause (ii), due regard shall be had to the regulation 1, p. 210, Minutes of Conference, 1875; with a view to the constitution of the Committee in accordance with that regulation.

Not later than ten days before the opening of the Representative Session of Conference in each year, the Secretaries of the Temperance Committee shall forward to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee the names of the sixteen Ministers and twenty Laymen who are recommended by the Committee for Nomination to the Conference.

APPENDIX XII.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE WESLEYAN-METHODIST THANKSGIVING FUND,

PRESENTED TO THE CONFERENCE, 1882.

THE last Conference—as the terms of its resolution (Min. Conf., 1881, p. 266, II.) show—expected that the Report of the Fund would be presented to this Conference (1882) for its approval. To secure this, the Executive Committee have put forth every practicable endeavour, and until the spring of this year they cherished the hope that the expectation of the Conference would be fulfilled. But information which they then sought and obtained from the several parts of the Connexion, with a view to its use in the May District Meetings, compelled them to forego the hope, and to relinquish any attempt so generally to close the Fund, as to make it practicable to commence 'the preparation of the Balance Sheet immediately after June 30th, 1882.'

The Executive Committee believe that the Conference will, under the circumstances, approve the course they have adopted; although they are sure that the Conference will, with themselves, regret that it should have been found necessary or expedient to defer the closing of the Fund.

The Executive Committee ascertained, on inquiry, that not only had a large number of Circuits been unable to obtain the payment of all outstanding subscriptions by December 31st, 1881, but that, some months later, many subscriptions promised in these Circuits remained unpaid. Further, the Committee were informed that, while it was probable that many of the subscriptions referred to would be paid during the present year, if opportunity were afforded, the accounts of the Circuits in question could only be closed forthwith on condition of the forfeiture of the subscriptions named, so that the Circuit Lists would show a total amount of contributions to the Fund considerably smaller than had been expected.

The Committee deemed it better, in order to meet the cases named, to ask the Conference to sanction the postponement of the closure of the Fund to a rather later period than that contemplated. Their decision had also been rendered almost necessary by the fact, that the General Secretary of the Fund —the Rev. Dr. Stephenson—would be absent from the country at, before, and after the Conference, for the benefit of his health. That it will be found to be firmly re-established on his return to this country, the Committee very earnestly hope and pray.

The Executive Committee are, however, of opinion that serious loss to the Fund, besides injury to other interests of Methodism, will ensue if the accounts of the Fund are not soon closed. They regard the remarkable success with which the movement has hitherto been crowned as demanding profound gratitude to Almighty God, and as encouraging the expectation that, when the Report of the Fund is presented, it will show that the objects for which the Fund was established have been achieved. To this end, the Committee suggest to the Conference, that it will do well to urge that every effort be made in Circuits which have not yet closed the accounts of the Fund, to obtain the payment of outstanding promised subscriptions as early as practicable; and to resolve that the Fund shall be closed on December 31st, 1882; that the printing of Circuit Lists for the Report shall be proceeded with as soon as circumstances permit; and that the Report of the Fund shall be presented to the ensuing Conference.

The Executive Committee have to report to the Conference:—

1. That up to July 12th, 1882, 381 Circuits in Great Britain had closed their accounts; and that from 206 of these Circuits Revised Lists of subscribers had been received. From most of the remaining Circuits balances are still expected. With two exceptions the accounts of the Mission Districts are closed.
2. That the total amount paid to the General Treasurers of this Fund, up to July 12th, 1882, was £281,437 14*s.* 6*d.*; but this sum does not represent the amount actually contributed up to that time, since the local expenses of the several Circuits and Districts have been deducted by the Circuit and District Treasurers before making their remittances.
3. That several additional contributions have been promised and paid since the last Conference. It is impossible, however, to ascertain the whole amount which will be realized, until all the Circuit accounts are closed.
4. That since the last Conference the Executive Committee have paid the Grant of £8,000 for the benefit of necessitous Local Preachers to the Trustees appointed by the Conference; and the other Grants specified in the Minutes of the Conference of 1879, p. 272; viz., £5,000 for the Extension of Lay Agency under the direction of the Home-Mission Committee; £2,000 to the Connexional Temperance Committee; and £1,000 to the Wesleyan Association for abolishing the Regulation of Vice by the State.
5. That towards the Grants specified in the Minutes of the Conference of 1880, p. 246, the Committee have paid £17,630 18*s.* to the Treasurers of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society; £7,350 to the Theological Institution Fund; and £4,900 to the Schools' Fund. They hope to be able to make such further payments to these Funds as will amount to four-fifths of the sum granted in each case; a sufficient sum to cover the printing of the Report and other expenses being reserved.

6. That payments have also been made towards the new Welsh Chapel in London, according to the Resolution of the Conference of 1880, pp. 246, 247; but these payments cannot be completed until the North and South Wales Districts have closed their accounts; and that £300 towards building a Manse at Unst in Zetland has been paid, being the sum given by Peter F. Wood, Esq., for that purpose, and accepted by the Conference as a contribution to the Thanksgiving Fund. The whole amount already paid to the Treasurers of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society, on account of contributions received from Foreign Districts, is £2,682 4*s.* 3*d.*

WORN-OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND.

RESOLUTIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMITTEE.

1. That this Committee desires to place on record its sense of the great loss it has sustained in the removal by death of its late Treasurer, the Rev. Gervase Smith, D.D. Dr. Smith's various and great gifts, his familiarity with all branches of Connexional business, his faithfulness in the discharge of duty, and the deep interest which, as a Member of this Committee, he had for many years taken in the affairs of this Fund, singularly qualified him for the office of Treasurer; and on his appointment this Committee hoped that he might long be spared to render it valuable service. While sorrowing because of the disappointment of this hope, the Committee reverently and submissively bow to the will of Him who has called their beloved friend and fellow-helper from their midst.

2. That this Committee, while rejoicing in the maintenance of the income of the Fund through the past year, regrets to find that there is a further decrease in both the Class Contributions and Private Subscriptions. With an increase of Members of Society the decrease in the Class Contributions is specially to be regretted, and should engage the immediate attention of the Ministers of the Connexion. This Committee would further call attention to the large number of Circuits from which no private subscriptions are received, and urges upon the Ministers a faithful representation of the claims of the Fund, and where practicable, the enlisting lay friends to secure subscriptions and donations.

3. That this Committee recommends that the cordial thanks of the Conference be presented to Mr. John Napier, the General Treasurer, and the Rev. Herbert Hoare, the Secretary, also to the District Treasurers and the Circuit Treasurers for their services during the past year.

4. That this Committee recommends that the cordial thanks of the Conference be presented to those friends who during the past year have generously aided this Fund by special donations; to those Executors who have paid sundry Legacies to this Fund; and also to those Trustees who have contributed to it from their Chapel Income.

5. That this Committee recommends that the hearty thanks of the Conference be presented to Mr. Greaves Walker and Mr. Lancelot Smith for their services as Auditors for the past year; and that they be appointed for the next year.

6. That this Committee recommends that the Officers of this Fund be a Sub-Committee to advise with the Rev. Charles Garrett as to the Administration of the Ministers' Rest Fund.

7. That this Committee further recommends that the Superintendents be requested to send the Private Subscriptions to this Fund to the Clerical Treasurer, instead of their respective Financial Secretaries.
